PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

MINUTES,

ETC.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America met, agreeably to appointment, in the First Presbyterian Church, in the city of Chicago, Ill., on Thursday, the 18th day of May, A.D. 1871, at 11 o'clock A.M., and was opened with a sermon by the Rev. J. Trumbull Backus, D.D., the Moderator of the last Assembly, on Ephesians 4 : 16, "From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love."

After the sermon, the Assembly was constituted with prayer.

The Committee of Arrangements reported, recommending the Assembly to adjourn until 3½ o'clock P.M.; that the morning sessions commence at 9 o'clock A.M., and close at 12½ o'clock P.M., the first half-hour to be occupied with devotional exercises; and that the afternoon sessions commence at 2½ o'clock, and close at 5 o'clock P.M.

The report was accepted, and, pending its consideration, the Assembly adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M. Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 18th, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Commissions reported, and the following persons were recognized as duly appointed Commissioners of this General Assembly, and their names entered on

The Report of the Committee of Arrangements, presented at the morning session, was adopted.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 19th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the appointed time with devotional services.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Annual Reports of the Boards, Theological Seminaries, and Permanent Committees were presented, and referred to the appropriate Standing Committees.

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly, to consider and report General Rules for Judicatories, presented a Report, with General Rules, as follows:

The Committee, appointed by the last General Assembly to revise the General Rules for judicatories, respectfully present the following Report: The Committee found, on a comparison of the Rules in use in the two former Branches of the Church, that they were, with very few exceptions, identical; and that very few changes were necessary. The Committee propose only four changes, each of which is indicated in the margin of the Report. The proposed changes relate to the presentation of minutes, motions to amend, to lay on the table, and the previous question; and are numbered respectively 12, 20, 21, and 22.

For the sake of a more convenient reference, the Rules have been rearranged, so as to bring those relating to the same or kindred subjects more nearly together.

We are happy to add that the Committee are unanimous in recommending to the Assembly the adoption of the subjoined Rules; and would respectfully suggest that, if adopted, the Board of Publication should be directed to publish them as thus arranged and modified.

General Rules for Judicatories.

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the hour appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he do not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper indorsements, and to keep them in perfect order.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its sessions, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion, to amend an amendment to an amendment, shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, viz.: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate, and bring the body to a direct vote; First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); Secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded, by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one third of the members present.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order; or for the purpose of correcting mistakes, or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable, that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause, as members of the judicatory.

XLII. But in cases of process on the ground of general rumor, where there is, of course, no particular accuser, there may be a committee appointed (if convenient), who shall be called the "Committee of Prosecution," and who shall conduct the whole course on the part of the prosecution. The members of this committee shall not be permitted to sit in judgment in the case.

XLIII. The Moderator of every judicatory above the church session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung, an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.

The Report was accepted, and the Rules unanimously adopted, for the use of the General Assembly. They were also recommended to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption; and, in accordance with the suggestion of the Report, the Board of Publication was ordered to publish the Rules, as thus arranged and modified, in the Appendix to the Constitution.

The Committee, appointed by the last General Assembly, to consider and propose a plan with reference to a daily report of the proceedings of the Assembly, reported:

That, after much consideration and deliberation, they have made an arrangement with two gentlemen, Messrs. Dey and Belden, of the city of New-York, to publish a daily report of the proceedings in a journal, to be called The General Assembly Journal of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and they recommend it to the patronage of the General Assembly and the friends of the Church.

The report was adopted.

The Committee to procure the necessary legislation for the consolidation of the "Board of Domestic Missions" and the "Committee of Home Missions," presented a Report, as follows:

The Committee, appointed by the last General Assembly, to secure the necessary legislation to complete the consolidation of the "Board of Domestic Missions" and the "Committee of Home Missions," have not fully accomplished the duty assigned, and submit their action, with the reasons for a temporary suspension of effort, to the consideration of the Assembly.

In October last it was suggested, in behalf of the members of the Committee from Pennsylvania, that legislation in New-York should be secured before action could properly be taken by the Legislature of Pennsylvania; and the members of the Committee in New-York were requested to take early measures, to secure the passage of an appropriate Bill through the Legislature of that State.

This suggestion and request were communicated to the Board of Home Missions in New-York, and that body caused a Bill to be prepared, which was believed, by the counsel by whom it was framed, and the Board of Missions, would, if passed into a law, accomplish the purposes and carry out the will of the Assembly. This Bill was then submitted to the Board of Domestic Missions at Philadelphia, by whom a Committee was appointed to examine it, and suggest any changes in it which they might deem desirable.

In January last, the Bill was returned to the Board of Home Missions in New-York, with a suggestion of two changes—one in Section IV., to the effect, that "the Board might hold property to the amount of $500,000, instead of $200,000;" the other that "legacies, made to either the Board of Domestic Missions, or the Committee of Home Missions, prior to the passage of this act, should be paid to the corporation named in the Bill." No objection was made to the proposed Bill, nor were any other amendments suggested.

The first change was suggested under misapprehension—the proposed law did not limit the property of the corporation to $200,000, but to an amount which would yield an annual income of that sum; the second was thought impracticable, for the reason that the New-York Legislature could not direct the disposition of funds or property donated to a Pennsylvania Corporation—that, if done at all, it was thought, it must be done by authority of Pennsylvania; and the grants of the New-York Corporation were provided for, by making the proposed new corporation its legal successor.

The Corporation proposed by the Bill was authorized to take bequests, etc., and if Pennsylvania could and should see fit to authorize a transfer from the Corporation of that State, it was thought that the proposed clause would not add to the efficiency of such action.

This Bill was then, after the middle of January, sent to the Chairman of the Committee "to secure the necessary legislation" in the State of New-York, with the advice, that it was the result of the action of the Board of Home Missions upon the report of a Special Committee, and that it met the views of the Philadelphia Board.

A meeting of the members of the Committee to secure "necessary legislation," residing in New-York, was called, and action taken, which resulted in securing the passage of the Act as prepared, which became a law by the approval of the Governor, January 20th, and a certified copy was immediately forwarded to the Board at New-York.

The members of the Committee from the State of New-York would not, probably, have deemed it expedient to act in judgment upon the Bill, prepared under such circumstances, and sanctioned by such authority; had they thought it might be improved, they would have acquiesced in the judgment and action of the very competent gentlemen by whom it was framed and approved. But, upon the cursory examination they gave it, they discovered nothing objectionable, and thought it in substantial harmony with the recommendations of the Assembly.

The Bill which was proposed, and which became a law without any change, was an amendment of the act incorporating the "Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions," by changing the name and increasing and enlarging its powers, especially its capacity to take and hold property. This amendment, if accepted, would give the Church a corporation with ample powers, with a new name indicative of its character; and, as it would be the legal successor to, and, in a sense, a continuation of, the old corporation, no questions could arise as to the right of the new corporation, or the corporation with the new name, to the property, rights, and interests of the former body, or to devises and bequests to the former corporation, or the corporation by its original name. The law itself makes the transfer complete upon the acceptance of the amendment by this corporation. This avoided all questions that could arise upon a transfer by one corporation to another; and as to the rights of one corporate body to claim the benefit of bequests and devises to another, as well as the power of the Legislature thus to control the wills of testators; and dispensed, perhaps, with the necessity of keeping in existence two corporations in New-York. It left only the Philadelphia Corporation, and its property, and its claims to gifts by will which may take effect in the future, to be provided for by such legislation as discreet counsel should advise in Pennsylvania.

This is a matter not free from difficulty, and able counsel are of the opinion that it will be wise, if not indispensable, to continue the organization and existence of the Pennsylvania Corporation, until such time as all the bequests and gifts by devise shall have become actual possessions.

No action has been taken on this subject by the Legislature of Pennsylvania. Late in February, the Committee were informed that the legislation in New York was deemed by eminent legal gentlemen to be faulty and defective, and that it would not be discreet for the Philadelphia Board to transfer its property to the corporation named in the New-York Act; and several legal difficulties were suggested, in respect to which, it is proper to say, counsel learned in the law do not agree. But the suggestions were of that character, and came from such a source, that it has been thought advisable to suspend action for the present; and this was necessary, also, for the reason that the counsel consulted for that purpose declined to advise, that the "authority of the new body" contemplated by the Assembly was "perfect."

Moreover, the session of the New-York Legislature had so far advanced that, in view of the constitutional limits to its sessions, it was more than doubtful if a new Act could be passed; and it was not thought wise to risk a failure, as it might prejudice future action. There will be no difficulty in securing, at any future session of the New-York Legislature, any legislation that the Assembly may desire, to perfect the organization of Incorporation of the Board of Home Missions.

One objection to the Corporation as now created by the Act of the New-York Legislature is its name—that it is not the name dictated by the Assembly. Your Committee, taking the Bill as it came to their hands, did not observe the discrepancy. There was certainly no desire to disregard the will of the Assembly, and if attention had been drawn to the name, that given by the Assembly would have been taken. But it is thought that this is not a very material departure from the recommendation. The name is only important to designate the Corporation, and give it a title by which it may be known; and it is convenient, that the name of benevolent Corporations should be somewhat descriptive of their objects, to the end that donors may be the better able to direct their gifts and charities to the proper channels. In this respect the shorter the name is, and the nearer to that by which it is popularly called and known, the better, for there will be less liability to misnomer, resulting in loss of gifts and bequests.

Another objection is, that it is not a "new body." To this it is answered, that it is not the same body that was in existence in May last. It has a new name, which alone identifies Corporations, and it has enlarged powers; and it was thought that the substantial purpose of the Assembly was accomplished, in providing a Corporation competent to do this part of the work of the Church, and in substance answering the description called for by the Assembly; and that it was not material whether the body was created anew at this time, or an old Corporation was remodeled to answer the description. The thing, the agent, was the substance; and all the rest appeared to those framing the action taken, to be mere form; and, so long as this course obviated very many difficulties, it was not, when taken, thought objectionable.

In the correctness of this argument it is proper to add, that all of the Committee are not agreed. By some it is held, that the Assembly evidently contemplated the erection of a "new body," in no fair sense identical with either of the former, and to which both were directed to transfer. This view was confirmed to them by consultation with eminent counsel in Philadelphia, whose written opinion, given to the Reconstruction Committee, was submitted on this point, and who counseled specifically to this effect; and who further advised—as has been already stated—that it would not be safe to transfer the property of the Board of Domestic Missions to the Committee of Home Missions, even with a new name and enlarged powers; since many bequests and devises made to that Board were so conditioned as to be in danger of being litigated in such case.

If these two objections are not regarded as insuperable by the Assembly, and they shall deem it expedient to accept the action, and adopt this Corporation as the agent of the Church, with a further change of name if thought best, no further legislation in New-York will be necessary.

The other objections and difficulties suggested are inherent, and cannot be obviated by the New-York Legislature. They relate to the power of the Pennsylvania corporation to transfer its property to the New-York Corporation; and the rights which any new corporation, whether created in one State or the other, can, by act of the Legislature, acquire to gifts and grants to the Pennsylvania Corporation by name. So far as any thing can be done in this direction, it must be done in Pennsylvania; but, as before said, eminent counsel advise, that the Philadelphia Board and Corporation be kept in existence and operation, as far as necessary, and for such a length of time as may be required to secure any gifts, or grants, to the Church, for Domestic Missions.

If further legislation on the subject should be deemed necessary, it is submitted whether a Committee of three or four legal gentlemen should not be appointed by the Assembly, to prepare the necessary Bills with a view to efficient and uniform action in the two States of New-York and Pennsylvania.

A copy of the Bill passed by the Legislature of New-York is herewith transmitted to the Assembly.

COPY OF THE BILL PASSED.

CHAPTER 6.—An act to amend an act entitled, "An act to incorporate the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," passed April eighteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two.

PASSED JANUARY 20, 1871.

The people of the State of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section I. The first section of chapter three hundred and forty of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-two is hereby amended by substituting for the word "Committee," wherever it occurs in said section, the word "Board," so that the name of such corporation shall read "The Presbyterian Board of Home Missions."

Section II. The fourth section of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"§ IV. The said corporation by its name as now amended shall be, in law, capable of taking, receiving, and holding any real or personal estate which has been or may hereafter be given, devised, or bequeathed (subject to all provisions of law relating to devises and bequests by last will and testament) to it by its former name, or by its name as now amended, or to the said Church for the purposes aforesaid, or which may accrue from the use of the same; but the said corporation shall not take and hold real and personal estate the annual rental and income of which shall exceed the sum of two hundred thousand dollars."

Section III. This act shall take effect immediately.

The Report was accepted, and referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

The hearing of the Committee on the Memorial Fund was made the order of the day for Tuesday at 3 o'clock P.M.

The Special Committee, appointed by the last Assembly, on the Overture of the Rev. Joel K. Lyle, and the Memorial of David A. Sayre, in reference to the "Sayre Female Institute," of Lexington, Ky., presented a Report, which was accepted and put on the Docket.

The Committee on Manses presented a Report, which was accepted, and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee on a plan to reorganize the Theological Seminaries presented a Report, which was accepted, and referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The Moderator announced, as follows, the

The nomination of Delegates to Corresponding Bodies was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

An invitation to the members of the Assembly, to avail themselves of the privileges of the "Chicago Library Association," was accepted with thanks.

The place of meeting for the next Assembly was made the order of the day for Friday, the 26th instant, San Francisco, Cal., and Baltimore, Md., having been nominated.

Adjourned until 2½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 19th, 2½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Stated Clerk reported that the following additional Commissioners had presented their commissions, and been enrolled, viz.: Rev. Benjamin Russell, of the Presbytery of Genesee Valley; Rev. Charles A. Conant, of the Presbytery of Cayuga; Rev. George B. Barnes, of the Presbytery of Monroe; Rev. David L. Kiehle, of the Presbytery of Winona; Rev. Francis V. Warren, of the Presbytery of Erie; and Elders, Messrs. Daniel K. Hatfield, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, North; Moses W. Dodd, of the Presbytery of Newark; Charles R. Miller, of the Presbytery of Utica; Sir William Baker, M.D., of the Presbytery of Austin; Robert D. Morgan, of the Presbytery of Benicia; Henry N. Beach, of the Presbytery of Morris and Orange; James O. Conover, of the Presbytery of Monmouth; Winthrop S. Gilman, of the Presbytery of New-York; David Hutchinson, of the Presbytery of Des Moines; Nathaniel Frank, of the Presbytery of Winnebago; Phineas B. Young, of the Presbytery of Cayuga; Jonathan R. Mather, of the Presbytery of Fort Wayne; and Frederick Buel, of the Presbytery of San Francisco. Also the Rev. John Davis, and Mr. Thomas Lloyd Williams, as Delegates from the General Assembly of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist Church.

The consideration of the Report of the Special Committee, appointed by the last General Assembly, on the Sustentation Fund, was made the second order of the day for Friday next.

The Committee of Conference appointed by the last General Assembly, to confer with a similar Committee of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, presented the following Report:

The Joint Committee met in Pittsburgh, Pa., March 7th, 1871, and continued in session until the 9th. A most delightful spirit prevailed, and the very full and free discussions had with reference to the points of difference between the two bodies were characterized by the utmost friendliness and cordiality. In one of the early conferences, the United Presbyterian branch of the Committee submitted the following as the basis of union:

"The Westminster Standards as a general basis, with these additional propositions:

First. The Psalms of the Bible in the best possible version are to be the authorized psalmody of the Church.

Second. In all ordinary cases, the sacraments are to be restricted in their administration to those over whom the Church has authority.

Third. All associations, whether formed for political or benevolent purposes, which impose upon their members an oath of secrecy, or obligation to obey a code of unknown laws, are inconsistent with the spirit and genius of Christianity, and Church members ought not to have fellowship with such associations."

After some consideration given to the subject-matter of this basis, it was referred to the Presbyterian branch of the Committee, who subsequently reported, recommending the following as the general compromise of union:

"The Westminster Standards as the general basis, with these additional propositions:

First. That we regard the psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs of the Bible as peculiarly entitled to our consideration and use in public and private worship, because of their divine inspiration, and we reaffirm our testimony in their favor as authorized by the Word of God.

Second. That, in all ordinary cases, the sacraments are to be restricted in their administration to those over whom the Church has authority.

Third. That the genius and spirit of Christianity furnish the best incentive and the highest motive, and the truest basis, for all work of benevolence and reform, and that the Church, in her organized capacity, is the most efficient agency for the prosecution of this work, and should be preferred by all who love our Lord Jesus Christ."

It was finally unanimously decided, in general Committee, in view of the impossibility of fully reconciling the divergent views, that the two cases be submitted to the respective Assemblies. In thus submitting our Report, your Committee would say, that, while unable to come to a perfect agreement on the proposition before us, we were greatly gratified and encouraged by the nearness to an agreement at which we arrived; and we do most earnestly recommend the union of our Churches to the continued consideration of our Assemblies. With this view we recommend the appointment of Committees for further conference and negotiation on the subject, with such instructions accompanying the appointment as by the Assembly may be deemed desirable.

The Report was accepted, and, after considerable discussion, it was Resolved, That the Assembly, without expressing their opinion on the basis of union thus presented, continue the Committee, with instructions to seek a basis on which both parties may perfectly and harmoniously unite.

A communication was presented and read, from the Convener of the Committee on Correspondence of the English Synod of the United Presbyterian Church of Great Britain and Ireland, conveying their fraternal salutations. The following Delegates from the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church of Great Britain and Ireland, having presented their commissions, were duly enrolled:

Rev. William France, of Paisley, Scotland.

Rev. William M. Taylor, of Liverpool, England.

The Committee, appointed by the last General Assembly, on the Benevolent Work of the Church, presented a Report, which was read, and its consideration made the second order of the day for Wednesday, the 24th instant.

The time and manner of the reception of Delegates to this Assembly from Corresponding Bodies was referred to the Committee on Devotional Exercises.

The subjects of the appointment of Annual Concerts of Prayer, and the celebration of the Lord's Supper by Ecclesiastical Bodies, were referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Arthur T. Pierson, Henry E. Niles, and Anson J. Upson, D.D., Ministers; and Winthrop S. Gilman and Oliver R. Kingsbury, Elders.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 20th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the appointed time with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Report of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House was presented, and referred to the Standing Committee on Publication.

Rev. John Hall, D.D., of the Presbytery of New-York, appeared as a Commissioner, and was enrolled.

Hon. John V. Farwell, by leave of the Assembly, presented an invitation in person, on behalf of the citizens of Lake Forest, to the members of the Assembly and their families, to take an excursion to that city on Thursday next, 25th instant. The invitation was accepted, and the thanks of the Assembly tendered to Mr. Farwell and the citizens of Lake Forest for their kind invitation.

The subject of Ministerial Relief was made the first order of the day for Saturday next.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented a Report, recommending as follows:

That a meeting in behalf of Foreign Missions be held on the evening of Tuesday next;

And a meeting in behalf of Home Missions and Church Erection on Wednesday evening, following;

That Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., be invited to preach his Discourse on the life of Rev. Thomas H. Skinner, D.D., LL.D., in this church, on the evening of Thursday next; and

That the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be celebrated by the Assembly on Friday next, at 8 o'clock P.M.

The Report was accepted and the recommendations adopted.

The Standing Committee on Education presented their Report, after which the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. William Speer, D.D., the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education, and others; and the Report, with the accompanying resolutions, was unanimously adopted, as follows:

The Standing Committee on Education would respectfully present to the General Assembly the following Report and Resolutions:

That from the Fifty-second Report of the Board of Education, being the first Report of that Board to the Reunited Church, it appears that there have been under its care, during the year, 670 candidates for the ministry. Of this number there were, academical students, 156; collegiate students, 284; theological students, 230. Of the latter, 52 have this year completed their studies, and entered upon the work of the ministry.

The receipts of the year ending April 30th, 1871, have been $79,812.29. The expenditures have been $79,449.17, leaving a balance of $362.12.

A special Act, incorporating the new Board as the lineal successor of the old Board and the Permanent Committee, has been passed by the Legislature of Pennsylvania; and the Legislature of New-York have authorized the Permanent Committee to transfer their property, bequests, etc., to the new Board.

From the Report of the Board of Education, it will be gratifying to the Church to know, that Candidates for the ministry have been more thoroughly and cordially cared for than during any previous year. The work has been made more simple. It has been done by the rightful agencies of the Church. Important rules, hitherto disregarded, have been more carefully observed. Discriminating reports have been obtained. Not one Institution has failed to report when requested. The present plans of our Board of Education—the result of the experiments of the Presbyterian Church for one hundred and fifty years—seem now to be all that could be desired for promoting the increase and preparation of men for her ministry.

And yet your Committee would ask the attention of the Assembly to the following suggestions:

We believe that the Presbyteries would more thoroughly care for Education if they were required, by a standing order of the Synod, to make a full report, annually, of what each has done for this Cause.

It may be, also, that a cheap periodical, published by the Board, might more fully inform the entire Church of the nature and wants of our educational work.

We believe, also, that our Church will not do justice to her young men, and will diminish their future usefulness, unless we increase the amount allotted to aid them in preparation for the ministry. Necessary expenses are now so great that many suffer in health, and have not the food, and clothing, and books which they need. The testimony of professors and teachers is unanimous, that an increase of pecuniary aid to our students for the ministry is essential. Besides, the remainder of the May appropriations are now due. To pay them, the Board needs at once $15,000. When these are paid, there will remain nothing in the Treasury to meet the heavy payments of the fall and winter months. For these purposes, the contributions of our churches to the Cause of Education during the year should not be less than $120,000.

The Presbyterian Church cannot live without an educated ministry. Our Church needs to-day 500 educated ministers. And yet we have sent out from all our Seminaries, during the year, not more than 150 men. We owe it to ourselves, to our Church, to our Saviour, to see to it that our choicest young men shall enter the ministry, and that all our churches, without exception, aid them in their preparatory work.

Your Committee would embody their more important suggestions in the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we recommend to our Synods the adoption of a standing order, requiring each Presbytery to report what it has done for the Board of Education.

Resolved, That we direct the Board of Education to pay to each theological student under its care $200 per annum; to each collegiate student, $160; to each academical student, $120.

Resolved, That we urge upon all our churches more liberal contributions to this Cause, amounting, for the year, to not less than $120,000.

It being necessary to preserve the legal existence of the old Board, and the Permanent Committee on Education, it is recommended that the members of the class of 1871, whose term of office expires with this meeting of the General Assembly, be, in each of the organizations, re-elected.

An invitation, to the members of the Assembly, to visit the Museum of the "Academy of Sciences," was received from that Institution, and accepted with thanks.

An invitation, to the members of the Assembly, to visit the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in this city, was received from the General Agent of the Institution, and accepted with thanks.

Adjourned until Monday, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, May 22d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the appointed time with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Certain papers from the "Presbyterian Historical Society" were laid before the Assembly by the Moderator, and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That to the Baptist Churches now, by the annual meetings of their Societies, assembled in the city of Chicago, the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Assembly are requested to express our fraternal greetings, our prayer for the blessing of the Spirit in their present meetings, our congratulations upon their past success, and our hope for their future prosperity in accomplishing their part of the grand work of evangelizing the world.

An engrossed copy of the Resolution, signed by the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Assembly, was ordered to be sent to the Baptist bodies now in session in this city.

The Report of the Committee appointed by the last Assembly, on the Overture and Memorial respecting the "Sayre Female Institute," of Lexington, Ky., was taken from the docket and referred to a special Committee, consisting of Samuel C. Perkins, Esq., Hon. James Pollock, LL.D., William Ernst, Elders; and Ben Ezra S. Ely and John L. McKee, D.D., Ministers.

An Overture, respecting correspondence with the Presbyterian Church of Canada, was presented, and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection presented their Report, after which the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. Henry R. Wilson, D.D., the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Church Erection, and others.

Pending the consideration of the Report, the Assembly adjourned until 2½ o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, May 22d, 2½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

Messrs. William H. Hay, of the Presbytery of Indianapolis, and Josiah W. Guy, of the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, Elders, appeared as Commissioners, and were enrolled.

The unfinished business of the morning, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection, was resumed, and, after further discussion, the Report and accompanying Resolutions were adopted as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Erection respectfully submit to the General Assembly the following Report:

Your Committee have carefully examined both the Report of the Board, and the brief Report of the still-existing Board of Church Extension, (continued by the last Assembly;) and they have been not only greatly gratified with the diligence and fidelity of the Board, but they have also been impressed with the progress of this work, and the prospect of greatly increased usefulness in the future. For, while the advance made has been healthful and cheering, yet it is unquestioned that no other department of church work, in this great "Memorial Year," has been so directly confronted by the special offerings of the people. The summary of the year's work is as follows: Two hundred and twenty churches, in twenty-eight States and Territories, and representing more than a hundred Presbyteries, have received aid. The appropriations to them amount to $145,292.22, showing an average of about $660 to each church, an increase upon the average of former years. The receipts of the year are $156,299.28, namely,

Receipts from the churches, including special contributions,	$97,025 07
Individual contributions,	26,166 15
Legacies,	9,230 86
Interest on Permanent Fund mortgages,	5,874 64
Sale of real estate in Missouri,	7,714 13
From the Memorial Committee,	10,288 40

Thus showing an increase, not only in the sum total over both the Boards of last year, but in the number of churches contributing to the Cause.

But, first, while we rejoice in these evidences of a growing interest in this branch of the work of evangelization, so fundamental to all permanent success, your Committee record the conviction, that the Church has not yet attained a true conception of its vast importance and power, in the work of conquering the continent for Christ.

Some six hundred organized congregations are to-day without houses of worship. This Board is not yet able "to devise liberal things," whereas it ought to be a powerful aggressive agency, arousing and stimulating the Church to substantial progress everywhere, in the cities, in the prairies, along the great lines of railway, and on the far-off shores of the Pacific, securing those grants of land which are so freely offered, for church purposes, by railroad and town companies throughout the West.

Second. They recommend to the Board special regard to the new and needy sections of our country, and that they discourage applications from fields where, in the language of the Report, "in a few instances somewhat large grants have been made to more costly churches." They recommend the Presbyteries, to make careful examinations into the actual merit of every case presented for their approval; thus recognizing their joint responsibility for the wise administration of the trust, that none but the really feeble shall be aided, and that the property in all cases shall be not only free from debt, but insured, and secured by mortgage to the full amount granted by the Board.

Third. They again call attention to the fact, that numbers of churches have contributed to church erection in their own localities, without reporting their gifts to the Board.

Believing that no just idea is thus given to the Assembly of the actual donations of the Church in this direction, we recommend that the churches be requested, to report directly to the Church Erection Board all such gifts, so that not only the evangelizing activity of the whole Church may be more correctly estimated, but that all such donations may be included in the obligation by which the property is secured to the Presbyterian Church.

Your Committee would, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

First. That the Assembly gratefully acknowledge the abundant blessing of the Head of the Church on this work in the past, and commend it to the prayerful consideration of the ministers and members of our churches.

Second. That it is manifest that the gifts of God's people to this department are far below the demands of his providence, while so many hundreds of organized congregations are yet without houses of worship; and the Assembly would again urge the necessity of annual Cand liberal contributions from each church for this Cause.

Third. In view of the fact, that the laws of Missouri do not admit of Church Boards, or religious societies, either holding or transferring real estate, except through trustees such as the Board of Church Extension now has for our property in that State, they recommend the perpetuation of that Board, and that Charles A. Dickey, David C. Lyon, D.D., Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., Adelbert Van der Lippe, J. C. Havens, S. S. Watson, E. H. Smith, and A. G. Edwards be elected to fill the places of those members of the Board whose term of office expires at this time. They further recommend that Joseph Fewsmith, D.D., John Thomson, D.D., Elijah R. Craven, D.D., and Theodore L. Cuyler, D.D., Ministers, and Messrs. Joseph R. Skidmore, Frederick G. Burnham, and Jonathan Ogden be elected members of the Board of Church Erection, as the first class; and in the second class, Charles Collins, in place of George W. Lane, resigned; and in the third class, Albert N. Brown, in place of Russell Scarritt, deceased.

Finally. In presenting this Report with these recommendations to the Assembly, your Committtee would emphasize earnestly all that has been urged as to the magnitude of the needs of this Board, and the instant necessity for larger liberality toward it. No claim is stronger or clearer than this. Other things being equal, the spread of truth, in pure Presbyterian form, will be proportionate to the number of church edifices, that we shall erect for the worship of God and the preaching of his word. The church edifice is the nucleus around which the spiritual elements gather and take on permanent shape. Surely $150,000 does not rightly represent our denominational responsibility toward this great Department of the kingdom of our Lord.

The following Report was presented by the same Committee, additionally, from the old Board of Church Extension:

The Board of Church Extension, having been perpetuated by act of the last General Assembly, for the purpose of settling up the unfinished business in their hands, beg leave to make the following brief report to the Assembly.

At the close of our last Annual Report, April 1st, 1870, the balance in the treasury at St. Louis—as per the Treasurer's printed report—was.....$9,882 12

There were also, in the hands of Trustees, real estate trusts, secured by deeds of trust on real estate, amounting to....46,500 00

Total assets.....$56,382 12

This cash balance, with net proceeds of land sold and transmitted to Nathan Lane, Treasurer at New-York.....$17,675 52
Leaving in the hands of the Trustees securities amounting to $35,706 60

In view of the possibility of bequests having been made to the Board of Church Extension, which would be lost to the Presbyterian Church by the dissolution of this Board, and in view of the fact that the laws of Missouri do not admit of Church Boards as religious societies either holding or transferring real estate except through trustees, such as this Board now has, it is deemed wise that the Board of Church Extension be continued as it now exists. We further report that the term of office of the following persons expires at this time, viz: William M. Paxton, D.D., David C. Lyon, D.D., Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., the Rev. Adelbert Van der Lippe, J. C .Havens, S. S. Watson, E. H. Smith, and A. G. Edwards.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen presented their Report, after which the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. A. Craig McClelland, the Corresponding Secretary of the Committee of Missions for Freedmen, and others; and the Report was adopted, as follows:

The Committee on "Missions for Freedmen" report:

1. That they have carefully examined the Report of the Committee of Missions for Freedmen of the Presbyterian Church, presented to the General Assembly and referred to your Committee, with all the papers relating thereto, and do most cordially approve the manner and spirit in which the Committee have discharged their duties, and recommend that their Report be printed for distribution.

2. We also especially commend their zeal and efforts in establishing the Biddle Memorial Institute, and Wallingford Academy, for the education of colored ministers and teachers, and all who desire to avail themselves of the advantages offered by these Institutions; and the Scotia Seminary for the education of colored girls. These Institutions, in all their relations and interests, commend themselves to the earnest, liberal, and prayerful attention of all who desire and labor for the elevation and salvation of the human family.

3. We recommend earnestly the continuance of the Committee for another year. Every consideration of public and private interest in relation to the work and spread of the Gospel among the freedmen, requires such continuance. The unsettled condition of things in the South—the peculiar nature of the work—the qualifications and experience of those engaged in it—the knowledge of the Committee—their earnestness and zeal, demand that no change be made for the present in this Department of the work of our Church.

4. The Committee regret to find, that the work among the Freedmen has not been sustained in a manner at all commensurate with its importance. "The Committee of Missions for Freedmen" are largely indebted to the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions, and are otherwise crippled in their operations for want of funds.

We urgently commend the Committee of Missions for Freedmen, their work and Institutions, to the prompt and large liberality of all our churches and people, and the coöperation of all our Boards. We ask them to devise liberal things; to execute and perform promptly whatever their hands and hearts find to do, and, by their generous contributions and earnest prayers, bid them God-speed in the good work, and hasten the day when "the earth shall be filled with the knowledge and glory of the Lord," with whom "there is no respect of persons," and before whom all are equal.

We recommend the following ministers and elders for election as members of the Presbyterian Committee of Missions for Freedmen for the ensuing year, namely:

Ministers.—Elliott E. Swift, D.D., Samuel J. Wilson, D.D., James Allison, D.D., Frederick A. Noble, John Gillespie, Peter S. Davies.

Laymen.—James B. Lyon, Robert C. Totten, John C. McCombs, Robert Albree, Henry Forsyth, William C. Aughinbaugh.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented a further report, recommending that the Delegates from Corresponding Bodies be received on Wednesday, the 24th inst., at 2½ o'clock P.M.

An invitation was received from Mr. A. G. Brand, photographer, of this city, for the members of the Assembly to call at his rooms, and have their photographs taken, with a view to their combination in a grand historical picture of the Assembly, which Mr. Brand has in contemplation.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 23d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the appointed time with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Correspondence presented a Report, recommending that Delegates from this General Assembly be appointed to the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces of British North-America, in answer to an overture from the Presbytery of Boston.

The recommendation was adopted.

The Standing Committee on Finance presented their Report, as follows:

The Committee on Finance respectfully report, that there has been placed in their hands the account of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, from April 1st, 1870, to April 1st, 1871. The amount received during that period, including the balance from last year, was $46,773.98. The expenditures were, $40,352.33; leaving a balance in the Treasurer's hands of $6421.65. The correctness of this account is certified by the Trustees of the General Assembly, through their Committee of Accounts.

The following papers accompany the Treasurer's Report:

No. 2. Balance-sheet transcribed from the ledger.

No. 3. Contains the several permanent funds to which the cash balance of $6421.65 belongs.

No. 4. Specifications of investments with the accruing interest.

No. 5. Statements of additions to the Permanent Funds during the year.

No. 6. A tabular statement of investments amounting in the aggregate to $177,438.53.

No. 7. Names of the Trustees and the officers of the Board.

All of which papers are in order, the accounts properly verified, and your Committee recommend their approval, and that they be published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Committee further report that the Treasurer has exhibited to them a box containing duplicates, cash-book, journal, and ledger. They have not inspected these books, as transcripts of the entries during the last year, duly certified, are deemed sufficient; and they recommend that the Treasurer be not required to bring these books to the Assembly, from year to year, as is his custom, unless when specially ordered.

The Committee further report that the Stated Clerk has placed in their hands his account for the past year, with accompanying vouchers, showing a balance in his hands of $62.27, but showing also an unpaid balance, due the printer of the Minutes of 1870, of $502.40. This they find correct, and recommend its approval. They also report the estimated expenses of the current year for printing the Minutes, salaries and incidentals, with the unpaid debt of last year, at $5000. They recommend, therefore, that the Mileage Committee be instructed to pay, to the Stated Clerk, the sum of $5000, out of the funds received from the Presbyteries now in their hands, before the distribution of that fund among the Commissioners. They also recommend that the Stated Clerk have added to his duties that of Treasurer of the General Assembly, and that his salary be increased one hundred dollars.

That portion of the Report, relative to the appointment of the Stated Clerk as Treasurer of the General Assembly and the increase of his salary, was adopted; and the consideration of the remainder of the Report was postponed until the rendering of the Report of the Committee on Mileage.

A communication was received from the General Conference of Maine, requesting that the correspondence with that body be by letter. It was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Standing Committee on Publication presented their Report, after which the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. William E. Schenck, D.D., the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education, and others. The hour of adjournment approaching, the consideration of the Report was suspended.

It was resolved to hold a session this evening, commencing at 7¾ o'clock P.M.

Rev. James S. Todd, of the Presbytery of Benicia, John R. Meredith, Elder, from the Presbytery of Missouri River, and L. Greenfield, from the Presbytery of Vincennes, Elder, appeared as Commissioners, and were enrolled.

Also the Rev. D. H. McVickar, LL.D., as a Delegate from the General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Benjamin C. Taylor, D.D., as a Delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America; the Rev. John N. Dick, D.D., as a Delegate from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North-America; and the Rev. John H. Coulter, as a Delegate from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

An invitation was received for the members of the Assembly to make a steamboat excursion of two hours, next Saturday afternoon, on the Lake; and afterward to unite in a social reunion at the residence of Mr. James C. Waller, a few miles from the city. The invitation was accepted with thanks.

Adjourned until 2½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 23d, 2½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The unfinished business of the morning session was resumed, and, after further discussion, suspended to take up the second order of the day, viz.: the Report of the Committee on the Five Million Memorial Fund. Mr. Winthrop S. Gilman, Chairman of the Committee, made a brief statement, after which the Report of the Committee was presented by the Rev. Frank F. Ellinwood, D.D., the Secretary of the Committee, as follows:—

The Committee appointed to raise and disburse the Five Million Memorial Fund was organized at 47 Exchange Place, New-York, June 17th, 1870, the Chairman, Winthrop S. Gilman, presiding. It was resolved, that Hon. William E. Dodge be requested to continue in office as Treasurer, and Rev. F. F. Ellinwood was appointed Corresponding Secretary for one year, for the general supervision of the work. Steps were immediately taken to lay before the churches a distinct plan for subscribing, collecting, reporting, and remitting their offerings according to the direction of the Assembly.

The Committee learned that, during the interval between the passage of the organized resolution at Pittsburgh and the final ratification at Philadelphia, only about $1900 had been contributed to the Central Treasury, though beginnings had been made in various forms of home work among the churches.

The greater part of the $5,000,000 was yet to be raised, and eleven months remained for the work.

The small amount which had thus far been contributed, the wide differences of opinion in the Church as to the uses which should be made of the fund, and the general demand that the people should be allowed to judge of the wisdom and necessity of their own disbursements, rendered it plain that success could be attained only by adopting a policy, as liberal as the instructions of the Assembly would permit.

The great object in view, as the Committee conceived it, was to render memorable the Presbyterian Reunion by an enlargement and strengthening of all the structural interests of the Church as a permanent token of gratitude to God.

The motive of highest utility must be coupled with that of commemoration.

Even aside from the question of what was feasible and what was not, of what might succeed and what would inevitably fail, it seemed more important to secure the greatest possible advancement of the kingdom of Christ, than to present imposing results before men. Evidently no Committee could realize so large an amount as five millions of dollars, without seeking the coöperation and subsidizing the manifold interests of the whole Church. Each Synod and each Presbytery must take up its own work; every institution of learning must stimulate the exertions of its Alumni and its local friends; and every feeble congregation must seize the opportunity, both of quickening its own efforts, and of gaining help from others. The Committee have, therefore, from the first, endeavored to provoke the diligence of the churches in those forms of work, within the prescribed classes, which in their judgment should present the strongest claim to their liberality. They have, however, urged particularly the general objects named by the Assembly, and have invariably presented the highest and most spiritual motives. As far as possible, the Committee have been personally represented in the various Synods, and in Union meetings of the churches in the larger towns. In order to secure the more thorough co-operation of the West and North-west, Rev. A. G. Ruliffson was, on the 1st of August, appointed Western Secretary for the remainder of the fiscal year; and the Committee have had abundant reason to rejoice in the results of that appointment.

In regard to the range of objects contemplated in this work, the brief outline recommended by the former Committee of Ten, and adopted by the last Assembly, has proved to be eminently wise, both in its comprehensiveness and in its limitations. It confined the effort to the main departments of structural and permanent interests, and yet forbore to enter into details which could not have been judiciously imposed beforehand, and which could only have exerted a discouraging and repressive influence. The structural objects which were indicated by the Assembly were of five classes, viz.: Churches, Manses, Literary and Theological Institutions at Home and Abroad, Hospitals connected with the Church, and Houses for the use of the Boards.

What proportion of the aggregate fund should be allotted to each of these classes the Assembly did not state; nor has the Committee felt authorized to decide. If one class has been found to absorb too much, and another has received too little, it is but an inevitable result of that discretionary freedom which the plan necessarily involved. To these permanent objects, as distinguished from all current work, the Committee have endeavored to confine the effort, allowing only such expansions as were conceived to exist in the spirit of this movement as first proposed. If, in the practical exigencies of so many churches, seeming changes have appeared in the plan, they have been only those of natural and necessary development, as the bulb is transformed to a rooted plant.

Thus the principle, which admits a complete Institution, must be so ramified as to cover all its parts. If the friends of a particular college, variously offer endowments, new buildings, scholarships, libraries, repairs, canceled mortgages, and grants of land, they must, of logical necessity, be included, though in the outset no such variety had occurred to any mind. So of churches; if one congregation find acceptance for a new sanctuary complete in all its parts and appurtenances, no principle of justice can exclude the poorer flock who can only offer a part of a church, as an enlargement, or a new roof, or an organ, or a bell, or even a horse-shed, or a fence.

It is true, that by such a rule some humble objects are included; but He who, in the construction of his ancient sanctuary, invited even such offerings as a ram's skin or a little goat's hair, does not despise a humble gift. It is a beautiful feature of our common memorial, that it has harmoniously combined the efforts of the wealthy and the poor. The affluent have given their tens of thousands, and with equal acceptance the toiling needle-woman has offered joyfully her mite; the merchant-prince has drawn his check, and the converted Indian on the frontier has given his honest score of days' work upon the walls of God's house. It is inevitable, that the general principles governing so great an undertaking should sometimes be abused. How could it be otherwise, when so much of worldly motive mingles with all the benevolences and all the services of the Church? The memorial work has doubtless been marred by as many exhibitions of a selfish spirit as appear in other things; but the degree of selfishness has not always been measured by mere locality, nor the kind of memorial object chosen. Hundreds of the noblest instances of self-sacrifice have been shown in humble congregations, which were struggling to secure a sanctuary for themselves and their neighbors about them. A voluminous record might be given of incidents and illustrations of the most touching character, and affording ample proof that many have found the Memorial work a precious means of grace.

While pursuing a liberal policy in admitting the gifts of the churches, the Committee have confined their own direct disbursements to objects of a general character, and those of the most pressing need. They have had no desire to secure any large proportion of the fund to the general Treasury, except as enabling them to meet this class of wants. They would gladly have accomplished more in this respect than they have.

At a time when very general apprehension existed, lest the Memorial should seriously embarrass the Church Boards, many persons in various parts of the Church expressed a desire to devote their Memorial offerings as special donations for the relief of the Boards. As such gifts found no sanction, in either the letter or the spirit of the Assembly's instructions, the Committee felt that they had no authority in the premises; but they finally resolved to admit these special offerings in a separate class, subject to the action of this Assembly.

In the midst of the apprehensions, just referred to, the Committee have maintained a hopeful spirit. They have so constantly received assurances that the churches, which were doing most for the Memorial, were even increasing their gifts to the Boards, that they have felt confident, that the end of the year would show very slight deficits in our regular benevolences, if any at all. And it is with rare satisfaction and gratitude, that they now find that confidence fully justified.

Comparing the Reports of the Boards just rendered to this Assembly with those presented a year ago, and confining the estimate to the actual gifts of churches and individuals, as distinguished from legacies and other casual resources, they find the receipts of the united Boards, compared with the aggregates of the separate Boards of the two branches last year, to present the following gains as compared with last year:

Home Missions; gain over last year, $16,297.25: Church Erection; gain about $20,000: Education; deficit, $964: Publication; deficit, $9888: Freedmen; gain, about $500: Ministerial Relief; gain, $13,687.27: Foreign Missions; gain, $37,296.89: Aggregate gain of all the Boards, $77,466.89; Total gain, $76,502.89.

It should be stated, that the gains in the Foreign Board are mainly due to the accession of churches formerly contributing to the American Board of Foreign Missions; but it should also be said, that there are still considerable amounts in the Memorial Treasury for the Presbyterian Board, not included in their Report.

There are furthermore some differences in the time of closing the fiscal year of the Boards, as compared with the previous year; but these differences, together with the fact that the Memorial Report closes latest of all, will, on the whole, rather strengthen the exhibit which is here made, and will fully establish the important fact, that, during the Memorial year, churches and individuals have given a larger aggregate to the Boards than in any previous year of our whole history.

It may be proper, also, to dwell, for a moment, on the direct benefits which the Memorial has conferred upon the various Causes which the Boards represent.

On the Foreign Mission field, permanent Institutions have been provided for to the amount of nearly a hundred thousand dollars.

In Church Erection on the Home field, a careful estimate shows, that about six hundred churches and chapels have been reared during the year and a half, of which only twenty-one have reported a cost of over $25,000. About three hundred of these, including mission chapels, have directly or indirectly received aid from the Memorial Fund. The amount, which has actually been received into the Treasury for this purpose, is $96,282.93.

The Cause of Publication has only been benefited in the enlargement of the Publishing House to the extent of about $45,300.

For the Freedmen's Cause less has been done than was desirable—only about $10,000 having been reported for schools and churches devoted to their interests.

The Cause of Ministerial Relief, aside from special gifts already estimated in its own Reports, has received some small amounts for a permanent fund.

How far the Cause of Education has been advanced may be judged by the fact, that the Church has added nearly a million and a half of dollars to her educational apparatus in various permanent forms.

The relation of the Memorial effort to Home Missions is less direct, but none the less important. The recent Report of the Home Mission Board shows, that the churches under their care have raised $228,627 for the payment of church debts. This amount, at the safe rate of 8 per cent interest, shows a saving to the mission churches, and virtually to the Mission Board, of $18,130 per annum. But the whole amount of Memorial contributions reported from Home Mission churches is $339,410, and when we add the large sums given them by others for churches, manses, and repairs, we shall have an aggregate increase of not less than half a million of church property in the Home Mission field;—the effect of which will raise many churches at once, or very soon, to a position of efficiency and self-support. And, finally, the Memorial effort in all our churches, rich and poor, by removing obstacles, and enlarging foundations, and quickening exertion, has prepared the way for the future work of the various Boards beyond any thing in the history of the past.

The Committee are led to believe, that not the least of the good results of this effort has been its rallying and uniting influence upon the denomination. It seems providential, that the reunion should have been followed by a common and enthusiastic movement, overpowering and obliterating all the old lines of separation.

It has, moreover, strengthened our courage, by the development of important principles. It has shown that there is a responsive loyalty among us, to the projects and behests of the Assembly; it has demonstrated the important fact, that we are a thoroughly organized body, and that, by our Presbyterian polity, even so great a mass may be marshaled and wielded in the great work of Christian conquest. Nor can it be doubted, that the experiment of this Memorial year has permanently enlarged the scale of benevolence among us. Whatever may be said of the use which the churches have made of their gifts, the great and notable fact is, that such vast amounts of money have been given at all for religious purposes, and given mainly with a sincere desire to accomplish the highest good. It is not a light thing, that in this worldly age, and amid the business discouragements which have marked the year, and with the current expenditures of all the churches still continued, and with seven regular Boards to be maintained in full operation, so many extra millions of dollars should have been contributed for the permanent interests of Christ's kingdom. The fact itself is the best possible monument of reunion. The spectacle of such a movement is full of encouragement and hope.

And lest it should be said by any that these are not extra amounts, but that we have only recorded the average structural work of average years, the Committee have been at some pains to learn what has been done outside of the Memorial reckoning; and they find that by the common impulse, which, even under protest, could not wholly be resisted, more than two millions of dollars, not included in this report, have been raised during the Memorial Period for the same kinds of work. There is abundant proof, that the five millions, which it was resolved to raise, may be set down as a clear gain above all previous years of our history as a Church. The Committee are free to confess, that even their highest hopes have been more than realized in this respect. And when they contrast the discouragements that hung over their early efforts, with the general response that has at length been given, they are impressed with the fact that the result is not due to skillful management, nor to faithful labors, nor to any human influence, but to the special power of the Spirit of God moving so many hearts in all parts of the land to a common effort.

It is due to some of the best men in the Church, who from the first have doubted the policy of such a movement, to say that they have, nevertheless, in other ways, helped forward the cause of Christ in proportionate degrees. It is partly due to the special efforts of such, that the Boards have been so well sustained. The Committee rejoice in their efforts, also, nay, and will rejoice, since every way God is glorified.

In viewing the labors of the year, the Committee take great pleasure in acknowledging the great assistance afforded them by the weekly religious press of the denomination. Perhaps never before has the power of the religious press in promoting great Church enterprises been so fully illustrated. To human view it is difficult to see how, without this valuable agency, the work of the Committee could have been accomplished. To the Evangelist, the Presbyterian, the Interior, the Observer, the Herald and Presbyter, the Banner, and the Occident, the thanks not only of the Committee but of the whole Church are due for their efficient aid. The Committee would also make grateful mention of the fact, that furnished offices have been placed at their disposal during the year by Phelps, Dodge & Co., and that similar courtesies were tendered them by Brown Brothers & Co., and others in New-York.

In presenting the actual statistics of the work, it should be premised that, owing to the tardiness of the returns from many churches, our Report is necessarily incomplete. Much work known to have been accomplished is too late for this presentation. Some of the returns also have been so indistinct, that a satisfactory comparison of college reports with those of churches, with a view to avoiding repetition, has been well-nigh impossible. And, as the Committee have preferred to err on the safe side, they have in all cases of uncertainty ruled out college reports, though fully persuaded that by these means $200,000 are excluded from their footings. Owing to the same difficulty, no account has been made of the reports of special Memorial gifts returned by the Boards, and by the Woman's Societies. Large sums, also, gathered from individuals for churches in the West, have been excluded on account of uncertainty, though it is believed that many of them have not been reported by donors. It was the first intention of the Committee to report individual donors in some cases by name; but the difficulty of a proper discrimination has been found to be so great, that such names are simply entered on the Memorial Records, while to the public they are reported in the aggregate, under a general miscellaneous head.

The classification of money received and reported thus far, is as follows: For New Church Buildings, $3,236,475.61; Manses, $683,884.05; Repairs and Enlargement, $733,707.60; Payment of Debts, $1,083,478.72; Institutions of Learning, $1,405,548.66; Permanent Institutions in Foreign Lands, $93,509.96; Special Gifts to the Boards, $60,340.40; Hospitals, $48,665.35; Relief Fund and Sustentation, $41,150.46; Presbyterian Houses, $46,882.37; Amounts not specified by the churches reporting them, $162,681.10; Expenses of the Committee, $11,175.63. It is with profound gratitude to God, that the Committee announce, as the total amount reported, up to 12 o'clock today, SEVEN MILLION, SIX HUNDRED AND SEVEN THOUSAND, FOUR HUNDRED AND NINETY-NINE DOLLARS AND NINETY-ONE CENTS ($7,607,499.91).

At the close of the reading of the Report, the whole Assembly arose spontaneously and sang the Doxology, after which, by invitation of the Moderator, the Rev. John Hall, D.D., gave thanks to God for his great goodness.

"Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,"

The Report was then accepted, and referred to a Special Committee of fifteen, to suggest suitable action thereon.

It was resolved, that the amounts, provisionally received by the Committee in aid of the several Boards, should be added to the amount reported as contributed to the Fund.

The following preamble and resolution were referred to the Special Committee of Fifteen, viz.:

Whereas, there are still six hundred homeless churches which will require $1,000,000 more for Church Erection, the Assembly recommend the churches to continue their "thank-offerings" for another year to procure houses of worship for these churches, and for any new ones which may be established during that time.

TUESDAY, May 23d, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Rev. John Hall, D.D., of the Presbytery of New-York; Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., of the Presbytery of St. Louis; the Rev. Alexander Reed, D.D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia Central, and the Rev. James Eells, D.D., of the Presbytery of Cleveland, by invitation, addressed the Assembly respecting the Five Million Memorial Fund.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 24th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the appointed time with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the sessions of yesterday afternoon and evening were read and approved.

An alphabetical roll of the members of the Assembly, with their addresses in Chicago, having been prepared, it was ordered to be printed, at a cost not to exceed twenty dollars ($20).

The unfinished business of yesterday afternoon, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Publication, was resumed.

It was resolved that, in the further discussion of that part of the Report relating to Psalmody, speakers be limited to three minutes each.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Publication, and the accompanying resolutions, were adopted with some amendments, as follows:

The Standing Committee on Publication respectfully report to the General Assembly as follows:

There were referred to this Committee two documents for consideration, the Thirty-third Annual Report of the Board of Publication of the Presbyterian Church, and the Seventeenth Annual Report of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House. The latter is accompanied by the Report of the Treasurer of the said Trustees, duly audited, exhibiting a balance, in the Treasury, of $754.37; and it is commended to the Assembly for approval. This Report of the Trustees records, in terms of respectful sorrow, the death of one of its members, that eminent and lovely man and minister, the late Rev. Albert Barnes; to whose life and labors it pays an impressive tribute.

The term of office of the following Trustees expires during the present session of the Assembly, viz., Mr. John C. Farr, Charles S. Wurtz, M.D., Rev. Daniel March, D.D., Rev. William T. Eva, and Rev. Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D.; and it is recommended that they be re-elected, except that the name of Samuel C. Perkins, Esq., be substituted in the place of that of Charles S. Wurtz. It is also recommended that the Rev. Alexander Reed, D.D., be elected for one year, to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Barnes, deceased. We recommend that the Report of the Trustees, and the Treasurer's account, be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes of this Assembly. But it appears to the Committee, that these papers ought to have been referred to the Standing Committee on Finance; and it is recommended that hereafter they be so referred.

In regard to the very important interest of the Church which properly claims the attention of the Committee, we respectfully state: 1st. That in the Thirty-third Report of the Board, which was referred to us, the Assembly will find a full, a satisfactory, and an encouraging account of the operations of this important branch of the Church's evangelical service; and a statement of the plans for the future which, under the instructions of the General Assembly, have been proposed. It would be impracticable for the Committee, to attempt to give to the Assembly a compendium of the Report of the Board, as that document is itself as compact and comprehensive, as is compatible with a lucid and full array of the facts, which each member of the General Assembly ought to know; and the Committee express the hope that the Report itself will be carefully read by the members of the Assembly.

A succinct syllabus only can here be given of the topics embraced in the report, before proceeding to make some suggestions and recommendations for the consideration of the Assembly.

I. The Board reports its due and full reorganization, in accordance with the directions of the last General Assembly.

II. That its entire work has been divided into five branches; each branch being consigned to a Committee; all the five Committees to report to the monthly meetings of the Board. These Committees are as follows: 1. The Publishing Committee, to examine manuscripts of books and tracts; 2. The Periodical Committee, to control the periodicals of the Board; 3. The Missionary Committee, to supervise the work of colportage, gratuitous distribution, and Sabbath-school work; 4. The Business Committee, with charge of the property and business of the Board; and 5. The Auditing Committee, by which bills and accounts of all departments are examined, approved, or disallowed.

III. They narrate what has been done by the Trustees of the Board; in the consolidation and transfer of property, the proposed sale of the property at 821 Chestnut street, and the improvement of the more spacious and convenient property at No. 1334 on the same street, and the progress made in the new buildings.

IV. They then call attention to the arrangements already made, and others contemplated, for increasing the stock of the Board, by placing on their shelves, in addition to their own publications, such other religious books, approved by the Publication Committee, as purchasers may need, so as to facilitate the process of selecting ministers', and Sabbath-school, as well as private, libraries. From this it appears that in their book-store may be found Bibles, Testaments, metrical versions of the Psalms, eclectic libraries for Sabbath-schools, approved commentaries on the Scriptures, and the various appliances for Sabbath-school work, such as cards, roll-books, etc., so that orders can be promptly filled for any thing usually sought for in the Sabbath-school line, including or excluding religious fiction, as purchasers may prefer.

The last General Assembly having adopted a resolution, found on page 122 of the Minutes, recommending the Board to consider the propriety of establishing a department of Sabbath-schools, whose office it shall be to promote the number and efficiency of Sabbath-schools throughout our Church, the Board appears to have promptly obeyed this suggestion of the Assembly. The subject was referred to the Missionary Committee of the Board for careful consideration; and this Committee presented a Report, which is apparently so well considered, and so valuable in its suggestions and proposals, that the Standing Committee of the Assembly unanimously resolved to present it as part of the present Report. After reciting the resolution of the General Assembly of last year, under which this action was taken, the report proceeds:

SUNDAY-SCHOOL REPORT.

"Within a few years the institution of the Sabbath-school has assumed such a form, and grown to such a magnitude, that probably but very few, even of the most thoughtful Christians, duly appreciate its unspeakable importance. Being in the very midst of its developments, we do not so see its vast proportions, that they leave upon our minds an adequate impression. If they were fairly grasped by our Church at this deeply momentous epoch of her history, there is probably no other subject that would call forth from her more earnest and thoughtful consideration. When it is considered, that the religious training of the young lies at the very foundation of every other institution of the Church, and of all that is hopeful in her future prospects, how can we overestimate the importance of this subject? The fact, to which we dare not close our eyes, that so much of that training, at the present time, is passing over to the Sabbath-school and the Church, imposes such a tremendous weight of responsibility, that no amount of thought, or work, or money is too great to be bestowed on this subject. Then its proportions rise up into additional grandeur, when we reflect, that the Sabbath-school is the best known agency, for reaching the millions upon millions of children who have no religious training from parents or any others, and saving them from godless lives with all their disastrous consequences. Then, too, the Sabbath-school is pre-eminent, as furnishing a plain and profitable field of Christian toil for every warm heart and willing hand. Will it do for our Church, in her organized form, to neglect this agency, which is springing up to such immense proportions within her and around her? Should she be satisfied until it is brought under her own control, and all its influences secured in her vast enterprise of building up Christ's kingdom? Can our Church afford to do nothing in this matter, while others are moving forward in it, and that most successfully? Is it not now a time for us to begin, when by our blessed reunion a broader field is opening before us, and a new strength is given us, that, if rightly guided and sanctified, could achieve almost any thing? Is there not now a most exciting call for our Presbyterian Church to take her noble traditional stand in the forefront, with respect to the sound religious training of the young?

"The work which the Church evidently should undertake in this matter, through its responsible organs, presents itself in three branches:

"The first branch should include every thing pertaining to the books, and all other literature that might be needed to give success to the work of Sabbath-schools. A great evil that is creeping into our schools, and a great danger that is threatening them, arise from the vast number of books unsuitable for Sabbath reading, and objectionable in their character, which are filling their libraries. This evil needs to be efficiently guarded against. Even if the Board of Publication were able, with its own books, fully to supply the wants of all our schools, the schools would not be restricted in their selections to these publications. Many most excellent books are published by other societies, and by private publishing houses. From these our schools will still continue to select, as well as from our own publications. There ought, therefore, to be an agency for carefully reading Sabbath-school books collected from every source, and keeping a list, or the books themselves, of all that could be safely recommended to the schools. Under this branch of the subject, should also come the providing of suitable helps for the whole Sabbath-school work. There should be Bible dictionaries, from which every thing that is distinctive in our grand system of doctrine and order would not be excluded. There should be suitable commentaries that could be recommended. There should be maps, and guide-books, and diagrams, and roll-books, and every thing else requisite in the Sabbath-school work. Under this branch, also, should fall the preparation of periodicals, not only for children, but also for teachers. It should include, also, the furnishing of books of hymns and music, which would be suitable to the worship of God, and the sanctity of the Sabbath. And here, too, should be placed the responsibility of providing lessons and questions that could be used throughout the schools of the Church.

"A second branch of this general subject should contemplate improvement in the standard of teaching, the purifying of our schools of every thing unworthy of the dignity of the Cause, and the thorough development of the great Sabbath-school idea. What can be done to increase the piety, the zeal, the scriptural intelligence, and the aptness to impart knowledge on the part of our teachers?—is the great question on which the true efficiency of our Sabbath-schools depends. The aim here should be, to enlist the piety and talent of the Church in this Cause; to develop practically the idea that the Sabbath-school is an integral part of the Church; to secure every real improvement in this work; to guard against mere novelties, which may be injurious, or inconsistent with the sacredness of Sabbath exercises; and to make constant progress, in the art of enriching the minds of the young with the knowledge of God contained in the Bible and Catechism, and of drawing them to Christ. This all-important end could be approximated, by the Sessions of our churches becoming officially and thoroughly identified with their Sabbath-schools; by establishing classes in which teachers, and those who might become such, could be more thoroughly trained in the Scriptures; and by each Presbytery, either through a Colporteur, or through one or more of its own members, appointed as a Permanent Committee for the purpose, holding frequent Sabbath-school meetings within its bounds. By this a deeper interest in the Sabbath-school work could be excited, and greater efficiency in teaching promoted.

"For the highest efficiency and success, it will become advisable to have a general Superintendent of Sabbath-school work, to devote his whole energies to the promotion of its interests. He could be a medium of communication concerning all that would promote the welfare of the Cause. Himself thoroughly abreast of the times, in all the healthful improvements in the work of Sabbath-schools, he could circulate a knowledge of them through all our churches; and by visiting Synods, Presbyteries, and congregations, and assisting at Sabbath-school meetings in connection with these bodies, he could impart information, stimulate interest, and excite liberality that would be felt throughout all our bounds.

"A third branch of this work of the Church should be the planting of new Sabbath-schools in destitute localities. It is surely high time for the Presbyterian Church to move in this matter, as her sister churches are already moving. We are now, as a body, strong enough to conduct this distinct and most important enterprise. It is believed, that our ministers and people are ready and anxious to enter upon it with all vigor. Certainly other denominations are looking for us to be amongst the foremost in this enterprise, which must be productive of vast results for good. We might expect every Sabbath-school, organized through our instrumentality, to become a centre of salutary influences; and many, to lead to the organization of churches. To effect this end, very little addition to our present operations would be needed. In appointing colporteurs, we have but to request the Presbyteries to nominate men who would be capable of acting as Sabbath-school missionaries, and to authorize them to seek out proper localities, and there plant Sabbath-schools. This, and larger contributions from the churches, to meet the increased expense of such agencies, is all that would be needed.

"Such then is the outline of the Sabbath-school work to which, as a Church, we seem to be imperatively called. This is the Church's work, emphatically, if there is any work for her to do. The Sabbath-school is not a thing distinct from the Church—it is productive of evil to regard it as such—but it is the Church working in the instruction of its own children, its largest and most hopeful element, and in the evangelization of the children of those not connected with the Church. Whatever the Church does here, should be done in her organized capacity. She is responsible. She is a divinely appointed teacher.

"In carrying forward this work, there should be no assuming of the work of individual churches or Presbyteries, no taking away from them of the responsibility resting upon them. That would be paralyzing, and destructive of the best interests of the Cause. All that is done should be done through Sessions and Presbyteries, which must ever be the immediate and responsible agents of the Church's work.

"It is not believed, that any new Board or Department for this object would be acceptable to the Church, or that any is necessary to accomplish the end aimed at. The feeling in the Church is manifestly adverse to the increase of distinct agencies. Besides, no new Department could have the facilities for carrying on this work, which are already possessed by the Board of Publication, and in actual operation. A very large amount of the work of a Sabbath-school Department must be carried on through publications of various kinds—and this is the prominent work of the Board. The Board of Publication can furnish libraries of its own publications, and also of approved books from other publishers; it can prepare helps of every kind for the study of the Bible; it can issue periodicals for scholars and teachers; it can circulate intelligence concerning the interests of Sabbath-schools; and it can so enlarge the duties of its colporteurs, that they may also act as Sabbath-school missionaries, with but little departure from its present arrangements.

"After a careful and thorough investigation of the whole subject, we would therefore recommend the following for the adoption of the General Assembly, with the explanations already given in this Report, viz.:

"1st. That the Board of Publication be instructed, so to enlarge its arrangements, as to make the Sabbath-school work a prominent and organic part of its operations; and that it is exceedingly desirable, that the entire congregations in our churches, old and young, be permanently connected with the Sabbath-school, either as scholars or teachers.

"2d. That the Board, so enlarged in the sphere of its operations, keep before it these three branches of the Sabbath-school work:

"(A.) To furnish a complete literature for Sabbath-schools—consisting of its own and other well-selected books for libraries, helps of all kinds for the study of the Scriptures and Catechism, periodicals for teachers and scholars, and all other apparatus fitted to give efficiency to the work of teaching.

"(B.) To establish such agencies, as it may deem suitable for elevating the standard of teaching, and more thoroughly developing the great idea of Sabbath-schools—that of imparting the knowledge of God to the young, and drawing them to the salvation of Christ.

"(C.) In appointing Colporteurs, as far as possible, to select such persons as may also be suitable for Sabbath-school missionaries, and instruct them to establish Sabbath-schools in destitute localities, under the supervision of the Presbyteries.

"3d. That the churches be urged to contribute more largely to the Missionary Fund of this Board, to meet the increased expense which the working of this branch of its operations will demand."

Psalmody.

V. A fifth topic worthy of notice, in the Report of the Board, is the subject of Psalmody. The last General Assembly had resolved (page 122): "We recommend that the Board consider what may be the best means of effecting some understanding, as to the issue of Books of Psalmody, and report on the subject to the next General Assembly." In response to this action, the Board of Publication submit the following Report, which the Committee unanimously adopted with a single exception, which shall be hereinafter stated:

"Public praise is an important part of the service of the house of God. The 'psalms and hymns and spiritual songs' of the Church are declared by the divine word to be a means of instruction and admonition, to be sung 'with grace in' our 'hearts to the Lord.' They must, therefore, be imbued with such truth as is adapted to promote elevation of mind and purity of heart. Hence the Psalmody of the Church should have most careful official and authoritative supervision, to secure freedom from doctrinal error, and adaptation to the purposes of worship. This supervision should be given, by the Church, in its highest representative capacity. It clearly belongs to the General Assembly, to provide suitable books of praise for public worship; and happily our Presbyterian history leaves no doubt, as to the authority of the General Assembly in this matter.

"It is to be regretted, that the practice of many of our churches has not, heretofore, been in accordance with this theory. They have felt themselves at liberty to adopt any collection of Psalms and Hymns that commended itself to their choice. But obviously this is an interest too vital, and of too much moment, to be left to the voluntary action of individual congregations.

"Moreover, the inestimable value of unity in this important part of public service is altogether lost to us, as a denomination, by such an irresponsible course. It would be grandly demonstrative of that perfect union in doctrine and order, which we now believe to be fully consummated, if, everywhere throughout our land, our Church should be found in the use of the same Psalmody, making melody in her heart to the Lord.

"The fact is, however, that the churches of our denomination are less one in this, than in any other point of Church order. While very many of our churches use the books now issued by the Board, under the direction of the late separated Assemblies, other churches of our body employ for the service of song the Psalms of David, and collections authorized by the Church at an early day; and others again, collections which have been issued by private publishers on their own responsibility.

"So great are the inconveniences of this want of uniformity, and so obvious is its impropriety, that it is not strange that the question is constantly asked by our ministers and people, 'Are we not to have a book of Psalmody, upon which the whole Church can unite, so that the Presbyterian can carry his hymn-book with him from church to church, and find the same book in use wherever the providence of God may call him? Whatever may be the practice of those who care little for Church authority, can we not have a book prepared for the worship of the sanctuary in the reunited Church, that shall be generally acceptable and generally accepted, and used throughout the body?'

"No one book now in use commends itself to the Church at large as entirely satisfactory. While both the Hymnal and the Church Psalmist have been indorsed and recommended to be used, by the respective Assemblies of the late branches of the Church, neither is now regarded, by any great proportion of the body, as a suitable collection to be adopted by the United Church. Each is admirable in some respects, yet neither is of such unquestionable excellency as to commend itself to, and to command, universal use. It is believed that, by combining their good qualities, and adding others, we may secure a Book of Praise, which, while receiving the indorsement of the Assembly, will find its way to general acceptance and adoption upon its manifest and undeniable merits. The Board of Publication do not see how uniformity in this very important matter can be otherwise secured.

"To this end, they submit the following, for adoption by the General Assembly:

"1. That a Special Committee of seven persons, who shall have this matter in charge, be appointed.

"2. That this Committee be composed of persons residing sufficiently near to each other for frequent conference.

"3. That this Committee invite suggestions from all parts of the Church, as to the general character and structure of the book, committing the same to some person whom they shall select, and who shall prepare the book in the light of these general views, subject to the final approval of the Committee before being reported to the General Assembly.

"4. That upon the adoption of said Book by the Assembly, the Board of Publication be directed to publish the same, and authorized to make such terms with the churches, as shall be an inducement to them to retire the books now in use, and to adopt immediately the Psalmody approved by the Assembly.

"5. That the Board of Publication be also authorized to compile, from this approved Book of Praise, and to publish, such smaller collection of Psalms and Hymns as shall be adapted to social worship and the necessities of our mission fields."

Your Committee commend to the General Assembly these resolutions, with the following additional suggestions, viz.:

6. That in view of the fact, that several highly respectable bodies of Presbyterians in this country, with whom we have been in conference with a view to organic union, are conscientious in the belief, that the use of the Psalms found in the Scriptures is most to edification, and that they should be used in a fair and faithful translation, it be recommended that the Psalms be embraced in the proposed publication, to facilitate communion in praise with these branches of the Presbyterian family.

7. That a distinction be preserved, in the proposed book of Psalmody, between the hymnology taken from the Scriptures, and that which is the product of the pious but uninspired muse, by having the Psalms, as was formerly the usage of our Church, printed in a separate part of the volume.

In regard to the subject of fictitious narratives, as constituting a part of the religious literature of our Church, while your Committee are not prepared to recommend that they be entirely excluded, yet are we clear in the conviction, that the utmost caution should continue to be exercised by our Board, as hitherto it has been, in giving its imprimatur to works of this kind, and we invite the attention of the General Assembly to the question to what extent, if any, the countenance of the Church should be given to a class of books, which, however specious in their claims and pious in tone, do nevertheless tend to destroy a taste for the Bible and for solid reading, and to substitute fiction for faith as an instrument in the formation of character. Is it not to be feared that the trashy literature, which finds its way into the Sabbath-school libraries, has a direct tendency to supplant better books in the reading of our people, especially of the young, and to decoy them away from the instructions of the sanctuary, while it stimulates morbid sensibilities, vitiates the taste, and begets false estimates of character and of duty?

Your Committee rejoice in the conviction, that this important arm of the Church's service has been greatly increased in its efficiency, and express the hope and belief that its future is to be still more wise, energetic, and effective. With a view to this, it would be well for the Assembly to commend to the Board to aim, in the agencies and details of business, to have the right person in the right place; especially to make the service in the sales-room both courteous, attractive, and efficient, so that it may be as agreeable to customers as other bookstores.

Your Committee are convinced, from all the light which they have been able to obtain, that the Colporteur System of distribution is essential to the efficiency of this Board; and that, instead of being diminished, it ought to be largely increased. It is unfair to judge of the business operations of a Board, whose sales are confined to religious publications, by the common laws of the book trade. Other publishing houses publish, or keep on their shelves, miscellaneous books of all kinds. They find buyers from all classes of people; whilst the religious house sells chiefly to religious people. The range of its operations is necessarily restricted. And if it be, as in the case of our Board, a denominational enterprise, its operations must be confined chiefly to its own denomination. This limits the range of its operations and the number of its customers; and it would be unreasonable, therefore, to expect it to compete, upon mere commercial principles, with houses who publish books on all sorts of subjects, both religious and secular. Nor is it reasonable, to expect it to compete with those undenominational publishing societies, which claim and receive the patronage of all evangelical Christians.

The press is a power in the earth. The Church cannot dispense with its mighty agency; and, if the doctrine and order of the Presbyterian Church are, as we believe them to be, the most primitive, apostolical, and scriptural, they ought to be maintained and disseminated; and, if they are to be promoted, the press is an indispensable agent in the work; and our Church cannot afford to dispense with it, nor to abate the measure of its efficiency. It is, in the judgment of your Committee, preposterously unwise to reduce our own Board to the condition of a mere commercial house with a limited capital, whilst the publishing societies, which are restrained from publishing the distinctive doctrines of our system, and who get the patronage of all evangelical denominations, are sustained by large benefactions of the churches. It is to be remembered, also, that while secular publishing houses can go into the trade sales, and dispose of much of their stock by exchanges for the publications of other houses, our Board cannot thus exchange, for it is not their mission to disseminate secular literature. Your Committee are profoundly convinced, that an effort ought to be made to enlarge the resources of this Board; and that the Colporteur and Sabbath-school work, and its gratuitous distributions ought to be rapidly increased. Your Committee, therefore, submit the following additional resolutions for the consideration of the Assembly, viz., Resolved,

First. That the Board of Publication be recommended, to prosecute with increased energy the work of distribution, by an efficient and economical system of colportage, under the direction of the several Presbyteries.

Second. That the Board be authorized to supply libraries for each of our Missions in the foreign field, as fast as funds are available for that purpose.

Third. That the Board be exhorted to employ, in the work intrusted to their hands, all the honorable and proper business tact and energy which is used by other publishing houses.

Fourth. That the people of our churches be urged to increased liberality toward the Missionary Department of this Board, and to take up an annual collection for it, as directed by the last Assembly, so that the means of inaugurating the Sunday-school work, and increasing colportage and donations to destitute pastors and feeble churches, may be supplied.

An overture from the Synod of Illinois, Central, was placed in the hands of the Committee, asking the General Assembly to order the Board to issue the Sabbath-School Visitor weekly; in response to which the Committee recommend the following resolution, viz.:

Resolved, That the Board be advised to make the Visitor a weekly, as soon as there shall be such a demand for it from the churches, as shall warrant the change, and promise to meet the additional pecuniary expenditure.

In conclusion, your Committee feel constrained to say a single word, in reply to an allegation which has created some prejudice against this Board, viz., that their books are higher in price than the publications of other societies, and private publishers; and

1. The allegation is not true, as has been proven by an inspection of the facts, in a careful comparison of a large collection of the books of other societies and publishers.

2. If it were true, it could be accounted for by the fact, that other houses sell to all kinds of men, and have therefore a larger custom, whilst our Board sells chiefly to our own people; and every business man knows, that the cheapness of a book depends upon the largeness of the sales.

3. Our books are better gotten up, as regards paper, style, illustrations, and durability of binding, than those of other societies; and (with a few exceptions) they excel the books of most publishers.

On the whole, your Committee are of opinion that the General Assembly has great reason to thank God, in view of the work of this Board; to take courage and advance to wider fields of usefulness.

The Committee recommend that the action of the Board in regard to the "Westminster Lessons" (p. 30), and in regard to the "Monthly Record" (p. 32), be approved.

The Committee, also, call the attention of the Assembly, to the action of the Board, in reference to a New Digest of the acts and ordinances of the Presbyterian Church; and it is recommended, that the plan, proposed on page 29 of the Report, be approved, and that the Moderator appoint the Committee as recommended.

The proposed plan on page 29 is as follows:

"The attention of the Board having been called to the importance of the preparation of a New Digest of the Acts and Ordinances of the Supreme Judicatories of the Presbyterian Church, brought up to the present time, and suited to the circumstances of the united body, the following action was taken, upon which the judgment of the General Assembly is desired:

"Resolved, That it is expedient that a New Digest of the Acts and Deliverances of the Supreme Judicatories of the Presbyterian Church, from the year 1706 to the present time, be prepared and published by the Board.

"That this Digest contain, under each Chapter and Section of the Form of Government, Book of Discipline and Directory, every decision which defines or explains it.

"Also, a complete Digest of all the Rules of the several Boards of the Church as at present existing.

"That it omit whatever has become obsolete in the usage of the Church—e. g., in its benevolent operations—and all that pertains simply to matters of history.

"That it be requested, that a Special Committee be appointed, by the General Assembly, to examine and approve the book before it be issued.

"And it was recommended, that the Rev. William E. Moore be requested to undertake the preparation of such a Digest."

The following persons are recommended for election, to fill vacancies in the Board of Publication, for three years, from May, 1871:

Ministers.	Laymen.
Alexander Reed, D.D.,	Theodore W. Baker,
J. Grier Ralston, D.D.,	John Sibley,

Also, the Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., LL.D., in place of the Rev. Matthew B. Grier, D.D., resigned, for the term ending in May, 1872.

The following resolution, offered by Mr. Ernst, of Kentucky, was ordered to be embraced in the report:

Resolved, That the Board of Publication be instructed to prepare, and publish for gratuitous distribution, a condensed statement of the various Boards, Committees, and Trusts connected with the Assembly, their names, organization, and special work.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented their Report; after which the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. Henry Kendall, D.D., and the Rev. Cyrus Dickson, D.D., the Secretaries of the Board of Home Missions; and, after some discussion, the Report was recommitted, in order to a report on the Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions.

A communication was received from the Baptist Missionary Societies convened in this city at the present time, in response to the salutations of the Assembly, and ordered to be entered on the minutes, as follows:

"The American Baptist Home Mission Society, and the American Baptist Missionary Union, in session in the city of Chicago, present their Christian congratulations to their brethren of The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and hereby cordially reciprocate the sentiments expressed in their communication of May 22, 1871.

"We join most heartily in prayer for the blessing of the Spirit upon you in your meetings, and that you may be abundantly successful in your labors to promote the kingdom of our common Lord and Master in this and other lands.

"EDWARD T. HISCOX, Recording Secretary."

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported, recommending that, at the celebration of the Lord's Supper, the Moderator preside; the Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., and the Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., administer the Bread; the Rev. J. Trumbull Backus, D.D., and the Rev. Daniel W. Poor, D.D., administer the Cup; also, that the Elders, Hon. Joseph Allison, Alfred C. Post, M.D., Cornelius R. Agnew, M.D., E. M. McPherson, Oliver R. Kingsbury, and Hon. Israel S. Spencer, distribute the Bread; and the Elders, Hon. James Pollock, Hon. James K. Moorehead, Redick McKee, Duncan McDonald, and Tuthill King, distribute the Cup. The recommendation was adopted.

The Moderator announced the Special Committee of Fifteen, on the Report of the Committee on the Five Million Memorial Fund, as follows: James Eells, D.D., George L. Prentiss, D.D., Elijah R. Craven, D.D., Samuel Wilson, D.D., Frederick A. Noble, Charles A. Dickey, Samuel T. Carter, and John Edwards, Ministers; and Hon. Joseph Allison, Hon. Samuel J. R. McMillan, Hon. William P. Lynde, Oliver R. Kingsbury, David S. Morris, William L. Waller, and John G. Barrett, Elders.

Adjourned until this afternoon, at 2½ o'clock.
Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 24th, 2¼ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The Committee on Correspondence presented their Report, which, having been amended, was adopted as follows:

The Committee beg leave to make the following Report: Letters of fraternal greeting have been received from the Rev. Edward F. Cutter, Delegate of the General Conference of the Congregational Churches of Maine, and the Rev. George F. Wright, Delegate of the General Convention of Congregational Ministers and Churches in Vermont. In answer to a resolution put into their hands, urging the appointment of Delegates to the Church of Scotland, your Committee desire to say, that precisely the action contemplated by the resolution was taken by the last General Assembly, as will be found by referring to page 107 of the Minutes. Your Committee would nominate the following persons as Delegates to Corresponding Bodies:

1. (1) To the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland; (2) To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland; (3) To the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland; and (4) To the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church in Great Britain and Ireland: Theodore L. Cuyler, D.D., Rev. James B. Dunn, Rev. Arthur Mitchell, and James Allison, D.D.; and Elders Edward Wells and the Hon. Theodore H. Nevin.

2. (1) To the General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church, and (2) To the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, in connection with the Church of Scotland: Ministers, John Hall, D.D., Burtis C. Megie; Elder, Hon. John Hill.

3. To the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America: Alexander Reed, D.D., and Alfred Nevin, D.D.

4. To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North-America: Joseph G. Monfort, D.D., John Patton, D.D.; Elders, Hon. James Pollock and Hon. Henry W. Williams.

5. To the General Assembly of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodists: Rev. John E. Thomas and Hon. Llewellyn Breese.

6. To the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States: Rev. Edward D. Morris, D.D., and Rev. Daniel Rice, D.D.

7. (1) To the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in the Lower Provinces of British North-America, and (2) To the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in connection with the Church of Scotland, which meets at St. John's next month: Rev. Messrs. James B. Dunn and Charles S. Durfee, and Elder Reuben Crooke.

8. To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church: Rev. John L. McKee, D.D., and Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D.

Your Committee would also report, that a communication has been received from the General Conference of Churches in Connecticut, notifying us that they appointed no Delegate this year, as steps were being taken toward the formation of a National Convention of Congregational Churches, which would more properly send Delegates to represent that body in our General Assemblies.

The Delegates from the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church in Great Britain and Ireland—Rev. William France and Rev. William M. Taylor; the Delegates from the General Assembly of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist Church—Rev. John Davies and Thomas Lloyd Williams, Esq.; the Delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America—Rev. Benjamin C. Taylor, D.D.; the Delegate from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church—Rev. John H. Coulter; the Delegate from the General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church—Rev. D. H. McVickar, LL.D.; and the Delegate from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in America—Rev. John N. Dick, D.D.—were introduced, and, having addressed the Assembly, were responded to by the Moderator.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 25th, 9 o'clock A M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer. Then, according to the plan for the Excursion to Lake Forest, adjourned until 8 o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 25th, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and heard the Memorial Discourse of the Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., on the late Rev. Thomas H. Skinner, D.D., LL.D.

Adjourned until Friday, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 26th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the appointed time with devotional services.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Resolved, That a telegraphic communication, signed by the Moderator in the name of the Assembly, be sent to the International Convention of Young Men's Christian Associations now in session in Washington, D. C., expressing to them our brotherly salutations, with assurances of our prayers for Divine guidance and success in their efforts to promote evangelical religion, and advance the kingdom of the Great Captain under whose banner we are all enlisted.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church, to whom was referred the Report of the Special Committee on Manses, presented a report recommending to the favorable consideration of the Assembly the Resolutions attached to the Report, with an amendment limiting the cost. And the Resolutions as amended were adopted as follows:

First. That the Committee on Manses be continued and enlarged by the addition of five members.

Second. That the Presbyteries be requested to appoint a Committee on Manses to coöperate with the Assembly's Committee, and to take charge of the matter within the bounds of their Presbytery, and the churches are instructed to aid in carrying out the wishes of the Assembly.

Third. That the Committee be authorized to prepare, and publish when completed, a detailed report of the result of their labors, with such suggestions as may be deemed useful. That drawings and specifications and plans for manses, ranging in cost from $1500 to $6000, be added. That a copy of said Report be sent to the Moderator and Clerks of the General Assembly, of the Synods, and the Presbyteries, and to each member of the Committee on Manses of the Presbyteries, and 500 additional copies for the use of the Assembly's Committee, in carrying out the object of their appointment.

Fourth. That the Treasurer of the General Assembly be instructed to pay for the necessary expenses, not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1000), incurred in the preparation, publication, and distribution of the Report of the Committee on Manses, from the Contingent Fund of the General Assembly. It was Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be presented to Mr. Joseph M. Wilson, for his protracted and self-denying labors in the securing of Manses for the comfort of the ministers of the Presbyterian Church.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presented their Report; after which the Assembly was addressed by Rev. John C. Lowrie, D.D., one of the Corresponding Secretaries of the Board of Foreign Missions, and others. The hour of adjournment having arrived, the consideration of the Report was suspended.

Adjourned until 2½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 26th, 2½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

In regard to the work of the American Peace Society, it was Resolved, That this General Assembly do hereby express their cordial sympathy in all judicious efforts to disseminate the principles of peace among men, so that, as far as possible, the terrible evils of war may be avoided. And the Assembly bids the Society "God speed" in all lawful and scriptural efforts to accomplish the objects of its organization.

Resolved, That the Mileage Committee be authorized to pay the Commissioners in accordance with the Rules of the last General Assembly (Minutes, 1870, pp. 59, 60).

The Committee on Devotional Exercises were instructed to arrange for a public meeting in behalf of Foreign Missions on the evening of the next Lord's Day.

The unfinished business of the morning, viz., the Report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, was resumed. The Rev. John H. Shedd, Missionary to Persia, by invitation, addressed the Assembly. Addresses were also made by several members.

The Report and the accompanying Resolutions, after amendment, were adopted, as follows:

The Standing Committee, to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, respectfully report to the General Assembly: That they have carefully examined the Records of the Board, and recommend their approval as far as written, as exhibiting a full and satisfactory account of the transactions of the Board, and a judicious and faithful administration of the great trust committed to their care.

The Committee have also carefully examined the Annual Report of the Board, and recommend the following action thereon, viz.:

The General Assembly receive with devout gratitude to God the Thirty-fourth Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, because of the cheering success which it presents of the great work of the Church, in giving the Gospel to the heathen world.

The Board was organized in its new form, as the Board of the reunited Church, on the 13th of June, 1870, and has prosecuted its work with vigor and success throughout the year. The thanks of the Church are due to the officers and members of the Board, for the zeal and faithfulness with which they have done their work. During the year, the missionary forces of the Church have been largely increased. Forty-one missionaries have been sent out from the Church at home. Seven of these have returned to their fields, after a season of refreshment, and work for the Cause at home; and thirty-three are new laborers in the foreign field.

With Christian magnanimity, the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions transferred five of their most successful missions, with forty-three of their efficient and devoted missionaries, and a large number of native licentiates, teachers, and helpers, to the care of the Board. The Assembly take this opportunity of expressing, to the officers and members of the American Board, their high appreciation of the Christian kindness and courtesy, with which this transfer has been made, as well as of the delicacy and strength of the ties which the missionaries were called upon to sever, in faithfulness to the Church of their fathers. And the General Assembly hereby pledge the Presbyterian Church, under the grace of God, to a due enlargement and vigorous support of the work, so nobly begun under the supervision of this true co-worker in the great field of missions.

Thus, during the year, eighty-four missionaries have been added to the forces of the Church, in its missions among the heathen. The Board have now, under their care in the field, 661 laborers, who have gathered 3562 communicants in organized congregations, and have 10,059 pupils under instruction in Christian schools. Twenty-six missions, with more than two hundred stations and out-stations, are permanently occupied among the heathen and false religionists of the world.

Nor are these missions planted at random, but with a wise reference to the races and peoples of the earth, and to the great command to "preach the Gospel to every creature." They occupy strategic points of the great field of conflict. They gather the forces of the Church of Christ in the heart of the Mohammedan, Brahminical, and Buddhistic empires, and afford promise of great enlargement and rapid advancement in the progress of the Gospel. These soldiers of Christ, in the advanced guard, have gained a position in the strongholds of the great superstitions of the world, and they must be both sustained and rapidly strengthened, if the Church would be true to her historic faith, her opportunities, and her Lord.

The Assembly also record, with gratitude to God, the generous support which the Board has received, from the pious offerings of the Church and her praying members during the year. True, the Board closes the year with a debt of $43,252.77; but it began the year with a debt of $349.22 greater. And, when the enlargement of the field, and the large increase of the number of missionaries to be supported, are considered, along with the fact, that, in this year of adjustment and reorganization, the Church has laid her memorial of seven and a half millions on the altar of God, the Assembly are persuaded, that the whole communion should "thank God and take courage." The debt is due, not to the fact that the Church has withheld its consecrated gifts, but to the fact that God has blessed the gifts of previous years, and so filled our Church with blessings unto the overflowing. He has done more for us than our slow faith had taught us to expect. Yet it is a sad truth, that only about one half of the churches have made any contribution to the special work. Recognition of the work of the Treasurer is due, for the clear statement of the funds which has been rendered, in which due credit is given, not only to the churches and individuals, but to the Sabbath-schools, and children of the Church, for all the sums devoted to the work of Foreign Missions.

From the account rendered, it appears that the whole receipts of the year have been $330,550.39, and that the children have given $23,563.37 of the amount. Here the Assembly express their gratification, not simply because of the amount given, but because the gifts are an assurance, that the Church, by the instruction of her children, is preparing the way for the true triumphs of the work of missions. The Board are directed to use all proper means to increase and perpetuate the interest of the children of the Church, in the work of giving the Gospel to the heathen.

The Assembly also recognize, with gratitude to God, the effort to organize the women of the Presbyterian Church, for the purpose of sustaining the work of the Board of Foreign Missions, under the direction and control of the Board. The women of the church have always been forward in every good work, both at home and abroad. But their identity with our work among the heathen hath hitherto lost much of its power for good, by reason of their inability to realize a direct contact with the work of their heart and prayers. They must work, not abstractly, but directly, if they would work efficiently and in accordance with the laws of their nature.

The Home Board have always been sustained by the Presbyterian women, because they could see how they could do something more than pray for their brothers and sisters in the home field. Here there arose in their vision the sick to be nursed, and the children to be cared for. But, in the work of Foreign Missions, they seemed to lose all contact with the missionaries at work, and consequently to lose that tender and self-sacrificing sympathy with the work itself, which their consecration to the Lord demanded.

The question which every pastor has met repeatedly has been: What can the women of our Church do for the heathen, or for the missionaries laboring among them? That problem has begun to be solved by the women themselves.

Early in the past year, "The Women's Foreign Missionary Society" was organized in the city of Philadelphia, as auxiliary to the Board of Foreign Missions, with the pious determination to assume the support of every woman, called of God and commissioned by the Board, in the foreign field. The reality and meaning of this determination may be gathered from the fact, that, after six months of work, they have provided a support for one half of their sisters who have gone to the heathen. The object of the Association is to engage the earnest and systematic coöperation of Christian women and children, in sending out and supporting women on the mission field, under the direction of the Board, and to sustain heathen children in the schools. This Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church has already, in six months, gathered and sent to the Board $6070.25, and has $800.10 in its treasury.

In entire subordination to the Board, they are pushing the work of organization, and kindling the fires of Christian fervor in all parts of the Church.

By united prayer and effort they seek to push the work in all directions.

The organization in Philadelphia was followed, by the enlargement of the organization of "The Ladies' Board of Missions" in New-York, and "The Women's Presbyterian Board of the North-west, in Chicago," to include the work of Foreign as well as Home Missions. Besides these, there are Ladies' Associations in many of the churches, some of which have sustained the work of evangelizing the heathen for many years.

The General Assembly recognize the hand of God, and the spirit of pious consecration and prayer, in this whole movement, and direct the Board of Foreign Missions to encourage and control this effort as far as practicable. Thus may it follow, that the 300,000 female members of our Church will be led to do their full part, in Christianizing the women of the heathen world.

The Assembly also express the earnest hope, that the work may not be hindered and perplexed by the continuance of separate organizations and centres of influence; but that the women of the Church may be able to unite in one great organization, under and in contact with the Board of Foreign Missions. Thus in concert, in unity, and in simplicity of devotion, both cheer and push forward the work of the Church among the heathen.

The Board report, that the necessities of the Missions already existing, and the enlargement of the work demanded by the providence of God, will require from the churches the contribution of $500,000 for the current year. And an examination of the field, the missions, and the work, clearly bears them out in this estimate.

Therefore, in view of all the facts brought to the knowledge of the General Assembly,

The Committee recommend: 1. That all the Christian churches under the care of the Assembly be urged to hold at least monthly meetings for prayer in behalf of Foreign Missions; also to observe the first Sabbath in January, 1872, as a day of Thanksgiving for the success of this work hitherto, and, if they have no other time appointed for contributing to this Cause, to make this the time.

2. That the Secretaries be recommended, to notify all the churches, that have given nothing to Foreign Missions during the past year, that the Assembly expect every member of their communion to contribute to this Cause as the Lord hath prospered them.

3. That the Board be requested to hold conventions or missionary meetings, in connection with pastors and church courts, in the centres of influence, for the purpose of disseminating information among the people, and increasing their devotion to the work of evangelizing the world. And that, in these conventions, they use, as far as may be expedient, the foreign missionaries who may be in the country.

4. The Assembly heartily indorse the estimates which require half a million of dollars for the current year, and enjoin it upon all ministers and elders to press the Cause upon their people, in the hope that every communicant will give to the Treasury his proportion of the sum.

5. That the Church at home has reason to be cheered and strengthened in faith and works, by the devotion and self-sacrifice of the missionaries and the churches gathered among the heathen, in their support of this great Cause.

6. That the Assembly observe with special interest the success, which has attended the labors of the missionaries among the Romanists of North-America, and the access which is given to this class of people in Mexico; and recommend the Board to cherish a regard for the claims of these people upon our Church for a pure Gospel, and to enlarge the work among the Papists generally as fast as practicable.

7. That the attention of the pastors and churches is earnestly called to the excellence of the Publications of the Board, which they are urged prayerfully to read and consider.

8. That the Board be directed to encourage, as a rule, the organization of all the minor church courts on the mission fields; and to establish the churches on a sound Presbyterian basis as fast as practicable.

9. That, hereafter, the first Wednesday of the sessions of each Assembly be devoted exclusively to the great work of Foreign Missions, and that the entire Church be recommended, on that day, to make the work of our Board of Foreign Missions the subject of special prayer.

10. The following persons are nominated as members of the Board: Ministers: William M. Paxton, D.D., John D. Wells, D.D. Elders: Robert Carter, William A. Booth, Ezra M. Kingsley—to serve from 1871 to 1874; and James P. Wilson, D.D., in the place of Howard Crosby, D.D., resigned.

Resolved, That the recently organized policy of the Government in reference to the Indians, by which a Board of Indian Commissioners is appointed, consisting of distinguished patriotic and Christian men, who represent the different denominations of the land, and who discharge their duties without salary, in its spirit, and to a large extent in its practical operation, is worthy of the indorsement of this Assembly; and further, we pledge to our Chief Magistrate, and the Board of Indian Commissioners, our sympathy and constant support in carrying out this policy.

The Report on the Benevolent Work of the Church was made the second order of the day for to-morrow morning; and, if not finished to-morrow, the first order for Monday morning.

The Special Committee, appointed by the last Assembly, on a Sustentation Fund, presented their Report, and, pending its consideration, the Assembly adjourned until this evening, at 8 o'clock.
Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 26th, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer. After which, in accordance with previous arrangement, the Assembly united, with a large number of Christian communicants, in the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 27th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the appointed time with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the sessions of Friday afternoon and evening were read and approved.

It was Resolved, That in view of our glorious Reunion, and the establishment of the working machinery of our Church by this Assembly, our pastors and churches be urged to seek a renewed outpouring of the Holy Ghost, and a general revival of religion throughout our bounds.

The Special Committee on the Report relating to the "Sayre Female Institute," of Lexington, Ky., presented a Report, with a resolution attached. The Report was accepted, and the resolution adopted as follows:

Resolved, That the whole subject of the overture of Rev. J. K. Lyle, and the Memorial of the late David A. Sayre, with all the papers relating to it, including the Report of the Committee appointed by the last Assembly, and this present Report, be referred to the Synod of Kentucky which is in connection with this General Assembly.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church presented several Overtures, with accompanying recommendations which were adopted, as follows:

Overture, No. 1, from the Presbytery of East-Florida, with a statement that, owing to the decease of one of their ministers, and the removal of another, they were reduced to a membership of only two ministers; and, that, by the advice of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, they had, at their recent meeting, received a third minister; and, having thus obtained a constitutional quorum, had transacted the business of their stated meeting. They ask the Assembly to legalize this proceeding.

The Committee recommend that the action of the Presbytery of East-Florida in receiving the Rev. Matthew L. P. Hill, under the circumstances stated in the Memorial, be, and the same is, hereby ratified and confirmed.

Overture, No. 2, from the Synod of Genesee, asking the Assembly to sanction the change in the name of that Synod from "Genesee" to "Western New-York."

The Committee recommend that the request be granted, and that the name of the Synod be changed accordingly.

Overture, No. 3, from the Presbytery of Cedar, asking the General Assembly, to request the Presbyteries to have a list prepared of their aged and infirm ministers, as retired members—each name to be so enrolled by Presbyterial vote—and that these names be put at the head of the Presbyterial rolls; and that in the Minutes they be distinguished in Italic letters.

The Committee recommend, that it is inexpedient to take any such action.

Overture, No. 4, from the Presbytery of Holston, urging the propriety of such a change, in the Form of Government and in the Book of Discipline, as would allow a church Session quietly to drop, from the roll of the church, the name of any one who, after deliberate and serious reflection, expresses to the Session his conviction that he has never met with a change of heart.

The Committee recommend, that the Assembly decline to send down to the Presbyteries any overture on the subject proposed by this memorial.

Overture, No. 5, from the Presbytery of North-River, asking that the statistical columns in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly be so altered, as to show the actual amount contributed by each congregation to the support of the ministry. The Committee recommend that the request be granted, if practicable.

Overture, No. 6, from the Synod of Baltimore, and Overture, No. 7, from the Presbytery of Chester, respecting the succession to the late Presbytery of New-Castle: The Committee report, that the Synod of Philadelphia, in its reconstruction of Presbyteries, declared that the Presbytery of Chester was the legal successor of the late Presbytery of New-Castle; and that the Synod of Baltimore also declared that its present Presbytery of New-Castle was the legal successor of the old organization. It appears, however, that the ministers and churches of the old Presbytery are equally divided between the present Presbyteries of New-Castle and Chester, and so neither is entitled to the succession. The Committee think that, as the present Presbytery of New-Castle has the name of the late organization, the town where the first organization was made, the chief part of the original territory, early history and associations, and a valuable charter from the State of Delaware under which some property is now held, it should, also, have the succession, and the following resolution is, therefore, recommended:

Resolved, That the Presbytery of New-Castle, in the Synod of Baltimore, be and the same is hereby declared to be the legal successor of the late Presbytery of New-Castle, and as such is entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises, and liable to the performance of all the duties of that Presbytery.

It is also recommended, that the candidates and licentiates who were under the care of the former Presbytery of New-Castle, at the date of the Reconstruction Act of 1870, but who resided in the territory embraced in the present Presbytery of Chester, be attached to the latter Presbytery.

Overture, No. 8, from the Presbytery of St. Paul, asking for the relegation of St. Louis County, Minnesota, to the Presbytery of St. Paul, Synod of Minnesota. The Reconstruction Act, by special provision, embraced the county of St. Louis in the Synod of Wisconsin, instead of that of Minnesota, to which it geographically belongs. The change now asked for by the overture will make the Synod of Minnesota embrace the whole of the State of Minnesota. The Committee, therefore, recommend that the request be granted.

Overture, No. 9, from the Synod of Illinois, Central, asking for the transfer of the townships of Osage and Groveland, La Salle County, from the Synod of Illinois, North to that of Illinois, Central. As no reason is given for the transfer, the Committee recommend that the request be not granted.

Overture, No. 10, from the Presbytery of Wooster, asking the Assembly to change the eastern boundary of the Synod of Columbus, so as to include the church of Canal-Fulton. As no reason is given, the Committee recommend that the request be not granted.

Overture, No. 11, from the Synod of Wisconsin, asking the Assembly to transfer the church at St. Croix, Wisconsin, to the Synod of Minnesota. As no reason for the change has been given, the Committee recommend that the request be not granted.

Overture, No. 12, from the Presbytery of Wisconsin River, requesting the Assembly to transfer the church of Monticello from that Presbytery to the Presbytery of Freeport. No sufficient reason having been given for the transfer, the Committee recommend that the request be not granted.

Overture, No. 13, from the Presbytery of Carlisle, asking the Assembly to transfer to their care, from that of the Presbytery of Baltimore, the churches of Hagerstown, Williamsport, and Clear Spring, in Maryland, and, from the Presbytery of Westminster, the church of Monaghan, in Pennsylvania. The Committee report, that the granting of this request would disturb the geographical and State lines, according to which the Synods and Presbyteries were reconstructed; and that a remonstrance against the transfer has been presented from members of the Presbytery of Carlisle. It is, therefore, recommended that the overture be answered in the negative.

Overture, No. 14, from the church of Milford, Pa., asking to be transferred from the Presbytery of Lackawanna, Synod of Philadelphia, to the Presbytery of Hudson, Synod of New-York. The Committee recommend that the request be granted.

Overture, No. 15, from the Presbyteries of New-Brunswick and Philadelphia, conjointly, asking the Assembly to restore the church of Morrisville, Pa., to its former connection with the Presbytery of New-Brunswick. As the granting of this joint request would disturb the division by State lines, on which the Synods were reconstructed, the Committee recommend that it be answered in the negative.

Overture, No. 16, from the American Presbyterian Church of Montreal, Canada, asking the Assembly to transfer it from the Presbytery of Champlain to the Presbytery of New-York. In view of the peculiar circumstances of this case, the church being outside of the United States, the Committee recommend that the request be granted, and that the Presbyterial connection of the American Church of Montreal be hereby changed accordingly.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented their Report, which was accepted, and put on the docket.

The election to fill vacancies in the Professorships and Boards of the Theological Seminaries, and in the several Boards of the Church, was made the order of the day for Monday next, at 2½ o'clock P.M.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief was presented; after which the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. George Hale, D.D., the Corresponding Secretary of the Relief Fund, and others.

The Report, after amendment, was adopted, as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Relief Fund for Disabled Ministers respectfully report:

From the documents placed in their hands, the following facts appear:

In accordance with the instructions of the General Assembly, the last year, the two Committees of the reunited bodies, viz., that of Ministerial Relief (N. S.) and that on Disabled Ministers (O. S.), continued in office until they could transfer their business and funds into the charge of the Trustees of the Assembly, their appointed successors. This was done on the 24th of June, 1870, when the Committee, elected by the Trustees to act in the matter, held their first session. Accordingly we have, in the Report presented to us, the accounts of three Committees—those of the two outgoing ones and those of the one now holding office.

A fitter body to be continued in charge of this important trust could hardly be chosen. The list of names enrolled on the first page of the Report—names, many of them, of highest eminence alike in church and state—affords the best guarantee for confidence in the safe and judicious management of this trust. Of the Committee chosen by them, the Rev. Alexander Reed, D.D., is Chairman; the Rev. George Hale, D.D., Secretary, and the Rev. Charles Brown, Treasurer—the last being the only one not a member of the Board of Trustees.

The rules, adopted by the Committee for the transaction of business, are substantially the same as those by which both of the old Committees were governed.

In the results given of the year's work, we see the most gratifying indications of steady progress in this Cause, as also of its great utility. The total amount of contributions was $64,339.99, being an excess over the previous year of $13,687.02. This increase, during a year of unusual demand, is a cheering evidence of a growing determination, on the part of the Church, to wipe away the reproach resting upon it, in consequence of past neglect. May it steadily continue.

The Permanent Fund has been augmented to the sum of over $85,000. This has been done partly through legacies, amounting to $9419.75, and partly through Memorial offerings, amounting to $12,000, with the prospect of additions. Of the first importance is it, that this sum be greatly enlarged, and held as a pledge, on the part of the Church, that the provisions made for its disabled servants, or their dependent ones, should be put beyond a peradventure, beyond the fluctuations of annual contributions.

The appropriations have advanced in equal ratio with the contributions, the total being $67,371.74, showing an excess over the preceding year of $14,682.50. This sum has been distributed as needed; to ministers, 108; to widows of ministers, 144; and to orphans of fifteen families. Of these, sixty-one are new cases. Looking over the records of the Committee, we discover, among those thus assisted, the names of some who once were leaders in our Assemblies, and foremost in the advocacy of the measures of our Church; the names, also, of others noted for their self-denying zeal in less prominent frontier labors. These have their declining years now gladdened and made comfortable, by this just payment of what is due them for past services. The thought of who they are, and what they have done, only serves to enhance our sense of the heavy disgrace which would have been incurred, had they been left to chance charities, instead of receiving, as they now do, the kind care, such as children owe to parents in the time of their weakness and decay.

Though the income has not equaled the disbursements, yet by reason of a balance in the treasury of last year, there still remains on hand the sum of $6405.17. This, however, will soon be taken up, in paying such installments as will become due from time to time, amounting to over $14,000. There should be, therefore, no relaxation of effort in behalf of this Cause, at a time when heavy exactions are suddenly breaking down the strength of the strongest, and often putting their families in circumstances the most trying. The Treasury of this fund should be fully supplied, so as to meet all the fair draughts.

And here we are reminded that, since the last Assembly, one has been suddenly called to his rest, who was deeply interested in the Cause of Ministerial Relief, and who presented an interesting Report on the subject to the Assembly of which he was a member three years ago; we mean the Rev. Dr. Sherman B. Canfield, the able and faithful pastor of the First Church of Syracuse, N. Y. We would commend those whom he has left behind, to the warm sympathies of the brethren who knew his worth, and highly valued his eminent services.

It is gratifying to learn, that thus far the Committee have been able, promptly, to meet every call for aid. Many cases of need, no doubt, yet exist, which ought to be inquired into, and reported by Presbyteries and individuals. It often happens, that a false delicacy operates to hinder application for relief, on the part of some of the most deserving. Let such be encouraged to make known their circumstances, and receive the benefit to which they are entitled accordingly. Your Committee would, in compliance with the suggestions of the Report, earnestly recommend, that this Assembly repeat the action of former Assemblies in this matter, in the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That all the Presbyteries appoint Standing Committees, to take in charge the whole subject of Ministerial Relief within their respective limits.

2. That diligent inquiry be made, so that none who are in want and entitled to aid shall be neglected.

3. That annual collections shall be taken up in the churches, and that all suitable means be employed to increase the funds of this Cause, both for current use, and for permanent endowment.

An overture has been placed in the hands of the Committee, inquiring what shall be done with such ministers as are able and willing to work, but on account of age are regarded with timidity or indifference by destitute churches. The case of such ministers must be acknowledged as a trying one. Not being allowed to demit their sacred office, yet not being able to live by the discharge of its duties, they seem to claim our sympathy no less than those who are incapacitated for work by sickness or exhaustion. Your Committee will, therefore, still further recommend the appointment of a special Committee who shall take up the subject and report their mature deliberations to the next Assembly.

In conclusion, we heartily congratulate the Church and the Assembly, on the steady growth of interest evinced in the Cause of Ministerial Relief, and also on the faithful management of the funds appropriated to it. The Cause, however, needs to be still further pressed on public attention, and the Church to be brought to feel still more its sacred and binding character. The duty of Ministerial Relief is one which affects the honor and the interest of the churches, no less than it does the comfort and welfare of ministers and their families. To abandon those who have faithfully served at the altar, and have enjoyed the right to live by the altar, and suffer them to linger around it at last in destitution and suffering, when no longer capable of service, is to vitiate the sacrifice which is laid thereon. The God, who "careth for the oxen," cannot be supposed to look with complacency, or indifference, upon such neglect of His ordained servants. Still further, the sight of such neglect is seriously calculated to deter young men from entering the ministry in our connection. No small courage and self-denial does it require, to confront the prospect of being left to provide for one's self, in the time of weakness and age, or of leaving dear ones, at death, to want and charity, after having toiled through life on a bare support. And it is a fact, at once melancholy and significant, that pious young men have been known to turn away from us in view of it, to join other standards, or to enter on secular callings. This obstacle to ministerial consecration is now happily in process of removal. Anxiety for the future is now in a measure abated, by the thought of this just and kindly provision, which the Church is making for the days of darkness; and we can now cheerfully accept the daily bread, without troubling ourselves with needless cares for the morrow. Not that our Heavenly Father is in any case to be distrusted; but, as the faith of Elijah was no doubt confirmed by the sight of the ravens with their laden bills, so will our faith be strengthened as we see the well-filled hands of this Committee stretched out to supply our lack. God grant that they may never hang down for emptiness.

The Report of the Special Committee on a Sustentation Fund was made the first order for Tuesday next.

The following Memorial, from the Presbytery of Dayton, was read and referred to a Special Committee of five, to be appointed by the Moderator:

"The Presbytery of Dayton respectfully memorialize the General Assembly in behalf of an interest, to which, as it seems to them, the mind and heart of the Church have not been duly directed.

"Including the Missions lately transferred by the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, our Foreign Board must now have, under its care, not fewer than one hundred and twenty ordained missionaries and assistants, sent from this country. They represent at least one hundred families, including, as we may suppose, five hundred souls. Three-fifths of these are children and youth, who must be sent to this country for proper education.

"Every year some of our missionaries are returning home, to spend months in searching for suitable Christian families, where they may leave their children, with a reasonable hope that their place, as parents, may be filled by the friends to whom they intrust their children. Not a few of our best laborers in foreign lands, unable to find such homes, have been obliged to relinquish the work to which they have devoted their lives, and for which, after toilsome years of preparation, they have become thoroughly qualified. Even if friends are secured, who will accept the weighty responsibility, our missionaries must return, burdened with the reflection, that their loved ones are dependent on contingencies inseparable from every private family. Death may deprive them of their new-found protectors, while continents and seas separate them from their natural guardians.

"Should not some provision be made by the Church, permanent in its character, and placed under her faithful supervision, to meet this pressing necessity? Our country furnishes asylums for the orphans of her volunteers. Should the Church be less solicitous for the offspring of those soldiers of the cross, who, in answer to her prayers, and by the aid of her alms, have gone abroad to plant the banner of her Lord among distant and heathen nations?

"Reason, experience, and Scripture concur in forbidding us to rely only on unmarried missionaries. If married, shall they be required to train up their children, in the midst of all the abominations of heathenism, with all the risks of health and life, inseparable from the climates and conditions under which they labor? And, if the children must return for a time to the land of their fathers for Christian education, shall the Church leave them to the uncertainties of private support and culture? If our missionaries must return to their distant fields of labor, shall not their hearts be relieved of anxiety, so far as a suitable provision for their offspring can relieve them? Is it not enough, that, under a controlling sense of duty, and out of a wise regard for the best interests of their little ones, they consent to a separation, the most painful trial of the missionary life?

"We do not feel competent to enter into details, nor is this necessary. Several plans may suggest themselves as practicable: for example, the establishment of one or more Mission Homes, under the care of a returned missionary, where the younger children may be safely intrusted to the care of the Church; and the founding of scholarships, in established Institutions, for the education of older children. But we simply ask the Assembly to appoint a Committee, charged with the duty of investigating this whole subject, to report to the next Assembly. We cannot but hope that, whatever difficulties may environ the question of duty, a wise and satisfactory conclusion may be reached."

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The invitation to the entertainment given by the citizens of Lake Forest, in which a large part of the Assembly participated so pleasantly, had the double object of providing an agreeable day's recreation for the members of the Assembly, and also calling to their notice the Presbyterian educational enterprise in which the people of Lake Forest are so efficiently engaged; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we hereby return our cordial thanks to the citizens of that place for their generous hospitality.

Resolved, 2. That we recommend their important educational undertaking to the Presbyterian Church, especially in the North-west, as worthy of their most earnest attention and coöperation.

Adjourned until Monday, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, May 29th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the appointed time with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church reported a number of Overtures, with accompanying recommendations which were adopted, as follows:

Overture, No. 17, from the Synod of Illinois, South, asking that the name of the Synod be changed to "the Synod of Southern Illinois." The Committee recommend that it be answered in the negative.

Overture, No. 18, from the Presbytery of Crawfordsville, asking the Assembly to send down an overture, for the creation of Judicial Commissions by the Assembly, for the trial of all appeals to the Assembly, except such as relate to heresy and construction of the Constitution. The Committee recommend, that it is inexpedient, at this time, to take such action.

Overture, No. 19, from the Synod of Columbus, asking for the transfer of the Church of Buffalo, in Guernsey County, with its pastor, the Rev. H. C. Foulke, from the Presbytery of St. Clairsville, Synod of Cleveland, to the Presbytery of Zanesville, in this Synod. Also, a remonstrance from the Presbytery of St. Clairsville, on the ground that the church and pastor had refused to acknowledge their Synodical relation as declared by the last Assembly, and that the Presbytery of St. Clairsville have remonstrated with the Synod of Columbus, against the illegal reception of the church and pastor. The Committee recommend that the request be answered in the affirmative.

Overture, No. 20, from eight ministers and ruling elders in the Indian Territory petitioning for a new Presbytery of that name. The Committee report, that it does not appear that the number of ministers, now constitutionally requisite for the formation of a Presbytery, are found among the petitioners, or in the proposed region; therefore, that the answer be in the negative.

Overture, No. 21, from the Synod of New-Jersey, referring to the Assembly an Overture from the Presbytery of Corisco, asking whether an ordained minister can occupy the position of a ruling elder in the Church. Also, Overture, No. 22, from the Synod of Wisconsin, asking whether a minister, who has been compelled, in the providence of God, to lay aside active ministerial duties, is eligible to the eldership. The committee recommend that the Synod and Presbytery be referred to the action of the General Assembly (O. S.) of 1856, and that that action be now reaffirmed by this Assembly, that an ordained minister cannot be also a ruling elder in a congregation. And that the Presbytery of Corisco be, also, informed that, in exceptional cases, on foreign missionary ground, it may become expedient for a minister to perform temporarily the functions of a ruling elder, without being specially set apart to the office.

Overture, No. 23, a Memorial from the Synod of Minnesota, asking the Assembly to attach the Santee Reservation in Nebraska to the Synod of Minnesota. It appears, by the Memorial, that the Pilgrim church among the Santee Indians in Nebraska was, by the Reconstruction act, placed within the Synod of Iowa, South; and, as it would seem to be advisable, that all the churches in the Dakota Mission should be under the care of one Synod, the Committee recommend the granting of the request.

Overture, No. 24, from the Presbytery of Northumberland, asking that the Church of St. Mary's be transferred to that Presbytery. No reason having been given for the request, the Committee recommend that it be answered in the negative.

Overture, No. 25, from the pastors and missionaries in the Territories of Montana, Wyoming, and Utah, asking for the erection of a new Presbytery to embrace the ministers and churches in those Territories. Also,

Overture, No. 26, from the Presbyterian Church of Corinne, Utah, preferring the same request. Also,

Overture, No. 27, from the Presbytery of Missouri River, asking that the ministers and churches in the Territories of Montana and Wyoming be transferred from the care of that Presbytery to that of the Presbytery of Colorado. Also,

Overture, No. 28, from the Presbytery of Colorado, asking the erection of a new Synod to be composed of the Presbyteries of Colorado and Santa Fé, now in the Synod of Kansas, and the new Presbytery asked for in Overtures 25 and 26, a request indorsed by the Commissioners from the other Presbyteries of the Synod of Kansas.

In conformity with these several petitions, the Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly hereby constitutes the PRESBYTERY OF WYOMING, to be composed of the Rev. Edward E. Bayliss, of the Presbytery of Des Moines; the Rev. Franklin L. Arnold, of the Presbytery of Iowa City; the Rev. William G. Kephart, of the Presbytery of Missouri River; the Rev. Lewis Hamilton, of the Presbytery of Colorado, and the Rev. John F. Stewart, of the Presbytery of Colorado, with the churches in the Territories of Montana, Wyoming, and Utah; that the first meeting of the Presbytery be held at Laramie, Wyoming Territory, on the second Friday of June, 1871, at 7.45 P.M.; and that it be opened with a sermon by the Rev. William G. Kephart, or, in his absence, by the oldest minister present, who shall preside until a Moderator be elected.

Resolved, 2. That the SYNOD OF COLORADO is hereby constituted; to consist of the ministers and churches in the Presbyteries of Colorado, Santa Fé, and Wyoming; and that said Synod meet at Pueblo, Colorado, on the fourth day of September, 1871, at 11 o'clock A.M., and be opened with a sermon by the Rev. Sheldon Jackson, or, in his absence, by the oldest minister present, who shall preside until a Moderator be elected.

Overture, No. 29, from the Synod of Toledo, in reference to Vacant Churches and Unemployed Ministers. The Committee, in view of the importance of the subject, and the impossibility of a Committee giving to it, during the sessions of this body, the consideration which it deserves, recommend that a Special Committee of seven be appointed to consider and report upon it to the next General Assembly.

The Judicial Committee reported

Judicial Case No. 1. A complaint of certain members of the session of the Church of Eaton, Ohio, against the Synod of Cincinnati.

The Committee recommend, that the complainants have leave to withdraw their complaints without prejudice, and that they be advised to present the same to the Synod of Cincinnati.

Also, Judicial Case No. 2. A complaint of Christian Kern and others of the First Presbyterian Church of New-Orleans.

The Committee recommend, that it be again referred to the Presbytery of New-Orleans, with the injunction that the complainants be allowed a hearing.

The recommendations were adopted, and, there being no further business before them, the Committee were discharged.

A telegram was received in response to the telegraphic dispatch from the Assembly to the International Convention of Young Men's Christian Associations, as follows:

The International Convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations tender their hearty thanks to the General Assembly for their congratulations and assurances of brotherly and Christian sympathy, and will ever pray that the Great Head of the Church may prosper and preserve the great Church represented by the Assembly, for the promotion of His glory and the salvation of souls.

JOHN WANAMAKER, President.

It was resolved that, after to-day, evening sessions be held, for the transaction of business.

It was resolved, that the Committee on Correspondence with Foreign Bodies be directed, to consider and report on the expediency of so arranging such correspondence, that Delegates shall be appointed to such bodies, and received from them, not oftener than once in three or five years, instead of yearly, as now; and also, on the expediency of setting apart the evening of the first Monday, or some other evening of the sessions of the Assembly, to the hearing of Delegates to this body.

The Assembly proceeded to the consideration of the Report of the Special Committee, appointed by the last Assembly, on the Benevolent Work of the Church, and were addressed by Rev. J. Trumbull Backus, D.D., the Chairman of the Committee, and others.

Pending the consideration of the Report, the Assembly adjourned until 2½ o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, May 29th, 2½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The Mileage Committee were instructed to pay the necessary traveling expenses of the Commissioners representing the Freedmen's churches of the South, even though such churches shall have failed to pay the full amount of their assessments.

The Committee was also instructed to pay the necessary traveling expenses of Rev. John T. Shedd, of Persia, from his residence in the State of Ohio.

The Assembly proceeded to the election of Professors and Directors of the Theological Seminaries and Members of the Boards of the Church.

The Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., of the Presbytery of New-York, was unanimously elected to the "Cyrus H. McCormick" Professorship of Didactic and Polemic Theology, in the Theological Seminary of the North-west.

Elliot E. Swift, D.D.	Henry Forsyth.

The consideration of the Report of the Committee on the Benevolent Work of the Church was resumed. After considerable discussion, the Report was laid on the table, for the present, in order to receive and consider a substitute for a portion of the Report. This paper, with an amendment, and all others relating to the subject, were, after discussion, referred to a Special Committee, consisting of the Rev. Alexander Reed, D.D., the Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., the Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., LL.D., the Rev. William Y. Brown, and Mr. William Rankin.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 30th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the appointed time with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following Preamble and Resolution were unanimously adopted, viz.:

Whereas, The General Assembly were, on Saturday last, furnished with a delightful excursion on the Lake, by James D. Waller, Esq., and were afterward generously entertained at his beautiful home in the neighborhood of the city; therefore,

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly are hereby tendered to Mr. Waller, and to the different members of his family, for their considerate kindness, in thus ministering to our pleasure, which we appreciate the more, because of the generous sentiment which dictated it, and the grace with which their hospitality was dispensed to the Assembly.

The following Preamble and Resolution, also, were adopted, viz.:

Whereas, In a document published by order of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-fifth Congress, numbered, Ex. Doc. 38, statements are made, in regard to the history of the Protestant Missions among the Indians in Oregon, the massacre of Dr. Whitman, his wife, and other Americans, by the Indians in the interest of the Popish missionaries and the Hudson's Bay Company, and the outrages upon American friends perpetrated at the same time, which are untrue and injurious;

And Whereas, The Senate of the United States, in the Forty-first Congress, published a clear and well-attested refutation of the former document in Ex. Doc. Senate, No. 37;

And Whereas, But a limited number of this last document were printed, and one half of the edition was destroyed by parties interested in suppressing the truth;

And Whereas, A more general diffusion of the facts in this case is demanded by the truth of history, by fair dealing, and by regard to the memory of the martyred men and women who fell beneath savage barbarity in consequence of their loyalty to the United States; therefore,

Resolved, That it be recommended to all the ministers of this General Assembly as citizens of the United States, and to all citizens friendly to civil and religious liberty, the truth of history, and the vindication of a great and good man who sacrificed himself to save the vast region of the North-west to our country, to urge, by memorial or otherwise, upon the House of Representatives, to publish a fair and adequate edition of Senate Ex. Doc., No. 37, of the Forty-first Congress.

The following persons were appointed a Committee to announce to the Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., his election as a Professor in the Theological Seminary of the North-west: Rev. Jonathan Edwards, D.D., Rev. Leroy J. Halsey, D.D., and Mr. Henry N. Beach.

The Special Committee to whom were referred the papers relating to the Benevolent Work of the Church, presented a Report, which, after discussion, was adopted as follows:

Resolved, 1. That, in order to the systematizing and developing of the liberality of our people, and fostering the aggressive interests of our Church in accomplishing the work assigned us in the providence of God, there shall be a Committee of Benevolence and Finance, which shall consist of fifteen members, composed largely of business men, of acknowledged skill in the management of financial affairs, and one member additional from each of the Boards. It shall be located in the city of New-York; and it shall be its duty to use all proper means to promote, throughout the Church, the regular and systematic consecration of property to the Lord; and to superintend the collection of funds for the whole benevolent work of the Church. The contributions to be sent directly to the Treasurers of the several Boards and Committees of the Church.

Resolved, 2. It shall receive regular monthly statements of their receipts, from all the Boards of the Church, that the financial condition of these Boards, as well as the actual benevolence of each congregation, may be at all times before the Committee. This Committee shall also receive, and report to the General Assembly, to be disbursed by the Assembly, any moneys from churches and individuals, that may be given without any specific designation.

Resolved, 3. The expenses of said Committee shall be borne pro rata by the several Boards.

Resolved, 4. The Assembly enjoin, upon all the churches, the practice of periodical giving to all Causes recommended by the General Assembly, according to the principles commended in the Word of God.

Resolved, 5. In order to carry out this plan, the General Assembly enjoin upon every Presbytery, to appoint a Standing Committee on the Benevolent Work of the Church, of which the Stated Clerk shall be Secretary. It shall be the duty of this Committee, to use all means in their power to have brought, before all the congregations in the Presbytery, the plans that may be recommended for securing contributions, and to give each pastor and session information of the wants of the various objects, and what is expected of each congregation. Every Presbytery is required to question each pastor, stated supply, and elder present, at every stated meeting in the spring and fall, whether the directions and recommendations on this subject have been complied with, recording the answers on the minutes.

Resolved, 6. At least as often as once every six months, these Standing Committees shall report to the Committee of Benevolence and Finance, so far as they can, in relation to the different objects for which contributions have been made, by the churches within the limits of their respective Presbyteries, with the amount contributed for each, together with such other information, as to the general benevolent work of their churches and Presbyteries, as shall seem necessary, or shall be called for by the Committee.

Resolved, 7. No church, not complying with the directions of the Assembly to make collections for the several Boards, shall receive aid from the funds of the Church.

Detroit, Michigan, and Springfield, Illinois, were put in nomination as places for the meeting of the next Assembly.

The Special Committee, to whom was referred the Report of the Committee on the Five Million Memorial Fund, presented their Report, which was accepted, and the Resolutions adopted unanimously by a rising vote, as follows:

The Convention of the united Churches at Pittsburgh, Pa., in November, 1869, agreed with enthusiasm to the following resolution:

"Resolved, That it is incumbent on the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, one in organization, one in faith and one in effort, to make a special offering to the treasury of the Lord, of Five Millions of Dollars; and we pledge ourselves, first of all, to seek in our daily petitions the blessing of God to make this resolution effectual; and second, that we will with untiring perseverance and personal effort, endeavor to animate the whole Church with the purpose to secure the accomplishment of this great work before the third Thursday of May, 1871."

The Joint Committee reported this resolution to the General Assembly at Philadelphia, and recommended that a Committee be appointed to raise and disburse this Memorial Fund, the contributions to be limited to the objects specified in their further report. This recommendation was adopted, and the Committee was appointed, whose Report of a year's service has so thrilled this Assembly, and the whole Church,—the further consideration of which was referred to this Committee.

The details of their work as respects responsibility, devotion, energy, and patient toil, can be known only to the honored brethren whose names will forever be identified with the result. The result itself is grand, perhaps without parallel, viz., that $7,607,499.91 were contributed to the Fund during the year, besides more than $2,000,000 which were given for objects that might properly be included within the list adopted, but which, because of the choice of the donors, or for reasons growing out of the strict construction of their rules, the Committee did not feel at liberty to include in the Fund; and at least $200,000, given to various educational institutions, which were not reckoned, lest the amounts composing this sum might possibly have been reported by the churches, and thus be duplicated, though this was not likely;—making a total of what the Church has really given during the year to be $9,807,499.91—or in round numbers, which will hardly be below the truth, $10,000,000. A notable fact connected with this memorial gift, moreover, should ever be borne in mind, viz., that it is not laid on the altar at the sacrifice of the regular benevolent work of the church, but is additional to contributions to our Boards, in the aggregate "greater than in any previous year of our history."

Such is the condensed record of a work, among the most remarkable, all things considered, of all that are mentioned in the annals of the Church.

Your Committee will not be expected to present again in detail the items and facts of the admirable Report given into their hands, Yet there are some inferences from these, and some considerations respecting them, which they commend to the attention of the Assembly.

1. It is manifest that the great success of this effort has been largely dependent on the wisdom, efficiency, and Christian spirit of the gentlemen who formed the "Memorial Fund Committee." It is difficult to conceive the magnitude, and, in some phases of it, the perplexity of the attempt to obtain and wisely distribute $5,000,000 on such conditions as were imposed upon this Committee. That it should have been done at all is a marvel. That it should have been done with such rare ability, and satisfaction of the Church, and manifest approbation of her Head, may well excite our gratitude and praise.

2. This great success leaves no doubt, that there is among our members a degree of love to Christ, and love for our Church; a willingness, on the part of the rich, to give of their abundance, and, on the part of the poor, a desire to give, through their self-denial, toward the complete equipment of Zion in all her departments for the service of her Lord, and for the salvation of men, which may be trusted in any future emergencies, or when there is urgent necessity for advance. We have been too ready, perhaps, to say that Presbyterians have little zeal for the vigorous progress of their own denomination. We have been expected to aid in the support of union and voluntary agencies for the spread of the Gospel, and the redemption of the world. Nor should we wish to be hereafter unworthy of the honor, on this account, which others have been free to render. But we have not been known to have such "esprit de corps," such reliable and self-sacrificing, and generous, sanctified self-love, and regard for our distinctive organic peculiarities, as is now most clearly demonstrated. We have known—the world has had proof—that Presbyterians love Christ, love Christians of every name, love the common cause in which all Christians should ever take an abiding interest. Hereafter, while we would love neither Christ nor Christians of every name, nor our common cause, any less, but even more, we can point to the history of this glorious year for proof, that Presbyterians love, intensely, enthusiastically, and because of its vital connection with the glory of Christ and the success of His kingdom, the Presbyterian Church. We can make this fact the basis for more extended and permanent agencies for evangelization. We can make it a new point of departure, as respects our whole future career. We can trust our people respecting the sublime mission that we believe our denomination should accept, in the current religious history of our nation and the world.

3. As intelligent preparation for great efficiency implies the purpose to attempt it, we may assume that the Church intends to enter upon the broader work, for which both the spirit that she has manifested and the effort that she has made have prepared her; and her leaders may be bold in their plans for progress, if they are prudent and wise. Pastors and elders in our separate churches—Presbyteries within their bounds—our Boards, in prosecuting the more general work of the denomination, may take this marvelous exhibition, which will grow upon us, as we contemplate it, as their warrant for the hearty co-operation of our members of all classes, in any carefully digested schemes for extension, and doing the Master's will. There is great promise of growth, and consequent usefulness, in this outpouring of money. It has taught the people that, with the blessing of God, it is easy to do great things; that even improbable things may be achieved by the Church; that liberality is itself a blessing. It has taught them that the poor are of importance, even in money-giving, as well as the rich. It has cultivated a more general interest in the benevolent work of the Church, because a much larger number have stock in the means by which it is to be promoted. Prayer is more earnest, intelligence is more universal, the ear of the whole number is more sensitive to appeals, and while recklessness and zeal without knowledge will result as ever before, true forecast, and prudent calls for advance, will meet cheering and eager response. Your Committee feel, that this is the marked and special lesson of this success. It is the clear summons of our Lord through the Church, to those who are her leaders, that they be men prepared for the events with which Providence is burdened. It is the assurance that He vouchsafes, that whatever piety requires for the prosecution of its ends, it shall not be withheld.

4. Although a large portion of our churches have contributed to the Fund, and the Committee have been persistent in their efforts to induce all to have a share in the gift, there are some that have neglected the opportunity, and some that have been obliged to postpone action till it was too late, according to the provision of the resolution that the books be closed on the third Thursday of May. For every reason, it is desirable, that these churches be permitted to place themselves on the roll, while it is also important that the date first proposed be the end of the proper work that the Committee had in hand. This may be done by the publication of a supplemental list of churches, to include all that may send their reports before a certain fixed date of the coming year, the churches designating, as before, the objects to which they wish their contributions to be applied. It is suggested to such churches that, so far as possible, they bestow their gifts for the special benefit of the regular agencies of the Church, as such gifts are to be added to the Memorial Fund, by the direction of this General Assembly.

5. The figures of the Memorial Committee are to be relied upon as correct in all their particulars. But it is to be regretted, that there has been no uniform rule, adopted by the Presbyteries, respecting their report of the sums given to different objects. Some report Memorial offerings, also, in the columns of their statistical tables, and others make no such report. So that these tables cannot be a fair exhibit of what has been done during the year for the several departments of Church advance. Your Committee are not able to suggest any practicable remedy for this misfortune, and therefore are content with this mere reference to it. For reliable particulars concerning the distribution of the Memorial offerings, we must examine the detailed report, and list of churches, to be published by the Committee.

Having alluded to these inferences and considerations, among the many that might be presented, we conclude our Report, by recommending that the Assembly adopt the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we devoutly thank Almighty God, of whom come both riches and honor, and who also can give strength unto all, so that they may be able to offer willingly after this sort, that he has inclined our people to lay this Memorial gift upon his altar.

Resolved, 2. That we thank our brethren who have served the Church on the Committee—the most satisfactory results of whose wisdom and patience and work is given us in this Report—for their fidelity and devotion, in the discharge of this sacred yet difficult duty to which they were called, while we feel that this result must be their most worthy reward.

Resolved, 3. That we congratulate the Church upon such proof of what she is able to achieve, and of her more complete equipment for the future, on the broad threshold of which our Reunion has placed her, with the promise of great success; and that the contribution of so large a sum of money, in addition to the support of the regular agencies of the Church, leaves no doubt that she can hereafter answer any demands, which the increased and more active piety of her members may make upon her wealth.

Resolved, 4. That while there is evident need of even more money, especially for the relief of our new churches—six hundred of which are believed to be still without houses of worship—and for the greater success of our home and foreign missionary work; and, while we believe the Church is willing to respond to this necessity, the raising of this money may now be accomplished by the Boards of the Church; and the continuance of any special agencies for this purpose will not be wise.

Resolved, 5. That we accept this Report of the Committee as evidence of their completed work; yet that the Committee be continued till the session of the next General Assembly, that they may superintend the details that may still require their attention, and make their final report to that body.

Resolved, 6. That, as there are some churches which, for various reasons, have been unable to make their reports, yet desire to have a place among those contributing to this Fund, the Committee be requested to delay the printing of the roll of churches and individuals so contributing, till the first of August next. That, before that date, any churches or individuals may have opportunity to report for regular insertion, any sums that may have been given previous to the third Thursday of May, and all others may report what they desire to be added to the Fund, their names and gifts being printed in a list that may be regarded as a supplement to the regular Report.

The Moderator was authorized to appoint the Committee of Benevolence and Finance; and the Committee were authorized to fill any vacancies that may occur in their body.

TUESDAY, May 30th, 2½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The Reports of the Committees on Synodical Records were made the first order for this evening, at eight o'clock.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following supplementary report, which was adopted, as follows:

In reference to the paper sent to them from the Assembly, the Committee suggest,

1st. That the first Monday evening, after the opening of each Assembly, be appropriated to the reception of Delegates.

2d. That no change be made as to the annual appointment of Delegates by the General Assembly.

They further nominate the Rev. Howard Crosby, D.D., of the Presbytery of New-York, and the Rev. Joseph T. Duryea, D.D., of the Presbytery of Brooklyn, as Delegates to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, to assemble in May, 1872, at the city of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions was made the second order for this afternoon.

The Assembly proceeded to the consideration of the Report of the Special Committee on a Sustentation Fund, and were addressed by Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus, D.D., LL.D., the Chairman of the Committee, and others. The Report was then adopted, as follows:

The Gospel Ministry, though commissioned by Jesus Christ, is sent forth by the Church, and must be sustained by the Church. "How shall they preach except they be sent?"—Rom. 10 : 15. "Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel."—1 Cor. 9 : 14. Although the particular congregation which is served by the living preacher is, in a sense, more immediately obligated, as being more directly interested and obliged, yet the Church at large is surely bound to secure a maintenance for her ministers, as ordained by her for the work at large, and as belonging to her necessary apparatus for evangelizing the world.

The Old Testament economy recognized the principle as fundamental. The servants of the Temple "lived of the things of the Temple." —1 Cor. 9 : 13. The priests were common partakers with the altar. The public law of tithes was based on the duty of those who cultivated the soil, to give to those who devoted themselves to the service of God in the sanctuary. And the same principle yet applies. They who minister in spiritual things are to partake of the carnal things of the people. It has been commonly reckoned, that a Levite's income was five times that of the secular classes. Whilst this estimate is to be abated, yet the clear idea is that of ample provision for the servants of God's house. And our freedom, under the New Testament, is not a freedom from this obligation of the Church to her appointed ministry.

Our Presbyterian system, also, maintains that each minister is the servant of the whole Church, subject to her direction, and amenable to her jurisdiction, and entitled also to her protection and support in his work. It regards the Church as a unit—as one body—and all as members one of another, so that, when one member of this body of Christ suffers, all the members are supposed to suffer with it. And the duty is plainly inculcated, upon this principle of Church unity, applied as well to the individual churches, as to the individual members of each church—"Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ." "Fellow feeling and fellow helping" is the duty enjoined, as opposed to that selfish isolation which stands aloof, or contents itself with cheap expressions—"Be ye warmed and filled." And this duty of mutual aid is no less true and urgent, though every man (and every church) shall bear his own proper load. "We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves." The principle is great. "The voluntaryism is not optionalism."

But the Scripture does not, by any means, overlook the particular obligation which the individual church owes to its minister. "Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth"—and that, not in a few things, and sparingly, but "in all good things," and sharing with him. And it is just here that the Apostle adds that fearful warning, "Be not deceived; God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." Farmers can well appreciate the simile, as applied to enforce the duty of churches to support their ministers—that so surely as they sow scanty support, they shall reap scanty results. And this very order to the Galatian churches is referred to by Paul, as the basis of his inspired scheme of systematic beneficence, as given to the Corinthians—the weekly Sabbath consecration, on Christian principle, of a fair proportion of our income to the Lord. 1 Cor. 16 : 1, 2.

But the church is charged with the great work of evangelizing the world. She must, therefore, send the Gospel to people that are either unable or unwilling to pay for it. This duty she recognizes in her Foreign Missions. And it is often quite the same in her Home Missionary work. The duty of planting new churches, and of maintaining the Gospel ordinances until they shall be well established, in the new settlements, cannot be disputed. The work is vast. It can scarcely be overtaken by us in the rapidly advancing march of commerce and civilization on our broad continent.

But there is still another aspect of the work that demands attention. It is the nurturing that comes after the planting, and without which the labor of planting must be in great part lost. It is the sustaining of feeble churches already located. It is, in this case, a duty owing to the poor, to aid them in maintaining the ordinances of Christ's house. It is not now a duty merely on the score of keeping alive the ministry, but also of keeping alive the churches which we have already planted, and maintaining them by timely and adequate aid for becoming self-sustaining under our care. This is a work that comes within the purview of our Home Missionary Board, but is only very partially accomplished. It is no longer ministerial sustentation than as a minister is at his post, laboring in the particular church, and receiving the benefit of aid granted to that church under the direction of its Presbytery. It is a plan for aiding feeble churches, to maintain the living ministry, subject in all cases to the Presbyterial oversight and control. Your Committee have directed their attention to this work, as instructed by the General Assembly, to investigate the case, collate the statistics, and if possible devise a feasible scheme for Ministerial Sustentation.

The necessities in this field are not of any recent origin. They are of long standing. They are clamorous for relief. They have not arisen from any sudden disestablishment, but from lack of any establishment, whatever, either of Church or of State. The facts, elicited by your Committee, reveal a state of things that needs only to be brought to the view of the Church, to commend any well-matured system of relief. It is not now a scheme for providing for our ministers in the event of their death, but while they are living, and to keep them alive—to keep them from dying of starvation, or of harassing care, or of crushing overwork. The question here is simply how our toiling and unpaid ministers are to live—not how we may provide for their families, after we have left them to a premature and penniless death. That also is a duty we owe to them, all the more that it comes too late for themselves, to care for and keep their families.

In a multitude of cases, the living question with our ministry to-day is a question of the living—a question of starvation or of virtual demission of the ministry for a bare subsistence. And hereabouts lie all the evils of temporary charges, place-seeking, degradation of the minister by candidating and bargaining for hire, secularization of the ministry by worldly occupations to relieve actual want, the ruin of health and spirits by worldly anxieties. And all this leads to a necessary forsaking of weak churches, to die out for lack of a little timely aid. And so, also, it comes to pass that our young men are discouraged from entering the service. And even the sons of Christian ministers are awed from undertaking the work, by what they have seen, and what they have heard, of poverty and neglect in the household. A case is mentioned to us in our correspondence, and it is only one of many, where two sons of a minister were deterred from their father's profession, by the filial and fraternal responsibility, which made the father's poverty in the ministry a reason why they must turn to other avocations, to keep up the household. How else has it occurred, as it is this day, that, out of 4238 ministers reported on our roll, only 2700 at the utmost, are in any ministerial charge; that 880 are marked "W. C."; besides 630 miscellaneous and blank; that only 1625 of the whole number, at the utmost, are pastors, including those in Congregational and foreign charges; and that, out of the 4526 churches reported on our lists, more than one fifth of the whole number are vacant! Especially, how else does it occur, that there are about a thousand of our working ministers, who stand in the equivocal and temporary relation of "Stated Supplies," a relation unknown to our Constitution? How else can it be, except that the support is too meagre and contingent to admit of any fixed relation? And thus ministers and people stand in only a loose and partial connection, quite alien from the true idea of the Pastorate.

We cite a few instances from our correspondence: One says, "My salary for six or seven years has not averaged more than $550. Of course the balance of support must be earned by other labor. At present I receive $800. But nothing less than $1000 will support my family of four children, to be clothed and educated as they ought to be. The year before last I was without a charge, no opening at hand, no money with which to travel and find a place. Rather than be idle I lectured and labored in the cause of temperance, and took such aid as the people would give, and for family necessities have been obliged to sell all the loose property about the house, and do not suppose it will more than pay grocery bills. For my children's sake, I feel compelled to give you these facts."

Another says, "I have preached, for two years, with twenty-one members, for less than half the cost of board for self and wife. A sustentation fund is necessary if small churches are to have the Gospel. Am I called to stay, even at the earnest entreaty of my people?" Another, "I am compelled to secular labor to keep off want." Another says, "Salary $400 a year, supplemented by manual labor. Had the salary been $1000, could have devoted all my time to the work. Every day's diversion to manual labor has raised the question: 'Is this right?' But it is the only recourse except to abandon the field." Another, "Not able to pay bills; have taken a free school at $40 per month; will have to go in debt." Another, "Have had for years a wretched salary, and but for some private means should have starved. Save us from the disgrace of a starved ministry!" Another says, "My family connections have aided us till their means are exhausted." One of our well-established pastors, in Ohio, writes, "Something ought to be done, and done quickly. We are helping one or two to eke out a subsistence. Others are actually suffering in soul and body for lack of necessaries of life." Another, with a salary of $600, says, "The balance is sought by gardening and farming, but with extreme embarrassment and sorrow." Another, "Have paid in the last seven years, for bare support, $8000 above my salary; preaching in cloth worth 50 cents per yard. Many of our best men have gone out of the State for lack of support, and I must have done so, but for a small patrimony that is now exhausted." Another, "Have not received half enough to pay board. Ashamed to tell to what straits I have been reduced in the last three years." Another, "My salary does not support my family. The deficiency is made up by the interest of some money belonging to my wife, which, however, ought not to be used for any such purpose, but should be reinvested for support in old age." Another, "Have lived somehow on what I had previously laid up, from teaching, with some occasional gifts from friends, and from what I could earn outside of my calling, by correspondence, reporting for the press and the like, in connection with preaching." Another, in Ohio, "$800 from the people, but inadequate; have had to supplement by teaching, and paying old debts by over-work." Another, "Have labored in the ministry twenty-six years, chiefly as a Home Missionary; have lived on a patrimony of $25,000 till it is reduced to $800. That is, twenty-six years of service, and $24,000 of money, for the privilege of preaching the Gospel, and $1200 is necessary for family support. Must get a better charge, or must resort to something else for a living. Am offered $2500 a year by a mercantile firm to attend to a portion of their business, but cannot bear to give up the Gospel ministry." Another says, "I have lived plainly in the whole course of my ministry, and I have spent $20,000 to maintain my family, and have the satisfaction of serving Christ in this work."

These are by no means solitary instances. Others take this rare occasion, when the subject is fairly opened to view, to inform us of the facts, in like manner, that they have pursued their ministerial calling at a private cost of their own, or their wife's, patrimony, in from $20,000 to $30,000. One in Pennsylvania writes, that, for a life-long service, his average salary has been $400, and he has eked out a living by occasional work as a surveyor of land; or by engineering for a railroad; or by doing little jobs at repairing of watches, for which he has some repute. One who has spent his all in the work, says, "$1200 will barely suffice to keep my family of four persons. To rule a man down, in these circumstances, to $400 missionary funds, paid generally two months after it is due, and the chances of $400 from a poor people, thus 'requiring brick without straw,' is murder by slow degrees. Yet I have never been extravagant, but noted among my people for plain living. But then the wife, now failing, whose patient faith and wisely tempered zeal have, thus far, done more than any other human agency to sustain me; and then, too, these daughters to be educated, and within sixty days I must go out candidating, and seek a better place, or I must quit the ministry, and resort to something else for a living." Another, "I have lately resigned my charge, and am one of the unfortunate W. C.'s just as able and willing as ever to serve the Church. But should I, or any other W. C., be compelled to beg for work in our own household? No! A thousand times, No! We have feeling; we have a sense of honor. We have toiled to qualify ourselves to serve the Church, and some of us have spent our own or our wife's fortune to supplement an inadequate living, laboriously earned, and here we are with dear wives and little ones about us, and with our hands tied! Like marriageable young ladies who cannot propose, but must wait for the fortunate (or unfortunate) lover when the proposal is made to them, or die in maidenhood; so are we W. C.'s. What shall we do? Can you not devise some method to knock in the head this growing independency in our churches, and to give every willing minister work and wages? You are called to meet a serious issue. You may cry for young men to enter the ministry, but your cry will meet with but a feeble response, until a permanent provision is made to give every man a support that shall be adequate and independent of the church which he serves. This permanent provision will bring out the candidates. I have two promising sons whom I have consecrated to the ministry from their birth; but it is a painful trial to be faithful to that consecration."

How many more cry out in language which betrays the tears—"What can we do? How can you help us? God bless you in this good work. You wonder how we live. We can scarcely be said to live. You ask how our salary is raised. It is not raised."

Here is a large class of educated men, with cultivated tastes, and with wives of refinement, used to comfortable living, who endure drudgery and suffer hardships and privations which they would shame to tell; their children growing up with meagre facilities of schooling; the minister, who should owe no man any thing, unable to worry through the year without debt, always under the harrow, wasting his best energies in making ends meet; and they who are called to preach the Gospel with all boldness, put to shame before their people by unpaid bills and unsuccessful struggles with poverty. And yet they would not lift the veil from the public eye, and would scorn to be presented as objects of common charity. These men feel, nevertheless, that they have a righteous claim upon that Church which they delight to serve. They ask us whether the commands of God can be inconsistent, one with another, when he bids us to preach the Gospel to every creature, and also bids us to provide for our own house. What is the truth on this great subject? Let us have a distinct and authorized view of the case. The conditions of the problem are simple and clear. Some think of scriptural times, of the Seventy, and of Paul. If these men were exceptionally called as Paul was, commissioned by a poor, infant, persecuted church, then they could "work, with labor and travail, night and day, that they might not be chargeable" to any people. But is this their case? Does the Church in our day call for an unpaid ministry, living by their secular trade? And was not Paul aided by the churches? Could we ask Paul, in our land of great Church organizations and Church resources, to spend his best hours at tent-making, so as to preach in the fragments of his time? If Simon Peter might go a fishing, after the resurrection, it was to learn how he was called rather to be a fisher of men, and how, at the command of Jesus, he could cast the net on the right side of the ship, and gather a multitude to land, so that the net should not be broken. And so these men are willing and forward to labor on the scantiest pay, among poor flocks and on new fields. But the great and wealthy Church, which ordains them to service, owes them a living support; and deliberate neglect is crushing. The sympathy of the stronger churches, and of the better supported ministers, is all the more refreshing in such case.

Yet it cannot be denied that many of our people, both officers and members, have very confused and unfair views of the whole subject. They will talk of a minister going into the market as any other man, to seek his living; as though there were any such market for the Gospel, as there is for any thing else. They will speak of the Master—that "He had not where to lay his head." And is this to be the standard of obligation for the Church, the rejection which Jesus suffered, when he came to his own and his own received him not? They will quote his direction to the apostles, "Into whatsoever city or town ye enter, and they receive you not, shake off the dust of your feet for a testimony against them." And this very thing, of going from town to town, is what your Stated Supplies are doing. But shaking off the dust does not shake off the poverty, nor buy the needed bread! And this age of the Church is not an age of miracles. And God will never work a miracle to confirm the Church in parsimony, or to encourage the Church in denying to the laborer his hire.

It must be confessed, also, that many of our practical business men look upon this whole subject in a purely commercial light. They regard, with some sort of suspicion, the case of a poorly paid minister. They are prone to conclude, that he is not worth a living salary; that he is unfit for his work; that in this great country a man could, and should, make his own way in his profession; that a man is worth what he will fetch, and will fetch what he is worth; and that poor pay indicates poor preaching, as poor preaching often results from poor pay. But, even if the poor man is unfit to preach to any people in the land, there are other ways of dealing with the case, far less inhuman than by starvation or public scorn. And—query—whether the plain sermons of Peter, or of Jesus himself, would have seemed great to the majority among us, or such as to gain for them the most numerous calls, or the highest salaries.

The cold shoulder is too often given, in this day, to many faithful, toiling men, of whom the world is not worthy. Grant it, that some may have mistaken their calling, or that some are not, by any means, worth so much as others; yet there is a field for every true and faithful minister of Christ in this broad land; and the Church ought to sustain him on his field, as much if he be at work in America, as if he were at work in India or in China.

There are also delinquent churches not a few; grossly, shamefully delinquent; people who drive the hardest bargains with the minister; who inquire only how little he can live upon; and this is still the inquiry, when the church has grown to be one or two hundred strong, as well as when it was only a membership of fifty; people who do not ask what the minister's service is worth to them and to their households, nor what is their individual obligation, "every one of them laying by him in store, as God hath prospered him." Rather than this, we find churches taking advantage of the numerous applicants, to hire at a bargain, on terms that they themselves would scorn to accept for any industrial avocation. The pitiful result is, that men are engaged as "Stated Supplies," just as a mowing or reaping-machine is engaged, at so much for the use of the apparatus; and that to be driven round the field, and for a portion of their time, at a portion of the pay, where they are needed all the time, at full pay. And so it occurs, to the shame of the Church, that there is no profession that is so poorly rewarded, and no service of any kind that is so poorly paid. Educated talent in the ministry is often paid less than the poorest unskilled labor,—the car-driver or errand-boy receiving more, and the carpenter and mason on your houses receiving double. This fact is confused, in many minds, with the idea that the ministry ought to be poor; and that penury is for them the appointed means of grace; and that they can somehow be better ministers if put upon starving rations; or that any fair compensation, as between man and man, would possibly deprive them of the beatitude of the kingdom. We say, if poverty be their lot in the providence of God—well; but not well, if it be by the policy of the Church, or the providence of man. And this wicked parsimony, in some churches, is the standing argument with many against any scheme for Ministerial Sustentation. As though this were not a very condition of things, in which a faithful minister may deserve to be maintained by the Church at large, as a missionary to the heathen is maintained, even though it be among our American heathen, who most need the Gospel, but do not properly value it.

And now, when it is considered that a few dollars carefully applied would give the needful relief to a devoted minister of Christ, and cheer him in his depression, and lift off from his soul the heavy burden of want, and give him some "proper support and encouragement in the Lord;" when it is found, on actual calculation, that a sum no greater than has lately been given by single individuals as a memorial, would set on foot our proposed scheme, and operate it for one year, to the relief of hundreds of faithful men; might not some one of our merchant-princes covet the honor and the pleasure, and the high reward, of laying down these few thousands, to do, even for one year, the noblest work that such an amount ever did under the sun, lightening more loads, drying more tears, stimulating more Christian services, and blessing more Christian hearts and households of God's poor servants, than was ever allotted to that sum of money to do? But no! This is not the scheme. The churches will covet a share in the work, and every man, woman, and child will demand to have a part in feeding and clothing the Master in his needy ministers, and in his feeble flocks.

The Committee have addressed 2729 circulars to all those, whether Pastors or Stated Supplies, who are in actual charge; and they have received returns from about 2100, leaving unreturned about 600.

Of this remainder, two hundred to two hundred and fifty are Home Missionaries; many of whom, it may be presumed, have not received the circular, nor even the newspaper notice. And, of the rest, some are in transitu, while some who are in situ, have probably thought it not necessary for them to report.

The Committee ascertain, that, of 2729 addressed, 1050 to 1100 are at this time aided by the Board of Home Missions, chiefly in sums less than the amount applied for and recommended by the Presbytery. These are, in great majority, "Stated Supplies," and the larger portion of them are Home Missionaries.

Out of the 2100 reported to us, we find that 1248 Pastors and Stated Supplies are now receiving, from their congregations, under $1000 in regular salary, including manse. And those who receive at and over $1000, from their congregations, number 852. Of the 1248 who receive under $1000, there are 432 Pastors, and 816 Stated Supplies.

There are 339 who receive less than $1000, and at and over $800. Of these, 151 are Pastors, and 188 are Stated Supplies.

There are 909 who receive less than $800. Of these, 281 are Pastors, and 628 Stated Supplies.

There are 287 who receive less than $800, and at and over $600. Of these, 136 are Pastors, and 151 Stated Supplies.

And there are 622 who receive less than $600. Of these, 145 are Pastors, and 477 are Stated Supplies.

In some cases, there are items reported as extra—by "donation visits," or provisions, which cannot be counted in, because they cannot be counted upon.

These figures represent startling and saddening facts, calling loudly for action. Your Committee are impressed with the magnitude of this work, as well as with its urgent necessity. They are aware, also, of various plans that are in the minds of brethren, and of objections that may be urged against any plan, however well advised, which can be presented. They are certain, also, that every thing that is desirable cannot be accomplished immediately; and that, if only the great principles can be now laid down, and well established in the Church, and some fair scheme can be set in operation forthwith, it will have expansion and correction until it is consummated.

There are three schemes which have been chiefly discussed and tried, offering a solution of our problem.

I. The scheme of the Free Kirk of Scotland, a Common Fund, share and share alike, with supplements ad libitum in the wealthier charges. But the conditions of the problem in this country are quite different from those in Scotland, as to extent of territory, and as to number and variety of charges. Besides, the circumstances originating the scheme are wholly unlike. If here we were brought into conflict with the state, whereby our entire ministry were deprived of their stipends, and were cast en masse upon the honor and energy of the churches for support at once and altogether, then, indeed, such a system might be successfully operated here. Especially, if there were the church authority in practical exercise here as there, it might more readily be done. But this would entirely revolutionize our system of pastoral settlements. And yet, with all the difference in the method, there is no great difference in effect, whether all the churches throw into a common fund up to a certain limit, and draw out again in equal shares, supplementing beyond that amount for themselves, as they may be able, or whether they raise a supplementary fund for the feeble churches up to a respectable minimum. In either case, this is by annual contribution.

II. A second, or Endowment scheme, is that of a Permanent Sustentation Fund, yielding an annual income sufficient for the purpose. This is the idea, seemingly, in the mind of the Assembly of 1870, appointing this Committee. But the plan of Endowment is liable to sundry objections in the minds of many, and as a matter of Church economics and financial policy, it seems to your Committee most desirable to call for the annual contributions, and to make the scheme thus keep alive the sympathies and charities of the people. This is the scheme now at work in the Presbyterian Church of Ireland.

III. The third scheme, and that which we propose for your adoption, is that of Supplementary Aid. This is by annual contribution, not, indeed, so as to exclude larger sums, given at one time, by legacies, or where this is preferred by the donor as a method of dispensing an annual interest. But it is recommended rather as a yearly appeal for the yearly necessity, as a means of stimulating the whole Church to her great work, and of binding together all the parts in a living brotherhood, not to be lost sight of. This scheme is operated by the United Presbyterian Church of Scotland, with much success. Let this scheme be applied now to an actual calculation.

There are 348 Pastors who receive less than $1000, down to $500. Within the same limits there are 676 Stated Supplies. There are 77 Pastors and 147 Stated Supplies who are under $500.

Of the 348 Pastors who receive $500 and over, less than $1000, the average salary is $720. The amount necessary to raise these to $1000 each, would thus be an average of $280, or a total of $97,500.

But the Home Mission Board is already aiding these to the amount of about $30,000. If, therefore, we should, for the first year, raise for sustentation an extra sum of $67,500, this whole number of 348 Pastors could be put upon a salary of $1000 each. The average aid which the Board furnishes is reported as about $275 to $300 per year; and the average aid from this Sustentation scheme would be about the same. If, however, we bring within this scheme only such charges as contribute an average per member, such as we propose, then only 155 charges will be included at the present, and these charges are found to average $675 in salary, leaving the amount to be raised only $50,000. And this amount, raised for this object, would relieve the Board of what they are already paying on this account, say $15,000, making only $35,000 extra. If, now, we estimate for those unreturned, there would come under our scheme not more than 400 in all, and 175 as restricted, calling for only $40,000 extra to present appropriations, for the first year.

We have thus shown, from actual calculation, how practicable is this scheme for an easy and prompt beginning. Not by any means, however, to stop with this result, but always enlarging, by a number of new churches coming in, and by an increasing number fulfilling the conditions proposed as entitling to aid. New churches will be encouraged by the guarantee of being aided, after having attained to a certain stage of development; and so, while our denomination wipes off a great reproach, it will receive a new element of increase and of strength.

Your Committee, therefore, respectfully submit for the adoption of the General Assembly, the following

SCHEME OF SUSTENTATION.

(I.) That all the charges throughout the Church be divided into two classes—"Full Pastoral Charges," and "Church Extension (or Mission) Charges." The former comprising such as have Pastors, and are sufficiently advanced to pay a salary of $500, provided only that this be equal to the minimum hereinafter named for the membership. The latter class to include all such charges as have Stated Supplies, and such pastorates as pay less than $500 per annum of salary, or less than the minimum rate per member. Only the former class are, at present, to come under the Sustentation Scheme for aid. The latter class, if needy, are to be under the care of the Board of Home Missions, until they are advanced to full pastoral charges, and are so certified, by vote of Presbytery, as entitled to aid under this scheme.

This does not leave the smaller pastorates and the Stated Supply charges unprovided for; they are classed as more or less incipient and experimental, and they are to be treated as exceptional and special. They require aid according to their case, sometimes even more aid for the time than this scheme proposes.

The propriety of thus beginning with pastoral charges, already somewhat developed, is: 1st. That all cannot be aided by this scheme, at the outset. 2d. A beginning is made with those who are in regular ecclesiastical relation, in hope of thus aiding to bring to an end the anomalous and disorderly system of Stated Supplies, that it may give place to the pastoral relation in the great majority of cases; and 3d. This will encourage new churches to spring up, in prospect of such help as they advance.

(II.) The aim of this Sustentation scheme shall be to make the minimum of salary in the full pastoral charges $1000 per annum. At present, the annual value of the manse shall be included in this; but ultimately, and so soon as possible, $1000 in money shall be the minimum, it being always understood that the pastor shall be wholly employed in his work, and that no grant shall be made without the indorsement of the Presbytery.

This is not "equalizing salaries;" it is only aiming to establish a fair minimum, and by the plan, this is so far subject to the inspection of the Presbytery, in any case, that it is not granted except on the Presbyterial indorsement. It is, therefore, not likely, in any instance, to be excessive. This figure is believed to be only fair. If, in some cases, a smaller sum might answer, because of a less numerous or less expensive household, this may be reserved for the Presbytery to indicate; but who will say that it is too much, if a boy-clerk, or average mechanic, may claim as much and more?

But, on the other hand, much of this Sustentation work is to be done by bringing those churches which are now delinquent, up to their proper rate of contribution to the pastoral support. Here the Presbytery may lawfully insist—for every call which is presented by the hand of the Presbytery to a pastor, contains an obligation to pay him a certain sum, "in order that he may be free from worldly cares and avocations." The sum, then, ought, in all fairness, to meet this end. The Presbytery may so require. It is their duty to search into the transaction just at this point, and to demand that this admitted obligation be faithfully complied with. We have estimated, that a moderate rate would be an average of two cents per day for each member of the church, or $7.30 per annum—not that each member should actually give this amount, but that, some more, and some less, the membership, aided by the congregation, should contribute an average equal to this. This average rate from the entire membership would give every minister in the church a salary of one thousand dollars. Accordingly, it is hereby provided, (III.) That only those churches shall be, at present, entitled to aid from the Sustentation Fund, who are paying the pastor an average of $7.30 per annum for each member.

This is not discriminating unfairly against poor charges; for very few cases will be found where this rate cannot be reached, with a little enlargement of view, and a little self-denial of the people. They who cannot reach it will come under the Board of Home Missions for aid, as Church extension charges.

This proviso aims to screw up one very loose part of our financial machinery. Not a few churches are reported in our farming districts, of 200, 300, and over, of members, where the salary does not exceed $600 or $800—less than $3 per member, and even down to $1.50. It is believed that, in many cases, this is from sheer parsimony; while, in exceptional cases of weak and struggling churches, it is all that can at present be done, and such will be aided by the Home Mission Board, as candidates for the full pastoral charge. An incentive will thus be furnished to the smaller churches, to increase their pro rata of contribution, so as to come within the scope of this provision; and the liability to abuse is reduced to a minimum, because, by the conditions (of $500 salary and $7.30 pro rata), those aided are the young and enterprising churches who pay the largest pro rata, while the aid ceases so soon as they reach 135 members. (We find, by calculation, that of those between $500 and $1000 salary, the larger portion pay the largest average salary, but the smallest pro rata; and that the smallest membership pay the largest percentage.)

(IV.) It is further provided, That each Presbytery be enjoined by the General Assembly, through the Synod, to investigate immediately the case of all churches having over 200 members, who are paying less than $1000 salary, and that, unless good and sufficient cause can be shown for the lack, those churches be enjoined to raise the amount to an average of $7.30 per member, as the fair minimum for the pastor; and that all cases of flagrant neglect be treated by the Presbytery, as the case may be, reporting the same to the Synod and General Assembly. By this means we aim to make the churches self-sustaining as rapidly as possible.

A case may be mentioned, which we would fain believe is rare in our Church: a membership of 200, owning forty first-class farms, promising only $625 salary, and pretending actually to pay only $400 or $500 of this; and, at the time of reporting to your Committee, not a cent of the salary had been paid for 1870, and part of 1869 was yet unpaid; and this not on the frontier, but in one of our old States.

And whereas it is believed, that much of the deficiency in funds comes from a failure to Presbyterianize and popularize our finances, with a view to enlisting all the people;—therefore,

(V.) It is provided, That every church session, as a condition of aid from this scheme, shall, in co-operation with the trustees, or other representatives of the congregation, appoint a Committee, who shall institute and carry out a plan of weekly or monthly contribution to this object, and to all the Boards of the Church; so as to present, to every member of the church and congregation, the opportunity of such stated contribution, according to the apostolic order (1 Cor. 16 : 2); that so every church seeking aid may give every reasonable assurance of self-aid, as an ordinance of worship, in the way of God's appointment, and according as it has gone well with them.

(VI.) That in like manner, not only such churches as are aided by this scheme, but every church session, be required by the General Assembly to set on foot forthwith, and earnestly to prosecute, a plan, that shall extend to every member of the congregation an opportunity of contributing to this Cause (and to all the Boards of the Church), either by the envelope system or by collectors, reaching each in person; and that the Presbyteries be enjoined to see to it that this requirement is complied with.

Many of our churches give nothing to our great schemes of beneficence. Many, in our best churches, are not reached by the ordinary method. It is the plain duty of the officers, to afford to each worshipper the opportunity to contribute; and every church has a right to this means of education and cultivation in the divine life. And then, the mites are mighty. "The power of the littles," as Chalmers pleaded for it, wrought such distinguished success for his church schemes.

(VII.) To cultivate the principle of ministerial fraternity and sympathy, that each pastor shall aim to secure from his people an amount equal to at least one twentieth (and rather one tenth) of his own salary, annually, toward supplementing the salaries under this scheme.

(VIII.) That each church be required to report, through the Presbytery, to the General Assembly, the pastor's salary actually paid by them for the year (and any arrearage, if there be any), and that this be published in a separate column of the Assembly's Minutes, year by year.

This is regarded as of great importance, in order thus to lay bare the whole subject to the eyes of the Church at large, and of the individual churches; that thus each church may compare what they are doing with the membership and with the average of other churches, so that the delinquent may be stimulated by such needful statistics to a higher aim.

(IX.) That each Presbytery shall appoint one efficient member, whose duty it shall be to examine every application for aid under this scheme, and to report to the Presbytery full information, as to the prospects of the church for usefulness and growth, and as to the possibility of consolidation, or association, with a neighboring church and as to the amount of self-help, with other conditions, entitling it to aid under this scheme: Also, to receive moneys from the churches of the Presbytery, and to remit monthly to the Central Sustentation Committee.

(X.) That a Central Committee of Seven be annually appointed by the General Assembly, to supervise this work, having a Secretary appointed by the Assembly, to conduct the operations, to keep accounts with the Presbyterial Treasurers of Sustentation, and, every way, and by all means, to further the great object in view.

It may be said that this work falls naturally under the Board of Home Missions, and can as well be done by them, and that no additional object should be presented to the churches. But it is plain, from all our experience as a Church, that the Board of Home Missions has already in its church-extension work more than it can well accomplish. And your Committee are fully of the opinion that, unless this scheme is set on foot, as distinct from the pioneer work of that Board, and unless it shall be presented as something extra and specific, it cannot be successful. A direct and special appeal must be made for this object, and our Reunion as a Church ought surely to be signalized, by such a provision for our toiling and struggling ministers.

We are persuaded that the Church needs to be aroused to this duty, as a very condition of her thrift, if not of her existence, in our widely extended land. The cry comes up to us from the most accredited sources, that prompt action in this matter is most urgently necessary; else many a weak church must utterly be abandoned, and suffering pastors must fail for lack of bread. The past delinquency of the Church at large must be greatly owing to lack of information. And, in the language of Dr. Robert Buchanan, of Glasgow, urging us to action, "there needs only that our Presbyterian principles be applied to the finances of the Church, in order to secure far greater results than have ever hitherto been reached." It is a noteworthy fact, that all the Presbyterian Churches of Great Britain and Ireland, as well as the Methodist Church there, have, in successful working, a scheme of ministerial sustentation.

We have aimed to show that our scheme is feasible. It can be set on foot and operated, with enlarging results, year by year, with very little strain upon any of our churches, and with seasonable help to the weak, so as to give a great impulse to our prosperity and increase. Our denomination will have a new power in the land, as providing for those of its own house, and so conserving the faith. It is truly encouraging to find, that we can so easily make a start. By the terms of this scheme, we have only 155 cases to begin with; but this is only the introduction of a system which provides for a gradual expansion, and the best result would be that the 155 should be doubled for the next year.

In review of the whole subject, we see the present sad condition of things—the working force of the Church most seriously reduced and decreasing. Out of our 4000 and over, of ministers, only about 1600 are Pastors in actual service; over 1000 are in the shifting relation of Stated Supplies; about 900 W. C.'s, and over 600 more who are miscellaneous, and also without pastoral charge. We estimate that two thirds of our ministers, in charge, receive less than $1000 from their churches. And one third of them receive less than $600. Besides all this, many even of the Pastors are unsettled, and ready to quit their field for lack of adequate support. They do not appeal to the Church for charity. No! They are ready to endure hardness; but they must live. They must support their families, must pay their debts, must educate their children, must have some common supply of information, in books and papers. They cry to the Church for justice, for sympathy and co-operation of the older and richer churches. They are willing to cultivate the wastes—to go to the front in the battle; but they must live. And God declares that they have a right to live comfortably and well, that they may better serve his cause.

Many of the W. C.'s would gladly be at work; many such are without charge unwillingly. Many of the Stated Supplies have been "persecuted, afflicted, tormented," in seeking a settled pastorate. The scrambling for the better vacancies, out of a lawful desire to live of the Gospel, while it is reckoned a shame to the ministers, is a shame to the Church at large. The Church has degraded them by cold neglect, and then has complained of the degradation.

In the view of your Committee, there is a relief from all this, or from the major part of it. Insure the faithful, working Pastors a fair living, and the Stated Supplies will soon become Pastors, and so this mischievous excrescence upon our system will be cast off. Many of the W. C.'s will be at work. The ministry will also become more efficient, and so more worthy of their calling. For, in many cases, it is not that these men are poorly fitted for their work, as some imagine, that they do not settle; it is more often because they are rendered inefficient as ministers, by the worriment, and distraction, and discouragement imposed upon them, as if they were a mendicant order, in our noble Protestant Presbyterian Church.

It is most manifest, that the proper working force of our ministry is greatly lost to our Church, for lack of some system of Sustentation. But if the churches themselves can be brought up, as is proposed by this scheme, to increase their payments to the Pastor by only a fair average per member, and if, besides, the older and wealthier churches will help the weaker, then the W. C.'s getting at work, and the Stated Supplies becoming Pastors, and the churches having 140 members becoming in so far self-sustaining, the scheme will gather in new churches, and still other new churches will spring up under this fostering care. And so the whole working machinery will become strengthened and enlarged, and every part of it will gain new power, and our goodly Church, now reunited by the grace of God, will accomplish vastly more than ever hitherto, for Christ and his covenant.

We are well aware that the success of any important scheme, for the promotion of a Christian liberality, depends mainly upon a revived piety in the churches. But we look, under God, to the Ruling Eldership, as the leading agency to give furtherance to this enterprise. An awakened interest must be excited among the people, misapprehensions must be corrected, prejudices must be removed, objections must be met, and vigorous impulse must be given to the work, by the cordial enlistment of those officers, who are the right arm of the ministry, and the spiritual representatives of the people. We invoke their aid at the outset, and throughout. We rely upon their leading influence in assemblies of the Eldership, and in their particular congregations, to agitate the subject, and not to let it sleep; to see to it, that it shall not fail for lack of their sympathies and their earnest prayers and endeavors. The work is most appropriately theirs to undertake and prosecute before the people, on behalf of the toiling and struggling ministry. It is a work that deeply concerns the spiritual growth of our Churches. For "the liberal soul shall be made fat, and he that watereth shall be watered also himself."

The election of a Secretary of the Sustentation Fund for one year, in accordance with the recommendation of the Report, was made the first order for to-morrow morning.

The Standing Committee on Education presented a Supplementary Report, which was adopted, as follows:

The following persons, whose term expires with this Assembly, are renominated as members of the Board of Education for the term of three years: Ministers, Herrick Johnson, D.D., Elias R. Beadle, D.D.; Laymen, Morris Patterson, Samuel Field.

To fill vacancies caused by resignation:

For one year, Mr. R. S. Walton, in the place of B. B. Comegys.

For two years, Rev. Villeroy D. Reed, D.D., in the place of Alexander Reed, D.D., and Rev. William T. Eva, in the place of Rev. Peter Stryker, D.D.

The following are nominated as members of the class of the old Board of Education, whose term expires with this Assembly, for four years, or for so long a period as the Assembly may continue the existence of that Board short of four years:

Ministers.	Laymen.
Melancthon W. Jacobus, D.D., LL.D.,	John Newland,
William M. Paxton, D.D.,	Nathaniel Ewing,
Charles W. Shields, D.D.,	Joseph McKnight,
John C. Backus, D.D.,	James Schoonmaker,
Villeroy D. Reed, D.D.,	Morris Patterson,
Frank Chandler,	Henry D. Gregory,
Edwin R. Bower,	James F. Gayley,
Elias R. Beadle, D.D.,	Henry Day.

On the same principle, the following persons are renominated as members of the Permanent Committee on Education for three years, or such shorter period as the General Assembly may hereafter determine:

Ministers, George L. Prentiss, D.D., Theodore L. Cuyler, D.D.; Laymen, Ezra M. Kingsley, James M. Dunning, Charles A. Davison.

The Rules, submitted by the Board of Education, have been examined by the Committee, and, with a few unimportant changes, are recommended for approval by the General Assembly.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions, which had been recommitted, was again presented, with additional recommendations; after which, the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., LL.D., the President of the Board of Domestic Missions, and others; when the Report was adopted as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions, to whom was referred the Sixty-ninth Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, and the first Annual Report of the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, and also certain Overtures with reference to the prosecution of the work, would respectfully report, as follows:

We unite with the Board in thankful recognition of God's benignant favor during the past year. Amidst the difficulties and perplexities attending reorganization and consolidation, it has been impossible to meet all the demands of the field, and to satisfy all the expectations of the laborers in it. The work of reconstructing the machinery of the Church, so as to adjust it to our changed circumstances, has been too vast and complicated, to be effected wholly without friction. But we make grateful record of the fidelity of the Board to their great trust. In reviewing their first Annual Report, and looking out upon the field of their operations, we are impressed with

The Marvelous Development. The country is striding to material greatness. We are peopling the continental solitudes with almost the swiftness of thought. Villages are born in a day. New spiritual harvests, ripe for reaping, spring up in a night. The things that were not, yesterday, are the things that are, to-day. Five millions have made their homes, west of the Mississippi, during the last decade. Three new post-offices a day are alike the evidences and demands of intelligent progress. In Nebraska alone, sixty homesteads and nine thousand acres have been the average sales to actual settlers, every day of the past year. We are civilizing and developing and peopling our vast spaces literally by steam. For a railroad is scarcely born in the brain of some man of enterprise, before it is banding some State or Territory with its iron lines, and pulling after it industry and wealth and houses and people.

The Open Door.—Never did God set before his Church such an open door. Never did he bless his people with a grander opportunity. The means of communication and the facilities of intercourse multiply, even more rapidly than the enlargements and necessities of the field. There are no far-off isolations compelling neglect. We can almost touch the two oceans between the Sabbaths. No indifference, therefore, can be justified on the ground of inaccessibility.

The Agencies Employed.—What have we, as a Church, in the way of agencies for this great work? First of all, our admirable system of Church Polity, concerning alike liberty and law. At once flexible and stable, meeting the demands of the remotest frontier, and adapted as well to our populous cities. We have, also, an efficient Executive Board, in close and sympathetic connection with twelve hundred and thirty-three missionaries,—faithful men of God, illustrating, in their cross-signed lives, the spirit and the power of the Gospel which they preach. They constitute about one third of the entire ministerial force of our Church; making us apostolic and Christ-like, in so far as they thus prove, in our possession of the spirit of Missions, that we are possessed of the mind and heart of the Master. In support of these men, and in aiding the prosecution of their work, we have expended upward of $350,000.

The Achieved Results. Have these men given good proof of their ministry? What is the result of this large expenditure of money and toil? Much that escapes all analysis—that can never be put into speech—that can be tabulated only in the minutes kept by God; but much, also, that we can see with our eyes, and handle with our hands, and on account of which the heart of our reunited Church should be stirred and thrilled with grateful joy. More than a seventh of the missionaries have failed to send in their statistical Reports, and yet the balance cheer us with the record of the organization of 156 churches during the year, the birth to God of over 5000 souls, and the union with the Church, on profession of faith, of over 6000; while nearly 100,000 children and youth have been under their care in the Sabbath-school. In addition to this, over 300 church-edifices have been built, or repaired and enlarged, and $228,000 of church debts have been cancelled; and the same mission fields, for which we have expended $350,000, have poured back into the Treasury of the Memorial Fund $339,410!

All this has been accomplished, while the Church was in the midst of the process of reconstruction, with Presbyteries changing their officers and boundaries, and the whole machinery of church-work necessarily disarranged in the confusion coincident to consolidation. It has been accomplished, with want often staring our missionaries in the face, and with the Board staggering, through many months of the year, under the painful and oppressive consciousness of an empty and over-drawn Treasury. Let us thank God that, though the year has been one of unusual trials and difficulties, it has borne such fruit to the glory of his holy name.

The Necessity of Enlargement.—But the work must be enlarged. The necessity and opportunity can alone be the measure of our duty; and the necessity and the opportunity are widening every day. The old grooves of Christian effort, the old standards of Christian giving, the old measures of Christian activity, will not answer. We must be as quick with our gospel according to Christ, as the world is with its gospel according to Mammon. We must move with the spirit of the age. We must conceive and achieve large things for God, proportionate to the peerless privilege with which he favors us.

Our grand Memorial enterprise, instead of being any longer a measurably diverting movement in connection with the work of Missions, is now solidified as a base of inspirational and fortifying power. We have adjusted our forces. We are equipped for service. Love has lived down all apprehension. Trust has disarmed all doubt. God's Holy Spirit has welded us together. Behind our more than twelve hundred missionaries, are the members and material resources and spiritual activities and powers of a reunited Church. Before them, and before us, is a continent to be possessed for Christ. This is "the great door and effectual" set, in our path, of God. These are "the gates" through which we are to go, casting up the highway, gathering out the stones, and lifting up a standard for the people. We indorse and commend the courage of the Board as they say, "Trusting in God, though our Treasury be empty, we have resolved to go forward, to lay out large plans, to project generous schemes for the future." There is no other course left us, without proving recreant to the duty and the claims of Christ, and our common humanity. Let us consecrate the work, by consecrating ourselves to the work and in the work, and God will crown the new year with larger tokens of his love and favor.

The Basis.—In accordance with the suggestions of the Board, and in compliance with the obvious necessities of the case, growing out of the Reunion, your Committee would recommend the following, for adoption by the Assembly, as a new embodiment of the principles and laws of Home Missions, to be the outline or basis of operations for the time to come:

1. The Work.—The work of Home Missions is based upon our Lord's command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," so far as that command is applicable to this country. The grand purpose of the Assembly, is to establish self-sustaining churches, as fast and as far as possible, and so to increase the solid material and power of the Church; and so to accumulate strength, to go forward with the work as our population increases, till all the people shall be able to hear the Gospel. Ministers and means are to be distributed, according to the relative importance and promise of different fields, and in view of the necessities of the whole country, that there may be equality and no partiality.

2. Mode of Operations.—The Church conducts this work, through a Board responsible to the Assembly alone, under its advice and control; which Board is expected to exercise sound discretion and good judgment, in carrying forward the Home Missionary Work. This Board consists of fifteen members, of whom not more than eight shall be ministers of the Gospel; arranged in three classes, to serve one, two, and three years respectively, and their successors to serve for three years, to be appointed by the Assembly. Five of the Board shall be a quorum, for the transaction of ordinary business; and the majority shall be a quorum for the election of officers, and the determination of their salaries.

3. Of the Board and its Duties.—The Board shall elect annually two Secretaries, and a Treasurer, and such other officers as may be requisite for the successful prosecution of the work. They shall have power to fill, until the meeting of the next Assembly, their own vacancies, to appoint their own meetings, to determine the specific duties of their officers, and make their own by-laws. They shall undertake the work of aiding such congregations as are unable fully to support the stated preaching of the Gospel; shall appoint and commission the missionaries, and shall give them all needful instruction as to the place and character of their labors.

4. Of the Relations of the Board to the Presbyteries.—It is not the design of the General Assembly, to supersede the action of the different ecclesiastical bodies connected with it, but to encourage and give unity and efficiency to their action, so as to bring out the full adaptation and force of the Presbyterian system in connection with Home Missions; the Presbyteries are requested to appoint a Committee on Home Missions, to report to the Board the destitution in their own bounds, to select and nominate missionaries for their own fields, and to recommend the amount of their compensation; it is understood, that the appointing power is wholly with the Board; that no contract made by a Presbytery, or a Presbyterial Committee, can have any binding force on the Board; and that, excepting in extreme cases, such as frontier work, no appropriation shall be made to any congregation that is not indorsed by the Presbytery, or the Presbyterial Committee of the Presbytery with which the congregation is connected.

5. Of the Union of Contiguous Congregations.—It is earnestly recommended to the Presbyteries, and to the Board, to encourage more and more the union of small congregations in the support of one pastor, which congregations separately are unable of themselves to sustain a minister; and to encourage settlements as pastors; and this, with a view to the more efficient support of the ordinances, and with less expense to the missionary funds.

6. The Duties of Presbyteries.—Presbyteries should carefully weigh the relative claims of old organizations and of new enterprises, that one may not be sacrificed to another. As to the former, they should ascertain if any ought to be discontinued, what may be done to stimulate them to greater efforts of self-support, and if appropriations to them should not be curtailed or refused; and as to the latter—the new enterprises—they should be undertaken, only where the providential indications point out their necessity, and never to establish denominational interests where there is no call nor use for them, or where another denomination, of like general faith and order, is in possession of the field, and doing all that is fairly needed to supply it with the Gospel.

7. Applications.—Applications, forwarded by the Presbyteries to the Board, should state all the facts which the Board should know, in order to form a correct and intelligent estimate of the importance and necessities of the case: such as the location of the church; its positive and relative, its present and prospective importance; its proximity to other Presbyterian churches; its age, numbers, pecuniary ability and necessities; as well as the number in the missionary's family; the price of house-rent; the length of time the church has been receiving aid, and the prospect of its independence of outside assistance. No church should be recommended for an appropriation, which does not put forth all reasonable exertions to sustain the preaching of the Gospel, make an annual contribution to the Treasury of the Board of Home Missions, and satisfy the Presbytery that it has complied with its engagements to its ministers.

8. Distribution of Funds.—While the Assembly expects the Board of Missions, to pay great respect to the advice of the Presbyteries, touching missionaries laboring within their bounds, yet, in the distribution of its funds, the action of the Board must be controlled by the state of the Treasury, and the relative importance of the various missionary fields under its care. Moreover, the appropriations should be made with reference to the necessities and prospects of congregations, rather than in view of the wants of missionaries; it being regarded that the support of the ministry is one of the means of building up a church.

9. The Foreign Population.—The Board of Missions is requested to keep in view the increasing number and religious wants of the foreign population in this country, and to do whatever may be practicable to furnish them with the ministry and means of grace.

10. Theological Students.—The Board is recommended to continue its missionary enterprises, in the destitute yet growing neighborhood in the vicinity of the large cities, in which, or near which, our Theological Seminaries are located, and to systematize and make more effectual the employment of the students in such connection.

Additional Recommendations.—Your Committee would urge the adoption of the following additional recommendations:

I. That the missions in New-Mexico be transferred to the Board of Foreign Missions.

II. In answer to the overtures concerning synodical missionaries, that the matter be favorably considered by the Board, but that the appointment of said missionaries be left to its own discretion, it being understood that each case is to be decided by the Board upon its merits.

III. That all contributions, made by the Church for the organization and support of churches in missionary fields, be placed in the statistical column devoted to Home Missions, whether forwarded to the Treasury of the Board or not.

IV. That the Report of the Committee, appointed by the last General Assembly to secure the necessary legislation to complete the consolidation of the "Board of Domestic Missions" and the "Committee of Home Missions," be referred to the present Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, with instructions to perfect and secure all needful legislation.

V. That the Secretaries be requested, to respond as promptly as possible to all business communications, from the missionaries of the Board, and from the Presbyterial Committees.

VI. That the churches, throughout our entire bounds, be charged anew with their obligations to support, with greatly increased contributions, the work of this Board, in view of its now depleted treasury and its threatened financial embarrassment, and in view of the widening necessities of the field; and that $375,000 be the least sum which we regard it as our duty to raise, for the vigorous prosecution of the work, during the coming year.

VII. That, as the rate of expenditure is measurably uniform throughout the year, no one month be designated for the taking up of collections for this Cause; but that each church designate for itself the month that will bring most to the Treasury of the Board, and in no case fail of an annual contribution.

VIII. That, hereafter, the first Tuesday of the sessions of each Assembly be devoted exclusively to the consideration of the cause of Home Missions.

In reviewing the Sixty-ninth Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, your Committee would recognize the long-continued and faithful services of the Board, and would recommend that the thanks of this Assembly be tendered to the Board, and especially to the Secretary, for the efficient manner in which the great work has been conducted.

We find that the receipts from all sources from March 1st, 1870, to April 13th, 1871, were $37,224.36; which, with the balance on hand March 1st, 1870, viz., $65,037.69, made the available resources of the Board $102,261.95. The payments to the missionaries were promptly and fully made up, to the 15th of July, when the missionary operations of the Board, and $30,000 in the Treasury, were transferred to the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions in New-York City. Since that time, the further sum of $10,800 has been transmitted, leaving, in the Treasury of the Board, on the 13th day of April, 1871, the sum of $379.72.

Your Committee would recommend, in accordance with the suggestion of the Board of Domestic Missions, that the Board be perpetuated in order to preserve the title to the real estate in the Board's possession, and to collect the legacies made to the Board. To this end the Committee would recommend the re-election of the following persons whose term of service expires at this time:

Laymen—James Lenox, E. M. Doty, Archibald McClure, G. N. Loomis, C. C. Beatty, M.D., S. M. Breckinridge, Henry Harper.

A Memorial from the Synod of Cincinnati, on Christian Union, was presented.

Pending the reading of the Memorial, the Assembly adjourned till 7¾ o'clock P.M.

TUESDAY, May 30th, 7¾ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the afternoon session were read and approved.

The Memorial from the Synod of Cincinnati was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

It was Resolved, That should the person to be elected as Secretary of the Sustentation Committee, decline to serve, or in case of his death, or resignation, before the meeting of the next Assembly, the Committee be authorized to appoint one in his place.

George W. Musgrave, D.D., LL.D., and William T. Eva, Ministers; and William J. McElroy, John D. McCord, and Hon. William A. Porter, Elders; were appointed a Committee to take into consideration and adjust, if possible, the conflicting claims of our church in Jacksonville, Florida, with a church in connection with the Southern Presbyterian Assembly in the same place, to the church property. Also any similar cases in other places, in regard to church property.

The Committee of Conference with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions presented their Report, which was accepted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Special Committee to whom were referred the Annual Concerts of Prayer, and the celebration of the Lord's Supper, presented their Report, which, after amendment, was adopted as follows:

So long as the unequivocal promises of the Word of God appeal to the faith of the disciple, so long must the Church lay heavy stress on supplication in which "two, or more, agree on earth, as touching any thing that they shall ask." Nothing can be more definite and positive, than the manifold assurances that, to the prayerful souls,—those who, individually, abiding in Christ, unitedly pour forth their requests at the throne of grace,—God will lend a gracious ear.

These promises are confirmed by history. The experience of the prayerful adds its clear witness to the divine faithfulness. The most marked results have followed concerted prayer, in the Church of Christ, from the day when Peter was miraculously delivered from his chains until now. The whole history of the Church, under both dispensations, presents one unbroken series of proofs as to the efficacy of united prayer.

1. The Monthly Concert.—The Assembly call attention to the fact, that, in the observance of this venerable custom of the Church, there is no longer either uniformity or regularity, while in some cases, it has fallen into utter neglect. It is now more than a century and a quarter since, in Scotland, stated seasons of special and united supplication began to be kept, with reference to the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the whole race of man. From Scotland, the contagion of this holy enthusiasm spread into England, and finally into America. The same thought quickened the golden pen of Jonathan Edwards, in his "humble attempt to promote explicit agreement and visible union of God's people in extraordinary prayer for the revival of religion, and the advancement of Christ's kingdom on earth." At about the time when the American Board began its noble career, the first Monday evening of each month began to be set apart as the time for this concert of prayer. In some churches it is, after more than half a century, maintained as regularly as the services of the Lord's day; in others, it has fallen into neglect; in still others, it has never had any foothold.

The importance of its revival throughout our churches, and of its regular and uniform observance, cannot be overestimated. It designates a particular time, not only for the joint prayers of Christians for the conversion of the world, which should be offered at all times; but it provides stated seasons for the discussion of themes, the rehearsal of facts, and the presentation of intelligence connected with the condition of the world, and the advance of the kingdom of Christ. Its value as an educator, contributing to intellectual culture, and enlarged information as to the civil, social, and religious estate of mankind; its value as a revealer, opening up to us the profound depth of man's natural, moral and spiritual degradation; its value as a quickener, giving new life to our prayers, wider range to our sympathies, intenser warmth to all our Christian emotions; its value as a reminder, constantly keeping before us the needs of a perishing world, and our duty with reference to the supplies of the bread of life,—all these combine to make the regular and uniform observance of the Monthly Concert for prayer both a duty and a privilege to our churches. Its careful, devout observance would serve to keep before every believer's thought and prayer that reclamation of the world to God, which is the grand inspiring idea of our religion.

Absolute uniformity, in its observance, is perhaps impracticable, after a fair trial of so many expedients. The day originally set apart has, in many cases, given way to the evening of the first Sunday of the month; a change that, on the whole, is to be approved. We recommend that, in connection with these missionary meetings, every effort be made to bring the individual members of our churches into the habit of gathering items of missionary intelligence, both for their own information and for contribution to the interest of the occasion.

2. The Week of Prayer.—The observance of the first week of each new year, as a special season of united supplication throughout the Christian world, has already been attended and followed by results too grand to allow of a question as to its claim upon our churches.

3. Day of Prayer for Colleges.—In addition, the Committee would express the hope, that the recommendation of the last Assembly may be reaffirmed, changing the day of prayer for Colleges, Seminaries, and Schools, to the last Thursday in January, instead of February.

4. Assembly's Mission Meeting.—We call attention to the fact that, in accordance with the resolution already submitted during the sessions of the present Assembly, the first Wednesday of the sessions of each future Assembly is set apart for the consideration of the Foreign Missionary work of our Church, and for devout supplication in its behalf throughout the Church.

5. Young Men's Christian Associations.—We further suggest, that, in compliance with the request of the National Convention of Young Men's Christian Associations, the second Sabbath of November be observed as a day of prayer for the young men of our land, that they may be saved from vice, crime, and unbelief, and made the true servants and soldiers of Christ.

6. The Lord's Supper.—In regard to the celebration of the Lord's Supper, in connection with the stated meetings of the judicatories of the Church, your Committee feel hardly prepared to recommend any absolute and universal change. And yet it cannot be denied, that grave objections exist as to the manner in which this sacred service is often observed. Too much, as a matter of form, crowded in between hours of pressing business, if not of exciting discussion, with little or no preparatory exercises, it is not strange that this, which should be the richest feast of blessing, the very climax of privilege, has so often proved dull and formal, and of little spiritual advantage. As originally instituted by our Lord, this sacrament was a "supper," observed at an appointed "hour," "when the even was come" of "the same night in which he was betrayed." Might not many impressive associations be secured if, in the imitation of his example, it were, whenever possible, appointed for an evening service, exclusively distinct from all the business of the day?

"With desire," he said, "have I desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer." Ought not his ministering servants, in their stated assemblies, to guard against any influences which may tend to cool the ardor of their "desire" for the recurrence of the Sacred Feast?

"Let a man examine himself," said the apostle, "and so let him eat that bread and drink that cup." Ought not careful arrangements to be made for "attending thereto with diligence, preparation, and prayer"? And, unless due opportunity be given for such preparation, would it not be better, at our ecclesiastical meetings, not to appoint the formal service at all?

Your Committee recommend, that the attention of Judicatories be called to this important subject, and that, independent of past customs, they be enjoined to take such action with reference to it, as may seem most in harmony with the Divine arrangement, and best calculated to promote the spiritual welfare of themselves and the congregations with which from time to time they may meet.

Resolved, That the Committee of Arrangements for the next General Assembly be instructed, to provide for the celebration of the Lord's Supper, on the evening of the first day of its sessions.

The Committees on Synodical Records severally presented their Reports, and on their recommendation the Records of the following Synods were approved as far as written: Albany, Baltimore, China, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Genesee, Geneva, Harrisburg, Illinois Central, Illinois North, Indiana South, Iowa North, Iowa South, Kentucky, Long Island, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New-Jersey, New-York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Tennessee, Toledo, Utica, and Wisconsin, Also, the Records of Illinois South, with the exception of the change of the name of the Synod.

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, Urgent necessity exists that the vacant chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology in the Seminary of the North west be filled at once; it is

Resolved, That, in case the Rev. Dr. Prentiss shall find himself unable to accept the appointment to said chair, and in case it is impossible, or undesirable, at present for the Seminary of the North-west to avail themselves of the plan for the conduct of Theological Seminaries authorized by the last General Assembly, the Directors of the Seminary of the North-west be, and hereby are, empowered to act as a Committee of this Assembly to nominate a suitable incumbent to said chair, who shall at once enter on the work of instruction, and whose confirmation in office shall be referred to the next Assembly.

The expenses of the following Committees were ordered to be paid: Sustentation, Benevolence and Finances of the Church, and Conference with the United Presbyterian Church.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was taken up and adopted as follows :

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries respectfully report to the General Assembly, that they have examined the papers referred to them which represent the condition of the several Schools of Theology under the care of the Church. These are Princeton, Union, Auburn, Western, North-western, Lane, and Danville, which are strictly Theological Institutions; and Lincoln University, Newark German, and Dubuque German, which are preparatory and literary as well as Theological. They have also examined the Report of the Committee of Five appointed by the last General Assembly, "to propose such alterations in the several plans of these Institutions," as may bring them as nearly as practicable into uniformity of operation and of relation to the Assembly, and find :

1. That to prevent a possible ambiguity, this Committee, "with the approbation of the Directors and Professors" of Princeton Seminary, propose the following as a substitute for Section I., Article 2 of the plan of that Institution, viz. :

"The Board of Directors shall consist of twenty-one ministers and nine ruling elders; of whom one third, or seven ministers and three elders, shall be chosen by said Board annually, to continue in office three years; and the Board shall also have power to fill all vacancies which may occur in its body; all of these elections, however, shall be subject to the veto of the General Assembly, to whom they shall be reported at the next meeting thereafter."

2. That the same Committee also addressed a circular letter to the Seminaries at Allegheny, Danville, and Chicago, inviting them to send up, to this General Assembly, a statement of what alterations in their several plans may be practicable, to bring them into general conformity with that of Princeton as modified by the last Assembly; and a summary of the action taken by these, and by all the others, is herewith submitted, as follows :

(1.) At the annual meeting of the Trustees and Commissioners of the Theological Seminary at Auburn, (May 11th, 1871,) it was . . . "Resolved, That the Boards of Commissioners and Trustees of the Auburn Theological Seminary are anxious to comply with the proposal of the last General Assembly, to submit the election of Professors in this Institution to the concurrence of that body; and that a Joint Committee be appointed, to consider whether the proposal of the General Assembly can be complied with, without change of the Charter of this Seminary; and if, in the judgment of this Committee, such a change in the Charter is necessary, the Prudential Committee is hereby authorized to apply to the coming Legislature, in the name of these two Boards, to make it."

They further intimate that one of the embarrassments in their action was, that "no time was fixed for the action of the General Assembly in the exercise of their" proposed veto power.

(2.) At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, October 14th, 1870, it was Resolved, That we accept the powers and authority offered, by the action of the General Assembly, to the Theological Seminaries now under the control of the General Assembly; as contained in the second resolution of the report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, recorded on page 63 of the Minutes of 1870.

(3.) The Board of Directors of the North-Western Theological Seminary report, . . "In regard to the relations of the Seminary to the General Assembly, the Board, finding that there are legal points involved in this question, which require careful investigation, referred the whole matter to a Committee, with instructions to report to the Directors at their next annual meeting in April, 1872."

(4.) The Board of Trustees of the Lane Theological Seminary, report, that they have "most cordially adopted this plan by the following action:

"Every election of a Professor in this Institution shall be reported to the next General Assembly, and if the said Assembly shall by vote express its disapprobation of the election, the Professorship in question shall be ipso facto vacant from and after such vote of the General Assembly; it being understood that, in such case, it is not the pleasure of this Board that such Professor shall continue in office."

(5.) Danville.—The Board of Directors cordially approve the plan of the General Assembly, as to harmonious operations of all the Theological Seminaries within their jurisdiction, and simply ask further time to perfect the same in their relations to the Assembly. To effect this, a Committee has been appointed to investigate the whole subject, and to report to the Directors at their next meeting, whether they can legally adopt the plan of the Assembly.

(6.) The Board of Directors of the German Theological School, Newark, N. J., report that the requirements of the Assembly were met by the procurement of a Charter, in which the following provisions were inserted: "The first Board of Directors of said corporation shall be divided into three classes, to be numbered one, two, and three; the term of the first shall expire in one, the second in two, and the third in three years, from the first day of May last." . . "Each class of Directors shall hereafter be chosen for, and hold their office during three years, and until a new election to supply the place of such class." The election of three Directors to fill vacancies "at the stated spring-meeting, shall be subject to review at the next General Assembly, . . and in case the said General Assembly shall disapprove of such election, the office of the Director or Directors disapproved of, shall thereupon become vacant." The provisions with respect to the relations of the regularly appointed Professors, the Board propose to incorporate in the Constitution of the School.

(7.) The Constitution of the German Theological Seminary of the North-West, at Dubuque, Iowa, prescribes that . . "it shall be hereafter the duty of the Board itself to fill all vacancies occurring in their number, whether by expiration of term of office, by resignation, death or otherwise: Said election, however, shall only be deemed valid, and those elected enter upon their office, after approval by the General Assembly." Also, "The Board of Directors . . shall establish the Professorships and appoint the Professors and Instructors, . . . and always subject to the approval and control of the General Assembly."

(8.) Lincoln University.—Since the last meeting of the General Assembly, the charter of Lincoln University has been so amended, by special act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, as to place the Theological Department of that Institution under the care of the General Assembly, in accordance with the general plan adopted for the supervision of Theological Seminaries.

Your Committee recommend, under this head: 1. That the General Assembly approve and authorize the proposed amendment to the plan of the Seminary at Princeton.

2. That the Assembly declare, that the true meaning of the act subjecting the election of a Professor to the veto of the Assembly, is that such election be reported to the next General Assembly thereafter; and, if not vetoed by that Assembly, the election shall be regarded as complete; according to the plan, ratified by the Assembly of 1870; see Minutes, pp. 64, 65, 148.

3. That the General Assembly accept the oversight of the Theological Department of Lincoln University, as provided in the amended charter of that Institution, and approve the appointments and proceedings of the Board of Trustees as reported at this time.

In reference to the respective Seminaries, your Committee report, respecting:

1. Princeton Seminary.

Your Committee have examined the Annual Reports of the Directors and Trustees, respectively, of Princeton Seminary, and find them complete and satisfactory.

The ordinary statistics need not be given here, inasmuch as they may be found in the printed copies of said Reports, in the Appendix to the Minutes of this General Assembly.

It is gratifying to notice, that arrangements for a fourth year of study are so far perfected, that six students have availed themselves of this provision in the pursuit of special studies and attendance on regular recitations throughout the year.

Also that, through the generosity of a friend of the Seminary, the students have been furnished with three courses of special lectures; one on Natural Theology and Apologetics, by the Rev. Dr. McCosh; one on Assent to Truth, its nature, criteria, and objects, by the Rev. Dr. Atwater; and one on Egyptology, by the Rev. Dr. J. P. Thompson.

Also, that several munificent friends of the Seminary having offered the larger part of the funds necessary for the endowment of a chair of Christian Ethics and Apologetics, such a chair has been erected by the Board of Directors, and the Rev. Charles A. Aiken, D.D., called to its occupancy.

It is gratifying also to notice, that two members of the graduating class have devoted themselves to the Foreign Missionary work, and a third has the same course in serious contemplation.

These reports, as a whole, indicate the continued prosperity and success of this favored Seminary, and suggest congratulation to the Church and gratitude to God, in view of the growing completeness of its educational equipments, and the Christian and considerate munificence of its friends.

Your Committee recommend that the Assembly recognize the above-mentioned election, by the Board of Directors, of Rev. Dr. Charles A. Aiken to the newly-established Professorship of Christian Ethics and Apologetics; as also of the following persons to fill the vacancies occasioned in that Board, by expiration of term of office, viz.:

Ministers.	Elders.
Henry A. Boardman, D.D.,	Ezra B. Fuller,
John Hall, D.D.,	George Junkin,

John C. Backus, D.D.,
William E. Schenck, D.D.,
Elijah R. Craven, D.D.,
William C. Cattell, D.D.,
John Thompson, D.D.

Thomas C. M. Paton.

2. Union Seminary.

The Report on Union Seminary shows Six Professorships and two temporary Chairs of instruction.

During the year now ended, one hundred and thirteen students, representing seven different denominations, have composed its classes; and out of this number thirty-two have completed their course.

The Seminary has a rare and valuable library of above thirty thousand volumes. The amount of Permanent Funds reported is, in all, $411,000; and nearly $350,000, besides, have been subscribed for the purchase of lots and the erection of new buildings,—another fruit of this memorial year.

The vacancy, left in the Board of Trustees, by the death of the venerable Albert Barnes, has been fitly filled by the election of his successor, Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D.

The Brown Professorship of Hebrew yet awaits a fit incumbent; and a more important vacancy, left in the chair of Sacred Rhetoric, Pastoral Theology, and Church Government, by the death of the lamented Thomas H. Skinner, D.D., LL.D., yet remains to be filled. The Committee cannot forbear to express the hope that the mantle of this beloved servant of God, whose praise is in all the churches, may fall on one eminently fitted to train young men both for pastoral fidelity and pulpit efficiency. If the Committee may venture to add a further suggestion, it is to the effect, that if, in the laudable effort to provide this school of the prophets with ampler endowment and larger facilities for usefulness, a new chair might be erected exclusively for instruction in Sacred Rhetoric, Pulpit Oratory, and Homiletical Criticism, leaving Pastoral Theology and Church Polity to be united in a separate department of instruction, it might at once make a special instructor in elocution unnecessary, and make the vacant professorship hitherto filled by Dr. Skinner, less oppressive and onerous by reason of multiplied duties.

It ought to be added, that, besides the regular exercises of the Seminary, a course of ten lectures have been delivered, during the year, by James McCosh, D.D., LL.D., President of the College of New-Jersey, on the Ely Foundation, and a course of two lectures on Physical Health, by Dr. Willard Parker, on a foundation established by himself.

3. Auburn Seminary.

The number of Professors is five, viz.: Rev. Samuel M. Hopkins, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity; Rev. Edwin Hall, D.D., Professor of Christian Theology; Rev. Jonathan B. Condit, D.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology; Rev. Ezra A. Huntington, D.D., Professor of Biblical Criticism; and Rev. Willis J. Beecher, Professor of Hebrew Language and Literature. The whole number of students is thirty-five, of whom nine completed their course this year.

The Committee recommend the following resolutions, viz. :

1. That the Assembly express their deep sympathy with the Directors and Faculty of Auburn Theological Seminary in the afflictive Providence which has, during the past year, removed from among them the Rev. James E. Pierce, Professor of Hebrew.

2. That the Assembly hereby indicate to the Board their gratification that, by the election of the Rev. Willis J. Beecher, the vacancy thus occasioned has been so promptly filled.

4. Western Seminary.

There are in this Seminary five Professors, two Instructors, and seventy-four students.

The Chair of Sacred Rhetoric, Church Government, and Pastoral Theology still remains vacant, the successive elections of the Rev. Drs. Ellinwood and Eells having proved ineffectual.

The Report of the Directors mentions, with expressions of sorrow, the death of the Rev. Samuel McFarren, D.D., Vice-President of the Board, in the seventy-fourth year of his age.

The number of students who have completed the course of study, during the past year, is twenty-five.

The Seminary reports eighteen scholarships. The library has received an addition of 834 volumes.

5. Lane Seminary.

This institution, located at Walnut Hills, near Cincinnati, O., reports five Professors and one Lecturer, as follows: Rev. Henry Smith, D.D., Professor of Biblical Literature and Sacred Rhetoric; Rev. Henry A. Nelson, D.D., Professor of Systematic and Pastoral Theology; Rev. Edward D. Morris, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity; Rev. Llewellyn J. Evans, Professor of Hebrew Exegesis; Rev. Thomas E. Thomas, D.D., Professor (elect) of Greek Exegesis; William H. Muzzy, M.D., Lecturer on Hygiene.

The number of students is thirty-three, of whom eight completed the course of study.

The Scholarship Fund amounts to more than $25,000, of which $12,000 is the munificent gift of Preserved Smith, Esq., of Dayton, O. The annual expense of a student at this Seminary is from $100 to $130.

The library numbers 12,000 volumes.

The Board report the decease of the Rev. D. Howe Allen, D.D., long known as an efficient laborer in the interests of the Seminary, both financial and professional, and of late an Emeritus Professor. Also, that the Rev. Thomas E. Thomas, D.D., has been elected to the chair of Greek Exegesis. Your Committee recommend,

1. That this Assembly join with the Board of Trustees in a lively appreciation of the labors, graces, and usefulness of the Rev. D. Howe Allen, D.D.

2. That the Assembly approve the election of the Rev. Dr. Thomas to the chair of Greek Exegesis.

6. Danville Seminary.

Both Boards, Trustees, and Directors report to the General Assembly as follows: Professors, four in number; and students, six. Two of these Professors—Rev. George D. Archibald, D.D., elected by the General Assembly to the chair of Pastoral Theology, and Rev. Samuel H. McMullin to that of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History—have both accepted the Professorships, and been regularly discharging their duties since last September, in accordance with the change of terms proposed by the last General Assembly.

The amount of the Seminary's Permanent Funds is $163,257.57, with a Seminary property valued at $29,270.84; annual ground-rents, $1604.17; and a library valued at $10,000; while some friends of the Seminary have made memorial gifts to the Seminary of $1500 during the year.

Ten new Directors of the class of 1871 are to be chosen by the Assembly; also two others, one of the class of 1872, and one of the class of 1873, because of resignations.

It will be observed that the whole number of students during the year has been but six.

It is beyond all doubt the true policy of the Assembly, through all its various Boards and training schools, to administer its affairs with the wisest economy and financial integrity, especially in view of the great need of funds in all its benevolent operations. It will not be strange if it shall seem to many, in view of these things, inexpedient, if not improper, to sanction such outlay of capital with so disproportionate a result. But, it must be remembered, that the troublous times through which the Danville Seminary is now passing, incident to the disturbed and unsettled condition of Southern affairs, call for our profoundest sympathy; and we express the hope and prayer, that the day may speedily dawn, when this large expenditure of funds and energies may be rewarded by more ample and encouraging results.

The following persons are nominated for Directors: Ministers, John M. Worrall, D.D., Henry P. Thompson, James T. Lapsley, John H. Nesbit, Archer C. Dickerson; Elders, Daniel J. Curry, William H. Kinnaird, Buford N. Penick, James McCampbell, Isaac W. Scott.

7. North-Western Seminary.

The Board of Directors report, that the number of students in attendance during the past year is 38, of whom 8 completed the course. The number of Professors is three, besides one Instructor. The Professorship of Didactic and Polemic Theology is still vacant. The number of scholarships is 8. The Treasurer's Report indicates a satisfactory state of the finances. The aggregate of Funds, exclusive of Seminary buildings and grounds, is $138,620.

Your Committee, with a high appreciation of the importance of this Institution, have given anxious consideration to its interests, and they are unanimously of the opinion,

1. That it is indispensable, that the chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology be immediately filled, and they urge upon the General Assembly, that, in prompt deference to what is the evident mind of the Church, they re-elect to this chair the Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., of New-York.

2. That the General Assembly should create the chair of Christian Ethics and Apologetics, in the earnest hope that private munificence may soon furnish the requisite endowment.

3. The Committee call attention to the suggestion of the Board of Directors that, as soon as practicable, the duties of the Professorship of Biblical Literature be divided, so as to arrange for a separate chair of Instruction in the Literature of the Old Testament; and they express the hope, that liberal friends of the Institution may be found to endow such a chair at no distant day. We see, however, no necessity for immediate action on this matter, inasmuch as the present chair is filled by so accomplished and competent an instructor.

4. For Directors to serve until 1875, the Committee nominate as follows:

Ministers: Fielding N. Ewing, William W. Harsha, Arthur Mitchell, Abbott E. Kittredge, Arthur T. Pierson.

Elders: Anson P. Waterman, John Forsythe, Henry G. Miller, Nathaniel S. Bouton, Claudius B. Nelson.

To fill a vacancy in the class of 1874, Hon. Daniel B. Green, of Ypsilanti, Mich.

8. Newark German Seminary.

This Institution forwards, to the General Assembly, a printed Report which had been previously addressed to the Presbytery of Newark, and which gives a full and interesting account of its organization and wants.

The Directors have undertaken to raise $30,000, and are encouraged to hope for final success.

The following persons have been chosen Directors to serve for three years, viz., Rev. Joseph Fewsmith, D.D., Rev. Charles S. Knox, and Mr. Daniel Price.

9. North-Western German Seminary.

The papers submitted are a certificate of Incorporation, a copy of the Constitution, and the Report of the Board of Directors. It appears that the Institution was organized strictly in accordance with the expressed will of the last Assembly.

Twenty-three students have been in attendance, under the care of two Instructors.

Rev. A. Van Vliet, the first Professor, the indefatigable founder of the Institution, worn out by excessive labors, retired from the chair of instruction as Emeritus Professor, and a few weeks since yielded up his valuable life.

The present instructors are the Rev. Jacob Conzett, Rev. Godfrey Moery, and Mr. Jacob Stark.

The present accommodations are quite insufficient. Better buildings and about $65,000 of endowment are greatly needed.

10. Theological Department of Lincoln University.

A Report from the Trustees of said University, with reference to its Theological Department, has been submitted to the General Assembly and examined by your Committee, who recommend that it be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

It appears from this Report, that the Incumbents of three endowed Professorships are already available for furnishing instruction in this Theological School for colored young men.

1. The President of the University, Rev. Isaac N. Rendall, D.D., is, by the terms of the Charter as well as by the appointment of the Trustees, Professor of Christian Ethics and Apologetics.

2. The Rev. Edwin R. Bower was inaugurated in January, 1868, to the Baldwin Professorship of Theology, endowed in the sum of $20,000 by the late John C. Baldwin, of Orange, N. J., who made it a condition of his gift, that the Incumbent of the chair thus endowed "shall hold and teach, that the Old and New Testaments are the word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and practice, and the doctrine of the Trinity, and parity of the ministry as held by the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America."

3. Rev. Ezra E. Adams, D.D., entered, in January, 1867, on the duties of Professor of Sacred Rhetoric, on an endowment of $20,000, given by the Hon. William E. Dodge, of New-York City.

In addition to these regularly elected and permanent Professors, other Professors and ministers of the Presbyterian Church have, at the invitation of the Trustees, given instruction during the year: Rev. Lorenzo Westcott, in Church History; Rev. Gilbert T. Woodhull, in Biblical Greek; and Rev. William R. Bingham, on the Subject of Pastoral Care.

The collegiate education of colored young men is so new a thing that, of course, this Theological School must be quite in its infancy; but the vigorous success already attained in the collegiate department of the University cannot fail, under the Divine blessing, to furnish material for the speedy enlargement and permanent growth of its theological department.

Meanwhile, and in view of the immediate demand for colored ministers among the Freedmen, provision is made for a shorter and simpler course of education for the ministry, for those pious young men of color who give promise of usefulness in the Christian ministry among the men of their own race, but to whom a collegiate course is impracticable.

Your Committee believe, that this young Theological School is of great importance and blessed promise, in connection with the work of the Church for the colored race; and recommend that the Assembly bestow upon it an assiduous and nourishing care, and commend it to the generous and needed benefactions of the Church.

Your Committee recommend, that these Reports of the Boards, and of the Treasurers, be published in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

The Standing Committee on the Narrative of the State of Religion presented their Report, which was adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The following persons were appointed the Committee on the Digest, viz.: Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D., Alexander T. McGill, D.D., LL.D., and Robert M. Patterson, Ministers.—Hon. George Sharswood, LL.D., and Hon. William Strong, LL.D., Elders.

The following persons were added to the Committee on Manses, viz.: Samuel C. Palmer, Samuel C. Perkins, Ellwood Wells, Charles P. Kellogg, and Thomas L. Mortland, Elders.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 31st, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the appointed time with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus D.D., LL.D., was elected Secretary of the Committee on Sustentation.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported several Overtures, with recommendations which (with the exception of No. 20) were adopted as follows:

Overture, No. 1, from the Presbytery of Neosho, on the Dismission of Church Members.

The Committee recommend the following action:

Resolved, That the General Assembly urge upon the Sessions of Churches the importance of giving, to members who remove from them, either letters of dismission and recommendation to a particular church, or, in case of uncertain destination, letters of credence; and, that on the reception of members from other churches, they notify immediately the church from which the member has been dismissed. And they, also, urge upon all our churches the use of the printed blanks for the dismission and reception of members furnished by our Board of Publication.

Overture, No. 2, from the Presbytery of Newark, on capital and italic letters, and marginal readings, in the English version of the Scriptures. The Committee recommend the following action:

Whereas, An acquaintance with the meaning of the use of capital and italic letters, in the English version of the Scriptures, and also of the marginal renderings, and the meaning of the two distinctive marks referring to these renderings, is important to a complete understanding of the version;

And, whereas, The knowledge of the Church on these subjects is exceedingly limited; therefore,

Resolved, That the General Assembly submit, to the Directors of the American Bible Society, the propriety of publishing, in their future editions of the Scriptures, a brief statement of these points.

Overture, No. 3, from the Presbytery of Iowa City, on Psalmody and Church Music. The Committee recommend that it be referred to the Special Committee on Psalmody appointed by this Assembly.

Overture, No. 4, from the Synod of China, on the subject of the establishment of Institutions in China for the training of Candidates for the Ministry, asking the Assembly to set apart $50,000 of the Memorial Fund for this purpose. The Committee recommend,

That the General Assembly cordially approve of the establishment of literary and theological institutions, in connection with our foreign missionary work, whenever it is practicable. And for this purpose the Committee having charge of the Five Million Fund are hereby instructed to extend, to the brethren in China, such pecuniary aid as it may be in their power to grant.

Overture, No. 5, from the Presbyteries of Steubenville and North River, asking that the various Boards be directed to close their fiscal year at the same time; and, that they adopt a uniform system in reporting their receipts in the Monthly Record. The Committee recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly hereby recommend the several Boards, excepting that on Foreign Missions, to close their fiscal year on the 1st day of April annually.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly hereby instruct the several Boards to report their receipts in a uniform method, viz.: By synods, presbyteries, and churches, in alphabetical order.

Overture, No. 6, from the Synod of Toledo, and from the Presbyterian Historical Society; asking the Assembly to take order for the celebration, during the year 1872, of the Three Hundredth Anniversary of the completion of the work and life of JOHN KNOX in Scotland; the organization of the First Presbytery in England; and the Martyrdoms of St. Bartholomew's day in France. The Committee recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the observance of this Tercentenary year be recommended to all our Synods, Presbyteries, and Congregations.

Resolved, 2. That a Committee of three, the Moderator being Chairman, be appointed, to secure an address or addresses, to be delivered during the Sessions of the Assembly of 1872.

Overture, No. 7, from the Presbyterian Historical Society. To the effect, that they have accumulated a large amount of materials of inestimable value for the future history of the Church, in a Library of more than 5000 volumes of books, 300 volumes of religious newspapers, hundreds of other periodicals, and more than 20,000 pamphlets, besides numerous portraits and other relics; that they are utterly without accommodations for the safe deposit, and appropriate use of these treasures; and asking that a commodious apartment or apartments, in the new Publication House at Philadelphia, be allotted to the Society's use.

The Committee recommend that the Petition be reported to the Trustees of the Board of Publication, with the recommendation of the Assembly, that, if consistent with the interests of their trust, such provision shall be made in the new building as will further the important ends proposed.

Overture, No. 8, from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, on the subject of Deacons. The Committee recommend—in response to the memorial regarding the functions of Deacons, and requesting that, in respect to the care of the poor, their business be so defined as not to exclude the poor and the sick outside the Church—the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly regards the office of Deacon as providing proper scriptural and feasible means for such exercise of charity, as will aid in extending the influence of the Church among the poor, and opening the way for more direct spiritual ministrations.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly, rejoicing in all that is accomplished by others, express their most decided approval of all institutions for the care of the poor and sick, conducted by Presbyterians, and, regarding with pleasure their increasing number, earnestly advises their multiplication.

Resolved, 3. That the Presbyterian Church has always recognized the office of Deacon; and the Assembly renewedly call the attention of the churches to the provisions of the Form of Government in the case. (See Chap. XIII., Sec. 2d.)

Overture, No. 9, from the Synod of China. Asking an appropriation to defray the expenses of their Synodical meetings. The Committee recommend:

1. That the Board of Foreign Missions be instructed to defray the expenses incurred in holding the meetings of the Synod of China, last October, to the amount of three hundred dollars ($300), and to appropriate eight hundred dollars ($800), to defray the expenses of the meeting of the Synod in October next.

2. That the Synod of China be recommended to consider, at their next meeting, the propriety of holding their meetings biennially, instead of annually.

3. That the Presbytery of Siam be, and hereby are, detached from the Synod of China, and reattached to the Synod of Albany.

Overture, No. 10, from the Presbytery of Logansport, asking the Assembly to set apart an additional column in the statistical report of the Churches and Presbyteries, for the purpose of exhibiting the contributions of the Bible cause. The Committee recommend that such change is inexpedient. Also, asking the Assembly to define more accurately, what contributions are to be credited to the several columns in the reports of the churches to the Presbytery.

The Committee recommend the following answer:

1. Home Missions. To include all moneys collected for the purpose, whether for the Board, or for any Home Missionary operation, including Mission Schools, carried on in connection with the Presbyterian Church. 2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in Foreign Lands. 3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; for Theological Seminaries, Presbyterian Colleges, Academies, and Parochial Schools. 4. Publication. To include all moneys contributed to the Board, and for Synodical and Presbyterial depositaries, and Colportage. 5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board, or otherwise. 6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled Ministers, and to aid the families of deceased Ministers. 7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of freedmen, whether through the Board, or otherwise. 8. Commissioners' Fund. As at present. 9. The Minister's salary. 10. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation (excepting the Minister's Salary), the support of the Parish Sunday-Schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses. 11. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence. And that these directions be printed on the blanks furnished to our churches and Presbyteries.

Overture, No. 11, from the Presbytery of Palmyra, asking the Assembly to set apart the coming year as an additional Memorial Year, and that the fund to be raised this year be fixed at ten millions of dollars.

The Committee recommend the following answer: This Assembly has fully approved the plan of the Memorial Fund, and have rendered thanks to God for its successful consummation. But it is not expedient to repeat the effort for another year. Rather must the Church gird herself now for the liberal and energetic prosecution of her benevolent work through the ordinary and accepted agencies of the body.

Overture, No. 12, from the Presbytery of New-York, on the Demission of the Office of the Ministry.

The Committee recommend, that the Overture be referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Rev. Drs. Zephaniah M. Humphrey, Charles Hodge, Henry B. Smith, George W. Musgrave, and Elijah R. Craven, to report to the next General Assembly.

Overture, No. 13, from the Librarian of the Presbyterian Historical Society, asking for an annual gift of fifteen copies of the Minutes of the Assembly for the use of the Society.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted.

Overture, No. 14, from Rev. David X. Junkin, D.D., and other members of this General Assembly, asking that the Assembly send an Overture to the Presbyteries, providing for an Adsessor of the General Assembly.

The Committee recommend that it is inexpedient.

Overture, No. 15, from the church of Stranger, Topeka, Kansas, asking that they be permitted to sell their present House of Worship, with a view to rebuild in another location. The Committee recommend, that the petition be referred to the Board of Church Erection, with powers.

Overture, No. 16, from the Presbyteries of Pittsburgh, and of Philadelphia Central, asking the Assembly for further action, clear and unmistakable, in regard to the manufacture, sale, and use, as a beverage, of intoxicating liquors. The Committee recommend the following answer:

This General Assembly, believing the manufacture, sale, and use of alcoholic stimulants as a beverage, to be contrary to the spirit of God's Word, and wholly inconsistent with the claims of Christian duty, reiterate the Testimonies of former Assemblies on this subject.

The Assembly, also, affirm their conviction of the reprehensible complicity, in the guilt of the aforesaid traffic, of those who knowingly rent their premises for such purpose, or indorse licenses that legalize it.

And further, to give emphasis to the action now taken, and the utterances of former Assemblies above referred to, the Board of Publication are directed to print an abstract of such former Testimonies as cover the points referred to in the Overtures, and send a Copy thereof to every Pastor and Stated Supply within our bounds, with the direction of the Assembly to read the same publicly from their respective pulpits.

Finally, the Assembly recommend the general circulation of a temperance literature, as tending to inform and arouse the public conscience with reference to the evils of Intemperance. And, to aid in this, they urge upon the attention of the Board of Publication the publishing, in addition to those now on their Catalogue, of such other treatises as shall be adapted to this end.

Overture, No. 17, from the Synod of Illinois, South, "with a plan for the reorganization of the Board of Home Missions." The Committee recommend that no action on the Overture be taken.

Overture, No. 18, from the Presbytery of St. Clairsville, on the large number of vacant Churches and unemployed Ministers. The Committee recommend that the matter is not in such shape, that the Assembly can take action at present.

Overture, No. 19, on Representation in the Assembly, in reference to which the Committee recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That a Committee of Fifteen, of which the Moderator shall be Chairman, be appointed, to report to the next General Assembly a plan for reducing the number of Commissioners to the Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That this Committee be directed to publish their report, in the principal papers connected with our denomination, at least two months before the meeting of the Assembly of 1872.

Overture, No. 20, a Memorial from the Presbyteries of Chester and Blairsville, asking the Assembly at their present sessions to adopt some method for securing support for the Ministry when laid aside by infirmity or age, and also for their families, on the plan of Mutual Life Insurance.

The Committee made a recommendation, which, after considerable discussion, was laid on the table.

Overture, No. 21, from the Presbytery of Highland, in reference to Ministerial Sustentation, to which the Committee recommend the answer, that the Assembly have already taken substantially the action asked for.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church reported several additional Overtures, with accompanying recommendations which were adopted, as follows:

Overture, No. 30, from the Synod of Geneva, asking that certain counties be transferred from the Synod of Utica to the Synod of Geneva:

Also, Overture, No. 31, from the Presbytery of Cayuga, asking that the Synod of Geneva be enlarged, by the addition to its territory of the Counties of Oswego, Onondaga, and Madison, now forming the Presbytery of Syracuse within the bounds of the Synod of Utica:

Also, Overture, No. 32, from the Presbytery of Syracuse, asking that said Presbytery be transferred from the Synod of Utica to the Synod of Geneva:

Also, Overture, No. 33, from the Presbytery of Utica, containing resolutions, protesting against the transfer of the Presbytery of Syracuse, from the Synod of Utica, to the Synod of Geneva.

The Committee have thus an Overture from a Synod, and three Overtures from Presbyteries, in reference to the altering of the boundary line between the Synods of Utica and Geneva.

Inasmuch as but one of the Synods directly concerned has, so far as appears to the Committee, taken any action upon the subject, and as no satisfactory change could be made without also altering the bounds of Presbyteries, the Committee recommend, that the Presbyteries be directed to overture their respective Synods, in regard to the proposed change of boundary line between the Synods of Utica and Geneva, with the design of submitting the matter finally to the next Assembly.

Overture, No. 34, a Memorial from the Presbytery of New-York, referring to this Assembly the following case: Application was made to the Presbytery of New-York in April, to receive, by letter from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, the Rev. John Beveridge, now a resident of Northern Mexico, and to authorize the Rev. Andrew J. Park, now a member of the Presbytery of New-York, and residing in Northern Mexico, and the Rev. John Beveridge, when received by the Presbytery, to ordain to the work of the Ministry, if the way be clear on examination, Mr. Brigide Sepulveda, a converted Roman Catholic priest.

The Committee recommend the following answer:

Resolved, That inasmuch as there is no Presbytery, and not a sufficient number of Ministers of whom to form a Presbytery, in Northern Mexico, such request be not granted. In consideration, however, of the urgency and peculiarity of the case, the Board of Foreign Missions are hereby instructed to defray the expenses of Mr. Sepulveda's journey to and from New-York, for his ordination by the Presbytery of New-York, if the way be clear.

Overture, No. 35, from the Presbytery of Muncie, asking the Assembly to provide for such an amendment of the Constitution, as that any Church may elect both Deacons and Ruling Elders for a limited term of years. The Committee recommend that it is inexpedient at this time to take any action on the subject.

The Committee were discharged.

The Report of the Committee of Twenty-one was taken from the table. It was moved to refer that part of it not already disposed of to a special Committee to report to the next General Assembly, and this motion was laid on the table.

The Committee on Mileage presented their Report, which was adopted, as follows:

Received from Presbyteries, . . .		$24,390 56
Premium on Gold, ...		2 50
Total, ...		$24,393 06
Paid Commissioners' traveling expenses, in full,	16,420 87
Paid the Rev. Mr. Shedd, as ordered, . .	20 00
Paid incidental expenses, checks, stamps, etc., .	6 50
		$16,447 37
Balance in hand, ...		$7,945 69

All the Presbyteries, excepting those among Freedmen and missionary stations, have paid their apportionments in full, save only the Presbyteries of Butler, Blairsville, Des Moines, Iowa, and Winnebago.

We recommend that the Presbyterial assessment for the Commissioners' and Contingent Funds, for the General Assembly for 1872, be fixed at six cents per member.

The Rev. Charles Elliott, D.D., of the Presbytery of Chicago, was appointed a Delegate to the Synod of the Waldensian Church.

The Fort Street Presbyterian Church, DETROIT, Michigan, was chosen, as the place for the meeting of the next General Assembly; and Arthur T. Pierson and William E. McLaren, Ministers; Elisha Taylor, Jacob S. Farrand, and E. C. Walker, Elders, were appointed a Committee of Arrangements for the meeting.

The answers from the Presbyteries in reply to the Overtures, sent down by the last Assembly, were presented by the Stated Clerk, as follows:

(2.) The following twelve Presbyteries have answered the first Overture in the negative, viz.: Albany, Allahabad, Chillicothe, Ebenezer, Genesee, Louisville, North River, Ottawa, Philadelphia-South, Santa-Fé, Springfield, Troy.

(3.) The following seventy-four Presbyteries have answered the second, third, and fourth Overtures in the affirmative, viz.: Allahabad, Alton, Athens, Baltimore, Benicia, Binghamton, Blairsville, Bloomington, Buffalo, Cairo, Carlisle, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Champlain, Chemung, Chillicothe, Cincinnati, Clarion, Columbia, Dayton, Elizabeth, Holston, Hudson, Indianapolis, Iowa-City, Kalamazoo, Lake-Superior, Lansing, Lehigh, Lima, Logansport, Mahoning, Marion, Mattoon, Milwaukee, Monroe, Neosho, New-Albany, Newark, New-Brunswick, New-Castle, New-York, Niagara, Osage, Peoria, Philadelphia-Central, Philadelphia-North, Pittsburgh, Portsmouth, Redstone, Rochester, Rock-River, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Louis, San-Francisco, Schuyler, Steuben, Steubenville, Troy, Union, Vincennes, Washington, Waterloo, Wellsboro, Westchester, West-Jersey, West-Virginia, Whitewater, Winona, Wisconsin-River.

(4.) Three Presbyteries report that they took no action, in part or whole, on the Overtures, viz.: Transylvania, Wooster, Zanesville.

(5.) The following twenty-nine Presbyteries have answered the second, third, and fourth Overtures in the negative, viz.: Albany, Allegheny, Brooklyn, Butler, Chester, Chippewa, Crawfordsville, Ebenezer, Erie, Genesee, Huntingdon, Jersey-City, Kittanning, Louisville, Missouri-River, Newton, North-River, Ottawa, Palmyra, Philadelphia-South, Platte, Potosi, Sacramento, St. Lawrence, St. Paul, Santa-Fé, Shenango, Springfield, Syracuse, Transylvania, Utica.

(6.) One Presbytery (Westminster) answered nay to the second Overture.

The whole number of Presbyteries on the Roll is one hundred and sixty-six, of which eighty-four are a majority. The first Overture, therefore, has been adopted by a constitutional majority, and has thus become a Standing Rule. The other Overtures have failed to receive a majority of affirmative votes, so far as yet appears; only one hundred and seven Presbyteries having thus far reported, and fifty-nine having failed to report.

The second, third, and fourth Overtures of the Assembly of 1870, were ordered to be sent down anew to the Presbyteries, with an injunction to take action upon them, and forward their replies, duly attested, to the next Assembly.

The Moderator announced the following Committees: On Manses:—Joseph M. Wilson, Hon. John Scott, Peter Carter, Robert McKnight, William G. Holmes, Samuel C. Palmer, Edward Wells, Samuel C. Perkins, Charles P. Kellogg, Thomas L. Mortland.

Sustentation:—Ministers—M. W. Jacobus, D.D., LL.D., Frederick A. Noble, Sylvester F. Scovel, James McCosh, D.D., LL.D., James Allison, D.D. Elders—Hon. Hugh N. McAllister, Jacob D. Vermilye, George W. Lane, David Robinson.

The Hymn Book:—Ministers—Herrick Johnson, D.D., J. Trumbull Backus, D.D., Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D., James O. Murray, D.D. Elders—George Junkin, Ezra M. Kingsley, Gilbert Combs.

Representation in the General Assembly:—Ministers—Zephaniah M. Humphrey, D.D., Cyrus Dickson, D.D., Alexander Reed, D.D., George L. Prentiss, D.D., Alexander T. McGill, D.D., Herrick Johnson, D.D., Elijah R. Craven, D.D., Henry Darling, D.D., William E. Moore, John D. Wells, D.D. Elders—Hon. William A. Porter, Hon. William Strong, LL.D., Hon. Joseph Allison, LL.D., Hon. Henry W. Williams, LL.D., George Junkin, and John D. McCord.

The Children of Deceased Missionaries:—Ministers—Arthur Mitchell, Henry A. Nelson, D.D., Morris C. Sutphen, D.D. Elders—Samuel C. Perkins and Alfred C. Post, M.D.

The Ter-centenary of the Death of Knox, etc.:—Ministers—Zephaniah M. Humphrey, D.D., and Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D. Elder—Samuel Agnew.

The Rev. William C. Wisner, D.D., the Delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America; the Rev. David Tully, the Delegate to the General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church; and the Rev. Benjamin W. Chidlaw, the Delegate to the General Assembly of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodists, severally presented their Reports (through the Stated Clerk); which were accepted and put on file.

The Committee on Leave of Absence was discharged.

The calling of the Roll was dispensed with.

The following paper, expressive of the grateful sentiments entertained by the Assembly, was presented, and unanimously adopted, viz. :

Resolved, That we tender our sincere thanks to the Chairman, Rev. Arthur Mitchell, and the other members of the Committee of Arrangements, for the singularly complete and perfect preparation and provision made for the comfort and convenience of this great judicatory, in their protracted sessions, and for their indefatigable labors in our behalf; and especially for the daily and bountiful lunch which, at such expense and with such labor, has been furnished the Assembly in the Chapel.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks, likewise, to the Trustees and Session of the first Presbyterian Church, for the use of their edifice; and to all who, by donations of flowers, or by attentions of any kind, have contributed, in any degree, to the pleasure and profit of our stay in this Garden City of the West.

We would gratefully acknowledge, likewise, the thoughtfulness of those who provided such ample arrangements, in the south tower of the church, for correspondence and communication with our homes and absent friends; the courtesy of the Postmaster, Colonel Eastman; and the untiring energy and unwearied patience of the gentlemanly clerk in our branch Post-office, Mr. William Jackson, whose equanimity was only equaled by the importunity of his patrons.

The thanks of the Assembly are hereby tendered, also, to the several Railroad Companies, who have passed the Commissioners, at reduced rates, over their respective roads; and also to those who, in connection with the Press, have endeavored to furnish full and faithful records of the Proceedings, especially to the Editors of "The General Assembly Journal."

We hereby express to the Moderator, also, our thanks for the urbanity, dignity, impartiality, and ability wherewith he has presided over the deliberations of the Assembly; the uniform courtesy of his manner, the promptness of his decisions, and his patient endeavor to promote the harmony, and dispatch the business, of the Assembly. Our acknowledgments are due likewise to the Temporary Clerks, Rev. James Allison, D.D., and Rev. Joseph E. Nassau, for their efficient and unwearied discharge of duty; and to the Reading Clerk, the Rev. William T. Eva, who, as we trust, may long be heard "lifting up his voice, as a watchman on the walls of Zion."

The Minutes were read and approved.

After the offering of solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for the dissolution of the Assembly, the Moderator, with prayer and the apostolic benediction, declared the Assembly dissolved; and required another Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet at the Fort Street Presbyterian Church, in the city of DETROIT, Michigan, on the third Thursday of May, A.D. 1872.

Annual Narrative

OF THE

STATE OF RELIGION

WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

MAY, 1871.

In the discharge of the duty assigned them, the Committee have been much embarrassed by the meagerness of many of the Presbyterial Narratives. In very many instances, these deal largely in generalities, and are deficient in the facts necessary for a full and accurate Report. Frequent complaints of the failure of the churches to report appear in the Narratives themselves.

PRACTICAL WORKING OF REUNION.

One fact of special interest attaches to all the Narratives in common, viz., that they represent the practical results of the first year of Reunion. In most cases, the practical benefits of the Reunion are left to be inferred from the facts of the Narratives; yet mention is not unfrequently made of its effect on the religious condition and work of the Presbyteries. In all such cases, the testimony to its beneficent results is distinct and unequivocal. It is mentioned as having given "a new interest and a new impulse;" as "working well" at points, where the evils of disunion have been most apparent; as having resulted in "aggressive evangelism;" and as having fully answered the largest predictions of its success. These special statements, coupled with the general aspect of the Church, as set forth in the Narratives, go to confirm faith in the wisdom of the step, and to furnish the Church with fresh ground for joy and thankfulness.

REVIVALS: PRESENCE OF THE SPIRIT.

A good proportion of the Presbyteries report revivals of religion within their bounds. Some of these have been of great extent and power; but the year can scarcely be called a revival year in the ordinary sense of that term.

Nevertheless, the religious aspect of the Presbyteries was perhaps never more encouraging. The indications are numerous of steady and healthful growth, consequent upon the faithful use of the ordinary means of grace. A decided departure is manifest from the too common tendency, to regard revivals as the only evidence of spiritual prosperity, and correspondingly to underrate those evidences of the Spirit's presence and work, which appear in fidelity to the ordinary routine of Christian work and worship. There is no less appreciation of Pentecosts, but a growing appreciation of the duty of continuing steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread and in prayers. The growth of the Church appears to have been quiet and steady, rather than spasmodic. The Presbytery of Newark, for example, reports no revivals, but larger accessions than usual. The Presbytery of Indianapolis reports, that God has richly blessed the ordinary ministrations, and that there has been no lack of the Spirit's presence. In the Presbytery of Morris and Orange, additions in all the churches indicate a blessing on the stated preaching. The Presbytery of Buffalo reports a healthy increase in nearly all its congregations, without special revivals, and of accessions on profession of faith nearly equaling those by letter. The Presbytery of Chicago reports a continued outpouring of the Spirit throughout the year; no sudden and transient excitement, but the abiding presence of the Holy Ghost. It is thus evident, that the appreciation of the stated means of grace, as vehicles of the Spirit's work, is steadily growing in the churches; and that there is decided movement toward that condition in which the Church, habitually alive in Christ, herself, works with the highest power and steadiness on the dead in trespasses and sins.

The special manifestations of this fidelity to ordinary church work are various. Frequent reference is made to the faithfulness and efficiency with which the

are maintained. Several Narratives record the good results attending the organization of female prayer-meetings. Special mention is also made of deepening interest in the STUDY OF THE BIBLE,

a point where there is such abundant room for the increase of care, diligence, and thoughtfulness. In connection with this, a hopeful sign appears in the Narrative of one of our most important Presbyteries, which records the increase of the practice of

EXPOSITORY PREACHING.

Occasional references are likewise found to a matter on which fuller information is greatly to be desired, viz., the sentiment and practice of the Church as regards

INFANT BAPTISM.

The scattered notices, however, furnish no ground for general conclusions. Pastors are aware of much carelessness, and of much latent heresy on this subject; and the Committee recommend, that members of the Presbyteries be urged to report more specifically thereon. No general mention is made of the maintenance of the of prayer for missions. In several instances, the fidelity of the eldership is noted in attending the Church Judicatories, and their efficiency in maintaining prayer-meetings and Sabbath-schools. After all the steps which, by elders' associations and other means, have been taken to impress the claims, and to increase the efficiency of this most important arm of the Church's service, it is surprising that so little is said about it in the Narratives.

YOUTH OF THE CHURCH.

Closely related to the matter of fidelity to the Church's work, and as an important evidence of it, is the care bestowed by the Church on her youth. Every Narrative refers especially to the

and the Reports, almost without exception, testify to increased interest and efficiency in its prosecution. Conversions through its agency are frequently recorded. One church reports, out of forty-seven additions, thirty from the Sabbath-school. As regards Sabbath-school instruction, there are indications of improvement on the former loose and desultory style of teaching. One of these is the teachers' meetings for the study of the Sabbath-school lessons, referred to in a number of the Narratives. Special mention is also made of the use of the Catechism in schools. We are not informed, in any instance, whether the teachers' meetings are carried on by the pastors or by others. Special mention should be made of the Presbytery of Champlain, which has organized a Sabbath-school Institute, under the care of the Presbytery. With the abundant evidences of interest in this work, the evidences are equally abundant of the necessity of some decisive action on the part of the Church, looking toward a more direct and thorough supervision of the Sabbath-school work. The enthusiasm needs to be penetrated with knowledge; and the work opened to the reunited Church in this department is of prodigious magnitude, and of vital importance.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S ASSOCIATIONS.

It is not, however, in the Sabbath-school alone, that the interest in the young develops itself. The Narratives exhibit a growing recognition of the position and capabilities of our youth as workers in the Church. The formation of Young People's Unions in individual churches is several times recorded, the object of which is to enlist the young in promoting the social and religious interests of the Church. They maintain young people's prayer-meetings, in which they acquire the discipline for public religious duties, while they help to promote the spiritual welfare of those of their own age. In some instances their work is such as greatly to aid the pastors. They hold neighborhood prayer-meetings in the houses of the aged and infirm. They read the Scriptures and distribute tracts and papers to the patients in the hospitals. They find out strangers who may be passing the Sabbath at hotels, and send them cards of invitation to the churches. They hold religious services on the Sabbath at the Poor-Houses. The Presbytery of Steuben records a case, in which Sabbath services have been partly sustained, in a destitute neighborhood, by the Young People's Christian Union of the church of Corning, while another instance is given of services held on the wharves by the young men.

CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

The Reports do not indicate a large number of young men preparing for the ministry. In one instance, it is stated that young men are largely inclined to the ministry, and that sixteen are under the care of the Presbytery. In one other, a large increase is noted.

CHRISTIAN ENTERPRISE.

The Reports generally indicate a large amount of enterprise in the direction of building, repairing, and completing churches. The Memorial movement has largely contributed to this result; and, as is well known, a large share of the Memorial Fund has been applied to such objects.

MISSION SCHOOLS AND STATIONS.

The Committee have reason to believe that much more has been done in the organization of Mission schools than appears in the Narratives. The Presbytery of New-Albany reports twelve or fifteen Mission schools in successful operation. The Presbytery of Westchester speaks of activity in parish mission work. One Church in that Presbytery has three mission districts. Another maintains preaching at four points, and, in destitute portions of the Presbytery, preaching is maintained from house to house. The Presbytery of Logansport reports the organization of female missionary societies in two or three churches, and exhibits a most laudable and gratifying care of the mission fields within its bounds. The mission churches are conveniently grouped, and each group is placed under the charge of a member of the Presbytery, whose duty it is to see it supplied, as far as possible, with preaching and ordinances.

BENEFICENCE.

It would seem almost unnecessary to speak of the Church's growth in "the grace of giving," after the announcement of the noble result of the Memorial effort. It is gratifying to know, that the offering of nearly $8,000,000 has not prevented our Church Boards from being liberally sustained, although in some instances, contributions to them have been affected by the Memorial movement. Signs are not wanting, moreover, of the development of a more scriptural and permanent basis of the Church's beneficence.

SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE.

Every thing which looks toward the transfer of the impulse to give from outward pressure to the habitual prompting of the Christian conscience, every thing which goes to make giving an habitual expression of the Christian life, is to be heartily welcomed. Hence it is most gratifying to observe the references of the Narratives to the practice of systematic giving; and the fact that in every case, where the results of its adoption are stated, they indicate a very large increase in the contributions. One large church in the city of Troy has adopted the plan of weekly offerings, it having been already in successful operation in two others. The Presbytery of New-Castle reports its adoption in twelve churches with an increase of forty per cent in its contributions. The Presbytery of Redstone has urged its adoption in all the churches. The Presbytery of Winona reports in one church, which has commenced systematic giving, contributions ten times greater than in any previous year.

SUPPORT OF THE MINISTRY.

In several instances, reference is made to Christian liberality as specially related to the support of the ministry. Some of these references are gratifying; others quite the contrary. Some report increase in their pastors' salaries; others call loudly for the better support of the ministry. One Presbytery has laid down a rule requiring each church to present, at the spring meeting of the Presbytery, a statement of its account with its pastor, or stated supply, for the preceding year. The result was a revelation of considerable negligence. Prompt settlements were found to be the exception; and the Narrative dwells on the low state of religion growing out of this fact, and declares that it shows much talk and little sacrifice.

An important suggestion is contained in an item of the Narrative of the Presbytery of New-Castle, to the effect that the children are being regularly trained to contribute to the Boards of the Church; a practice which, if generally adopted, must conduce to the education of a generation of intelligent as well as liberal givers.

TEMPERANCE.

A number of the Narratives speak of activity and encouragement in the cause of Temperance.

PRESBYTERIAN ASSOCIATIONS.

A gratifying result of the Reunion has appeared in the association of the churches for Christian work. In two of our large cities, we have information of Presbyterian associations or alliances, embracing all the ministers and churches of the denomination. In one case, steps have been taken toward the erection of a hospital; in the other, a Presbyterian Home for aged women is already in successful operation, under the control of a Board, in which all the Presbyterian churches of the city are represented.

FOREIGN PRESBYTERIES.

Two Narratives have been received from foreign fields, viz., from the Presbytery of Siam and from the Synod of China.

The Presbytery of Siam reports no large additions, but gradual diffusion of the knowledge of God and of forgiveness of sins through faith in Jesus Christ. The liberality of the native members of the church at Bangkok, in supporting the widows and orphans of those who have fallen martyrs to the truth, is commended, and general hope and confidence, even under the shadow of recent persecution, are expressed.

The Synod of China reports returns from but three Presbyteries. Within the bounds of these three, 139 members have been added, $644 contributed for benevolent objects; 12 candidates for the ministry are under their care; 157 pupils are enrolled in the 5 mission schools, from which 29 have been added to the churches. The members of one church are reported as having determined to consecrate one tenth of their earnings to the Lord.

OBITUARY RECORD.

In connection with the Reports from the foreign field, a communication was referred to this Committee by the Assembly, with instructions to embody in the Narrative a minute thereon. The Rev. Joseph Owen, D.D., Commissioner to this Assembly from the Presbytery of Allahabad, died at Edinburgh, Scotland, on the 4th of December, 1870, while on his way to attend the Assembly. He was for nearly thirty years an able, faithful, and successful missionary of the Cross, a Christian scholar of rich and varied acquirements, and a translator of the sacred Scriptures. In his protracted services, often amid perils and even violence and blood, he never left his field until, on his way to represent his Presbytery in this Assembly, he was called to his final reward.

The obituary record of the past year is large, and of peculiar and sacred interest. The fathers are fast falling asleep. Out of seventy-six names recorded, four have reached or passed four score years; twenty-two have reached or passed three score and ten; thirteen have reached or passed three score, and fourteen more have reached or passed fifty. Thus, out of seventy-six names, fifty-three have ranged from fifty to eighty-eight years of age, and only one is recorded under the age of thirty.

In this catalogue appear the names of four Moderators of the General Assembly: William Wisner, D.D., Albert Barnes, Thomas H. Skinner, D.D., LL.D., and D. Howe Allen, D.D.

Three of this number were emphatically teachers in Israel, men who are moulding the thought of the Church, and opening to her the Scriptures, none the less, now that they have passed away.

The venerable and beloved Doctor Skinner, who, though dead, yet speaks through the lips of scores of gospel ministers on whom he set the mark of his vigorous intellect and consecrated character, fell asleep in Jesus on the first day of February, 1871, in the city of New-York.

Dr. D. Howe Allen, who wrought his liberal culture and practical ability and tact into the prosperity of Lane Seminary, broken down with his toils, peacefully closed his lingering illness at Granville, Ohio, on the 9th of November, 1870.

And Albert Barnes, who, when the memory of his lofty Christian manliness, his simplicity, his sweetness, his thorough consecration shall have become dim, shall be still living and teaching through the labor and communing of his morning study hours, walked with God until the 24th day of December, 1870, and then he was not, for God took him.

The venerable William Wisner, D.D., another of the four Moderators mentioned, was for many years a banner-bearer of Presbyterianism in Central New-York, as were Dr. Canfield and Dr. Condit. Dr. Wisner died at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on the 7th day of January, 1871, at the advanced age of 88.

The memory of Dr. Sherman B. Canfield is fresh, as a finished scholar, a genial gentleman, a faithful and zealous pastor. On the Sabbath of the 10th of March, 1871, after faithfully preaching the Gospel to a large congregation in the city of St. Louis, he passed at once from his work to his reward.

Dr. Robert W. Condit died at Oswego, N. Y., on the 12th of February, 1871. He was a faithful preacher, a prudent administrator, successful in winning souls, and eminent for the purity and consistency of his Christian character.

ENCOURAGEMENT.

In conclusion, the condition of our beloved Church appears to be such as to encourage at once large hope and vigorous effort. There are evidences that much remains to be done. Wide fields are disclosed, white for the harvest; points on the walls where the Church will do wisely to place viligant watchmen. But there are signs of the clear apprehension of the great principles and methods of Christian work, signs of growing unselfishness and consecration and zeal; strong pulsations of the spirit of aggression, and records of large trophies won for Christ. And standing, therefore, before the record of the past year, the Reunited Church has good cause to lift up its voice and cry, "Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us—unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end."

By order of the General Assembly,

Z. M. HUMPHREY, Moderator.

Of these, Edward S. Scott and Robert Christie were received by dismission from the Seminary at Danville; George H. S. Campbell had taken a course of theology in the new college of the Free Church of Scotland; and D. K. Campbell, Andrew Chambers, Kenneth McKay, David Magill, and David Winters had been pursuing the study of theology in the Institutions which they respectively attended; they were accordingly admitted to an advanced standing in this Seminary.

Six students have passed a fourth year in the Seminary, for whom special studies have been prescribed and regular recitations held throughout the term.

The entire number of students in attendance during the whole, or a part, of this session is one hundred and twenty-four.

Certificates of having finished the whole course of three years have been conferred on thirty-two students, viz.:

James W. Boal,	John H. Lockwood,	Edward H. Robbins,
Duncan Brown,	Archibald McCullagh,	James R. Russel,
Andrew Chambers,	James F. McCurdy,	Thomas J. Sherrard,
Robert Christie,	Donald McGregor,	John G. Smart,
Robert H. Craig,	Donald G. McKay,	Alexander M. Smeallie,
Clement C. Dickey,	Kenneth McKay,	Edwin Smith,
Edwin P. Foresman,	Malcolm McMartin,	James H. Stewart,
Albert C. Fuller,	John Henderson Miller,	Augustus F. Vollmer,
John S. Glendenning,	Alexander B. Nicholson,	Samuel E. Webster,
Samuel M. Hageman,	John Peacock,	Joseph D. Wilson.
Robert J. Laidlaw,	John M. Richmond,

A certificate of graduation was also granted to Samuel L. Gillespie, who continued his studies with this class until a few weeks since, when he left to make his arrangements to go as a missionary to Africa, for which country he has just sailed.

Another member of the class has resolved to go on a foreign mission; and at least one more has the subject under serious consideration. About one half of the class have already received calls to pastoral charges, or are assigned to definite fields of labor.

One student, Herman Bergner, has died during the session. His consistent Christian character, and his conspicuous diligence and fidelity in duty, gave high promise of usefulness in the work of the ministry, and have left a bright example to his former associates.

The condition of the Seminary has, in general, been satisfactory. There has been the usual punctuality in attendance on the lectures and recitations; the customary religious exercises have been observed with apparent interest and devotion; and the conduct of the students, so far as this has been known to the Professors, has, in the main, been correct and exemplary.

In addition to the regular instructions given by the Professors, three courses of extraordinary lectures have been delivered to the students during the present term, the expense of which, as was intimated to the Board, last year, was borne by a generous friend of the Seminary. Dr. McCosh delivered a series of "Lectures to the Times" on "Natural Theology and Apologetics;" Dr. Atwater, on "Assent to Truth, its nature, criteria, and objects;" and Dr. Joseph P. Thompson, of New-York City, on "Egyptology."

Several munificent friends of the Seminary having offered the larger part of the sum necessary for the endowment thereof, the Board of Directors has erected a chair of "Christian Ethics and Apologetics," and has elected the Rev. Charles A. Aiken, D.D., now President of Union College, at Schenectady, N. Y., Professor to fill said chair.

The Board further report that they have re-elected the following persons to fill vacancies occurring in May, 1871, viz.:

Ministers.	Elders.
Henry A. Boardman, D.D.,	Ezra B. Fuller,

During the year, one hundred and twenty-three volumes have been added to the Library, making the total, now, twenty-one thousand eight hundred and four volumes. Of the forty-two obtained by donation, three volumes were presented by the Smithsonian Institute; fourteen volumes by Miss Armstrong, of Trenton, N. J.; two volumes by Miss Jeannette Allen; two volumes by Miss Langstreth, of Philadelphia; and twenty-one volumes, with a few pamphlets, by an unknown friend in London, through Mr. John Boyd, of New-York City.

Two parcels of clothing for students have been received from the Third Church, Newark, N. J.; and one from the Female Charitable Society of Morris Plains. Mr. Halsted, of New-York, has presented a copy of Life at Three Score and Ten, by Rev. Albert Barnes," to each Professor and student of the Seminary.

" The Sutphin Scholarship" has, this year, been founded, through a bequest of twenty-five hundred dollars, by the late William T. Sutphin, of Freehold, N. J.; and " The Elliott Scholarship," through the gift of twenty-five hundred dollars, by the Rev. Jared L. Elliott, of Washington, D. C.

Through the Memorial Committee, the sum of twenty-five hundred and ninety-two dollars has been received from the First Church of Baltimore, Md., to "increase Professors' Salaries."

The recent action of the Board of Directors, establishing in the Seminary " The Professorship of Christian Ethics and Apologetics," and electing the Rev. Charles A. Aiken, D.D., to the new chair, was duly ratified by the Board of Trustees. To endow this Professorship, the sum of thirty-six thousand and seventy dollars has already been raised, and the income, temporarily, of fifteen thousand two hundred and fifty dollars additional has been pledged.

It is the conviction of the friends of this Seminary, that a further endowment of three hundred and twenty thousand dollars is needed, to put this Institution upon a proper footing; and efforts to this end are now in progress, through the co-operation of a joint committee of the Boards of Directors and Trustees.

The Hon. William A. Porter has been elected a member of this Board, to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late Stephen Colwell, Esq.; and the Rev. Matthew Newkirk has been chosen in the place of the Rev. William P. Breed, D.D., resigned, all of Philadelphia.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed, in behalf of the Board,

GEORGE HALE, Secretary.

II. AUBURN SEMINARY.

Annual Report of the Faculty.

The whole number of students in the Seminary, during the year ending May 11th, was thirty-five; of whom nine were in the Senior Class, ten in the Middle Class, and sixteen in the Junior Class.

Rev. James E. Pierce, Professor of the Hebrew Language and Literature, died on the 13th of July, 1870. He had already proved himself an able and successful teacher, and gave promise of uncommon excellence in his Department. He was universally beloved, and died greatly lamented.

Rev. Willis J. Beecher, a graduate of this Seminary, and class-mate of Prof. Pierce, has been unanimously elected to fill his place; and was duly inaugurated as Professor during the exercises of our last Anniversary.

A new fire-proof Library Building is now in the process of erection, to cost over thirty thousand dollars: the gift of Hon. William E. Dodge, of New-York, and of Hon. Edwin B. Morgan, of Aurora, on Cayuga Lake.

Our funds are receiving considerable accessions, and the Seminary bids fair to be gradually established on ample foundations; though the donations of the Memorial offering are not so large as to promise all the aid which the present wants of the Seminary seem to demand.

The past year has been one of exemplary diligence and fidelity on the part of the students. Our Senior Class were all invited to important posts of labor, some time before the close of the year; and there were not enough of them to supply the immediate demand—to say nothing of the Foreign and Western fields.

In behalf of the Faculty,

EDWIN HALL, Temporary Clerk.

The Faculty of the Seminary consist of the following:

Rev. Samuel M. Hopkins, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity.
Rev. Edwin Hall, D.D., Professor of Christian Theology.
Rev. Jonathan B. Condit, D.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. Ezra A. Huntington, D.D., Professor of Biblical Criticism; and Rev. Willis J. Beecher, Professor of Hebrew Language and Literature.

Auburn, May 17, 1871.

Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D., Stated Clerk, General Assembly, Chicago, Ill.:

Dear Sir: At the annual meeting of the Trustees and Commissioners of the Theological Seminary at Auburn," on the 11th instant, it was

Resolved, That a Special Committee be appointed to consider the request of the last General Assembly, that all the Theological Seminaries consent to allow the General Assembly to exercise the veto on the appointment and dismissal of Professors. Rev. Drs. Fowler and Stillman and Hon. John Porter were appointed that committee on the part of the Trustees, who presented the following Report, which was adopted, viz.:

"Resolved, That the Boards of Commissioners and Trustees of Auburn Theological Seminary are anxious to comply with the proposals of the last General Assembly, to submit the election of Professors in this Institution to the concurrence of that body, and that a Joint Committee be appointed to consider whether the proposal of the General Assembly can be complied with without change of the charter of this Seminary; and if, in the judgment of this Committee, such a change in the charter is necessary, the Prudential Committee is hereby authorized to apply to the coming Legislature in the name of these two Boards to make it."

III. WESTERN SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary respectfully present to the General Assembly their Forty-fourth Annual Report.

Since the last Report, the following students have been matriculated:

RESIDENT GRADUATE.

William Tate Gibson, Belfast, Ireland.

MIDDLE CLASS.

Robert R. Gaily, Fredericksburgh, Ohio.
William H. Park, Martin's Ferry, Ohio; Princeton, 1869.

JUNIOR CLASS.

Thomas Rush Alexander, a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College.
Cornelius Asbury.

Anthony George Baker,	"	St. Cœur (Germany) College.
Frank Boyle,	"	La Fayette College.
William Brainerd Carr,	"	Jefferson College.
James S. Caruthers,	"	Vermilion College.
Neville B. Craig Comingo,	"	Washington and Jefferson College.

William Niccolls Sloan,	"	Vermilion College.
Samuel Stevenson,	"	Vermilion College.
Winfield Scott Stites,	"	Princeton College.
Francis Edwin Thompson,	"	Westminster College.

William H. Park was received by certificate from the Seminary at Princeton. He pursued his studies a few weeks only when he was compelled by failing health to go home, when he died suddenly from hemorrhage of the lungs, January 11th, 1871. He was a young man of extraordinarily high promise.

The health of the students has been good, and their attendance on class duties and their attention to study have been exceptionably good. The whole number in attendance during the term has been seventy-four (74), distributed as follows: Resident Graduate, 1; Senior Class, 25; Middle Class, 23; Junior Class, 25.

The following have completed the full course, passed the final examinations, and received diplomas:

Bingham Anderson,	Samuel S. Gilson,	William Reed Moore,
Richard Arthur,	Greer McIlvaine Kerr,	James Dickson Shanks,
Maxwell N. Cornelius,	William Alex. McCarrell,	William P. Shrom,
Theodore Crowl,	Stephen O. B. McCurdy,	George B. Smith,
William H. Filson,	John Keely McKallip,	Charles K. Smoyer,
David Brainerd Fleming,	Rob Roy McG. McNulty,	William Grove Stewart,
McNary Forsyth,	Dallas Valentine Mays,	Lesko Triest.
George A. Funkhouser,

Certificates were also given to Henry James Brown, Beriah C. Montgomery, and David Ayres Newell, who had completed the course of studies, but who had been only two terms in connection with the Seminary.

At a meeting of the Board, October 14th, 1870, it was resolved, "That we accept the powers and authority offered by the action of the General Assembly to the Theological Seminaries now under the control of the General Assembly; as contained in the second resolution of the Report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, recorded on p. 63, of the Minutes of 1870."

On the 29th of November, 1870, the Board unanimously elected Rev. Frank F. Ellinwood, D.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric, Church Government, and Pastoral Theology. Notice of the acceptance of this appointment was communicated, by Dr. Ellinwood, to the President of the Board, in a letter bearing date December 24th, 1870. On the 13th of March, 1871, the Board of Foreign Missions elected Dr. Ellinwood one of their Secretaries, and at once communicated information of this proceeding to the President of this Board.

At a meeting of the Board, April 19th, a letter to the President, Rev. C. C. Beatty, D.D., from Dr. Ellinwood was read, in which, after referring to the correspondence which had taken place between members of the Board and himself, and the difficulties he had encountered in coming to a determination, he said:

"As matters now stand, I should feel unsettled and ill at ease were I to undertake the Professorship. My plans would be materially weakened by the known weight of sentiment against me, and the prediction often repeated, that the arrangement would not long continue unmolested. If, therefore, as you and others at the Seminary have often indicated, my convictions and feelings will have weight in your decision, I am constrained to say in all candor, that, in view of present aspects of the case, I think our mutual expectations ought to yield to what seem to be clear Providential indications of duty."

This clearly expressed what, in view of the whole matter, was the preference of Dr. Ellinwood. Therefore, the following paper was adopted:

1. Resolved, That the Board approve of the action of the Directors at an informal meeting held March 27th, by which they declined to release our claim to the Professor elect, Rev. F. F. Ellinwood, D.D.

2. Resolved, That developments, since March 27th, painfully press upon us the necessity of giving up our long cherished and duly authorized hope, of seeing Dr. Ellinwood occupy a Professor's chair in the Western Theological Seminary; and that we yield, under the conviction that he is himself inclined to accept the important position of Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, to which, after his acceptance of our call, he was elected.

3. Resolved, That, while we thus yield, we still highly appreciate the Christian spirit and known abilities of Dr. Ellinwood, and wish for him the most abundant success with the Board in which he is to be an honored member.

On April 20th, the Board elected to the chair, made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Ellinwood, Rev. James Eells, D.D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Cleveland, Ohio. But, under date of April 26th, 1871, Dr. Eells, to the great regret of the Board, gave notice of his inability to accept, because of his peculiar relations to his pastoral charge.

With profound sorrow, the Board make mention of the death of their Vice-President, Rev. Samuel McFarren, D.D., on the 18th day of August, 1870, in the seventy-fourth year of his age.

PROFESSORS OF THE SEMINARY.

IV. LANE SEMINARY.

The General Assembly, in May, 1870, at Philadelphia, proposed a plan for unifying all the Theological Seminaries of the Presbyterian Church as to Ecclesiastical supervision. (See Assembly's Minutes, pp. 63, 64.) The Board of Trustees of Lane Seminary most cordially adopted this Plan, August 23d, 1870, by the following action:

"Every election of a Professor in this Institution shall be reported to the next General Assembly; and, if the said Assembly shall by vote express its disapprobation of the election, the Professorship in question shall be ipso facto vacant from and after such vote of the General Assembly, it being understood, that, in such case, it is not the pleasure of this Board that such Professor should continue in office."

The following students have been in attendance during the past year:

The Faculty report, "fidelity and diligence on the part of the students generally, and that most of the young men have made good progress in the knowledge of those great themes claiming their attention."

An examination of three days' continuance, at the close of the term, was conducted by the Professors and Examiners appointed from various Presbyteries for that purpose, on all the Theological course. The Report of the Committee of Examiners, submitted to the Board, is as follows:

"The Board of Examiners, representing the Presbyteries of Cleveland, Zanesville, Dayton, Lima, Whitewater, Indianapolis, and Crawfordsville, having attended the examinations, would respectfully report:

"1. The classes show, that they have pursued faithfully the course of study and lectures prescribed by the Institution.

"2. A close examination, continued over four days, and going minutely into all the subjects considered, reveals, that the young men have given diligent attention to their studies, and have made a creditable attainment in the several subjects of the course.

"3. They evince a fair degree of independent inquiry and investigation, and an intelligent understanding of the teachings of the Bible according to the standards of the Church.

"4. We desire, also, to express our interest and gratification in the evident faithfulness and capacity manifested by the several Professors in their various departments, and congratulating the friends of the Seminary, on the addition, to the corps of Professors, of the Rev. Dr. Thomas, a man well approved in the churches for his ability and fidelity in the chair of instruction, we take occasion to commend this school of the prophets to the interest, the co-operation, and the prayers of the Presbyterian Church of the central valley of the United States, in which, in the providence of God, it is located.

"J. P. Safford, Chairman.

"Cincinnati, May 9th, 1871."

The following young gentlemen, having completed their full course of instruction, were granted diplomas:

Edmund R. Brown,	Frank P. Lutz,
John M. Jenkins,	Henry N. Payne,
William J. Jones,	Austin L. Thomson,
Josiah P. Landis,	Horatio H. Wells.

The following is the list of Professors for the coming year:

Rev. Henry Smith, D.D., Professor of Biblical Literature and Sacred Rhetoric.
Rev. Henry A. Nelson, D.D., Professor of Systematic and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. Edward D. Morris, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity.
Rev. Llewellyn J. Evans, Professor of Hebrew Exegesis.
Rev. Thomas E. Thomas, D.D., Professor (elect) of Greek Exegesis.

William H. Muzzy, M.D., Lecturer on Hygiene.
Professor Llewellyn J. Evans, Librarian.

The Rev. D. Howe Allen, who had labored for so many years in the service of the Seminary, but for some years had been laid aside from active duty, and sustained the relation of Emeritus Professor of Theology, ceased from all his earthly work, November 9th, 1870, and entered into his rest.

The Board are happy to announce the unanimous election of the Rev. Thomas E. Thomas, D.D., to the chair of New Testament Exegesis, and of his acceptance of the same. He brings to this chair, not only ripe scholarship, but long and successful experience, both as a teacher of youth and a pastor; large, practical common sense, and general acquaintance with the churches, especially in this field, which cannot fail to secure their confidence, and gather their sympathies around the Seminary. That his appointment will meet with the cordial approbation of the General Assembly, we cannot doubt.

The following is the Board of Trustees for the Seminary:

Rev. George M. Maxwell, President.
Franklin V. Chamberlain, }
Anthony H. Hinkle, } Vice-Presidents.
James Taylor, M.D., }
Rev. William Van Vleck, Corresponding Secretary.
Rev. Oscar A. Hills, Recording Secretary.
Rev. Joseph G. Monfort, D.D., Treasurer.

Rev. Benjamin Graves,	Troy, Ohio.
Rev. Robert L. Stanton, D.D.,	Oxford, Ohio.
Rev. Willis Lord, D.D.,	Wooster, Ohio.
Rev. Israel W. Andrews, D.D.,	Marietta, Ohio.
Rev. Joseph F. Tuttle, D.D.,	Crawfordsville, Ind.
Mr. Ezekiel Ross,	Cincinnati, Ohio.
Edward D. Mansfield, LL.D.,	Morrow, Ohio.
Rev. John M. Boal,	Urbana, Ohio.
Rev. Daniel Rice, D.D.,	La Fayette, Ind.
Rev. Addison Kingsbury, D.D.,	Zanesville, Ohio.
Rev. E. Perkins Pratt, D.D.,	Portsmouth, Ohio.
Mr. Franklin Chamberlain,	Cincinnati, Ohio.
Rev. William M. Cheever,	Cincinnati, Ohio.
Mr. Preserved Smith,	Dayton, Ohio.
Hon. C. W. Potwin,	Zanesville, Ohio.
Hon. Stanley Matthews,	Glendale, Ohio.
Rev. George C. Heckman, D.D.,	Hanover, Ind.
Mr. W. W. Scarborough,	Cincinnati, Ohio.
Mr. John Shillito,	Cincinnati, Ohio.

An abstract of the Treasurer's Report, exhibiting the financial condition of the Seminary, is herewith submitted to the Assembly, as a part of this Report.

The Library contains about 12,000 volumes, selected with special reference to the wants of the students in Theology. Only a few books have been added by purchase the past year. But the Librarian is able to report such an increase in the Library fund as will secure an income of $550 to be devoted to that purpose. A few books have been donated: Hawker's works, 10 volumes, by Rev. Robert Sutton, Cincinnati. Sprague's Annals of the American Pulpit, by Mrs. M. R. Mitchell, Philadelphia. Kent's Commentaries on American Law, by Mrs. J. Bergoyne.

KEMPER HALL.

The main building, or dormitory, now called "Kemper Hall," in honor of the family who gave the land to the Seminary, has been thoroughly reconstructed outside and in. The ladies of the churches co-operating with the Seminary have comfortably furnished the rooms; thus enlisting their prayers and sympathies in its behalf, and causing them to feel a deeper interest in the sons of the Church, who are preparing for their grand life-work of preaching the Gospel. The churches are beginning to feel that it is their Institution, and, we believe, they intend to give it their affections, their money, and their sons; and to place it on the widest possible basis of usefulness, as one of Christ's Training Schools for the Gospel ministry. We are also happy to report a growing interest in the Seminary, on the part of our substantial business men, as evinced in their liberal benefactions, and thoughtful care for its welfare.

What the Seminary needs now, more than any thing else, is a large increase of earnest consecrated young men within its walls, devoting themselves to preparation for the work of the Gospel ministry. The prospect is favorable for a larger Junior class at the opening of the next term, than we have had for many years.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND.

The General Assembly will see, from the Report of the Treasurer, that the Seminary has been quite successful in enlarging its Scholarship Fund, having now over $25,000 devoted to that purpose. One gentleman, Mr. Preserved Smith, of Dayton, O., giving $12,000 of the amount.

The whole expense, per year, to the student, varies from $100 to $130. To meet this, the sum of $150 per annum is appropriated by the Committee on Ministerial Education, to each student whose circumstances require it. In special cases, some additional assistance is given.

The anniversary occurs on the 2d Thursday of May, the public examinations beginning on the Friday preceding.

The prospects of the Seminary—both as to endowment and students—are more hopeful than they have been for many previous years. The harmonious union of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church, and the election of several Trustees and one Professor from what was called the "O. S." branch, it is confidently hoped, will greatly increase the interest of the churches, throughout this entire field, in this School of the Prophets.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

E. P. PRATT,
W. M. CHEEVER,
JOHN M. BOAL, } Committee.

3. Students.

The Annual Catalogue, published in December, 1870, reports:

Resident licentiates,	3
Senior class,	37
Middle class,	36
In all,	113

Of these, 6 joined the Senior class from other Seminaries, and 6 the Middle class. Of the 110 members of the three classes, 73 were Presbyterians; 15, Congregationalists; 8, Reformed; 5, Methodists; 4, Episcopalians; 3, Lutherans; 2, Seventh Day Baptists. Of the 32 who graduated in May, 10 have devoted themselves to missionary service in foreign lands. These are the names of the graduating class:

Gustav Alexy,
Walter H. Ayers,
Henry C. Bradbury,
J. De Hart Bruen,
William B. Cary,
Theodore F. Chambers,
Edward P. Clark,
William J. Cumming,
Silas A. Davenport,
John Ogden Gordon,

Frank A. Wood,
John H. Worcester, Jr.

4. Lectures.

In addition to the regular exercises of the Seminary, ten lectures, which have since been published, were delivered by President James McCosh, D.D., LL.D., of Princeton, on the Ely Foundation; and two lectures on Health were delivered by Dr. Willard Parker, of New-York, on a foundation established by himself.

5. Library.

The library of the Seminary, one of the most valuable theological libraries in the country, now contains more than thirty thousand volumes; more than three thousand having been added during the last three years, mainly through the liberality of Mr. Hanson K. Corning, one of the Directors, and Mr. David H. McAlpin, of New-York City.

6. Finances.

The permanent funds, yielding income for professors' salaries, and other current expenses, now amount to $311,000; besides a scholarship fund of $50,000. The three buildings owned by the Seminary may be worth about $50,000. Nearly $350,000 have been subscribed for the purchase of 65 lots on Avenue St. Nicholas, and the erection of new buildings soon to be undertaken.

ROSWELL D. HITCHCOCK, Secretary of the Faculty.

New-York, May 18th, 1871.

VI. DANVILLE SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary, located at Danville, Ky., respectfully submit to the General Assembly their Eighteenth Annual Report, as follows:

Soon after the adjournment of the last General Assembly, and in accordance with a statement made in our last Annual Report, a partial preliminary course of instruction was commenced in the Seminary, by Professor Yerkes, and continued until the opening of the regular term in the fall. Seven students attended this course of instruction.

At the adjourned meeting of the Assembly, held in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., in November, 1869, the Board was "instructed to establish a permanent term for the exercises of the Seminary, beginning in the month of April, or May, so as to conform, as nearly as possible, their sessions to those of the other Seminaries of the Church." The permanent term, accordingly, as we reported last year, was ordered to begin hereafter on the first Thursday of September, and to close the last Thursday of April; and, on the first Thursday of September last, the regular session was opened with a full Faculty on the ground. The following six students have been connected with the Institution during the session:

S. S. Bergen,	a graduate of	Hanover College.
Nelson Carr,	" "	Miami University.
William W. Eastman,	" "	Hanover College.
John McCurdy Robinson,	" "	Miami University.
Homer Sheeley,	" "	" "
J. W. Talbot,	" "	Hanover College.

Of these, with the exception of Mr. William W. Eastman, all commenced their theological studies at the opening of the session now closing. Mr. Eastman was a member of this Seminary during the summer session of 1869, and also attended the partial course of last summer.

It gives the Board great pleasure to report, that the Rev. George D. Archibald, D.D., elected by the last Assembly to the chair of Pastoral Theology and Church Government, and the Rev. Samuel H. McMullin, elected to the chair of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History, have both accepted the Professorships to which they were elected, and have been regularly discharging the duties thereof since last September.

The following is the action of this Board in reference to the changes proposed by the General Assembly:

"The Board of Directors have maturely considered the recommendations of the last General Assembly in regard to changes in the plan of the Theological Seminaries. (See Minutes of Assembly, 1870, p. 62–66.)

"This Board cordially approve of the changes therein proposed, and will be ready, at the earliest suitable time, to accept the new plan of organization indicated in the second resolution of the Assembly, on p. 63 of the Minutes of the Assembly. The Board earnestly desire to bring the Seminary into full accord with the spirit and aim and working-plans of the Presbyterian Church. But the Board find that certain legal questions of controlling force, involving the funds of the Seminary, may possibly be affected by the proposed changes; wherefore, the Board adopt the resolutions that follow:

"1. The General Assembly are respectfully requested to grant us further time for the consideration of the subject, and the Assembly are asked to appoint Directors, according to the present plan, for the year ensuing.

"2. Edward P. Humphrey, D.D., John G. Barrett, and L. L. Warren are appointed a Committee of this Board, to investigate this whole subject, to take legal advice, and to report in writing at the next annual meeting of the Board. If, in their judgment, the proposed changes in the plan of the Seminary can be made without prejudice to our legal rights, in that case the Committee shall report, in detail, and in writing, such alterations in the 'plan of the Seminary,' as are necessary to carry into effect the principles now proposed by the Assembly in relation to the Seminaries.

"3. This minute shall be laid before the Board of Trustees of the Seminary, with a request that they will appoint a committee, to act with our committee on this subject.

"4. This minute shall be incorporated in our Annual Report to the General Assembly, and John G. Barrett, Esq., is requested to call the attention of the Assembly's Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries to this minute, with such explanations as may be needful."

We would report further, that the term of office of the following members of the Board of Directors expires with the present sessions of the General Assembly, viz.:

Ministers.	Elders.
William C. Condit,	D. J. Curry,
John F. Coons,	W. H. Kinnard,
James T. Lapsley,	Buford N. Penick,
Alexander Rankin,	James McCampbell,
L. B. W. Shryock,	Isaac W. Scott.

Also that Rev. Edward H. Camp, of the class of 1872, and Rev. Robert L. Stanton, D.D., of the class of 1873, have resigned, and their resignations been accepted.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

J. C. MAXWELL, Vice-President.

J. C. Randolph, Secretary of the Board.

Danville, Ky., April 26th, 1871.

VII. SEMINARY OF THE NORTH-WEST.

1. Annual Report of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the North-West report to the General Assembly, to meet in Chicago, May, 1871, that the Institution under their care has completed its Twelfth Annual Session, since its removal from New-Albany to Chicago, and Fortieth since its original opening in South-Hanover, Ind., in circumstances affording evidences of divine favor, and tokens of present prosperity and future progress.

Thirty-eight young men have been in attendance during the term closing April 6th, 1871. Of these, one was a resident Licentiate; and twenty-one were received as new students, as follows:

Samuel B. Alderson,	from	Blackburn University, Ill.
William M. Bartholomew,	"	the College of New-Jersey.
George Benagh,	"	Queen's College, Belfast, Ireland.
William F. Cellar,	"	Vermilion Institute, Ohio.
Donald Fletcher,	"	Knox College, Toronto, Can.
John Gillis,	"	Monmouth College, Ill.
Francis M. Hickock,	"	the State Institute of the Blind, Ind.
Charles M. Howe,	"	Dartmouth College, N. H.
John C. Hill,	"	Toronto University, Can.
William S. Holt,	"	Ripon College, Wis.
Robert Mackenzie,	"	Chicago University, Ill.
Samuel L. McAfee,	"	Pardee College, Mo.
Horatio B. McBride,	"	Monmouth College, Ill.
John R. Reedy,	"	Beloit College, Wis.
Edwin F. Robb,	"	Cornell University, N. Y.
James P. Schell,	"	the State University, Iowa.
Wilhelm Schorsch,	"	Mission School, Wis.
George R. Smith,	"	Hamilton College, N. Y.
J. Reed Stuart,	"	Monmouth College, Ill.
Robert R. Sutherland,	"	Knox College, Toronto, Can
James K. Wilson,	"	the College of New-Jersey.

The following members of the Senior Class, having completed the prescribed Course, and borne satisfactory examinations, have received the usual certificate of graduation, viz.: Messrs. Alexander M. Darley, Leland M. Gilleland, Charles M. Howe, Samuel L. McAfee, W. C. McDougal, and Charles B. Ogilvie. Also Messrs. Samuel H. Murphy and J. C. De Bruyn Kops, having well sustained all the examinations except the last, from which they were absent in consequence of their appointment as missionaries to Africa, have received certificates of graduation.

The health both of the Faculty and the students has been almost uninterrupted during the year. The students have made commendable progress in their studies; and the session has been marked by more than ordinary harmony, religious interest and activity, and general improvement. It should be said, also, that several of the students have devoted themselves earnestly and successfully to Christian work, especially in vacation.

The Librarian reports an addition to the Library of 163 bound volumes, besides 62 volumes of unbound Reviews.

The Report of the Treasurer, in which the details of the financial condition of the Seminary will be found, show that the

Income during the year was, ...	$19,489 21

The Disbursements during the year have been as follows:

Professors' Salaries, including arrearages to Rev. Drs. Lord and Halsey, ...	$10,923 96
Scholarship Fund, ...	970 00
Corning Library, ...	191 20

Contingent account,	$2,345 53
Bills receivable, loans made,	4,500 00
	$18,930 69
Balance on hand,	558 52
The Permanent Funds amount to,	$106,567 50
Also notes for general purposes without interest, generally one fifth payable each year,	28,843 00
The indebtedness of the Seminary at the meeting of the Board in April, 1871, was estimated at,	$2,166 55
The indebtedness July 14th, 1870, having been,	$7,986 99

It appears from the Report of the Financial Agent, that he has collected during the year:

Cash,	$13,461 85
Notes,	11,643 00

The cash collections include $3230 received from sale of property in New-Albany.

Since the meeting of the Board of Directors, in April, additional collections and subscriptions have been obtained, as follows: Cash, $2823.50; which more than extinguishes the indebtedness above reported; also notes to the amount of $1115.

The Institution greatly needs more accommodation for students, which would be provided by the completion of the Seminary building, according to the original plan. Also a building is urgently needed for the Library.

At the last meeting of the Board of Directors, the Thornton A. Mills Scholarship was founded, having been provided for by the generous donation of Rev. Robert H. Lilly, of Champaign, Ill. The benefit of this Scholarship will be, henceforth, available to the eldest needy student of the Middle Class in the Seminary.

In regard to the relations of the Seminary to the General Assembly, the Board finding that there are legal points involved in this question which require careful investigation, referred the whole matter to a Committee, with instructions to report to the Directors at their next annual meeting in April, 1872.

There is a vacancy in the Class of Directors elected by the Assembly of 1870, M. P. Ayres, Esq., who was then chosen, being ineligible, inasmuch as he is not a Ruling Elder.

The term of office of the following members of the Board expires with the sessions of the Assembly to be held in May, 1871:

Ministers.	Elders.
Robert G. Thompson,	Anson P. Waterman,
William W. Harsha,	N. C. Thompson,
Robert C. Matthews, D.D.,	William G. Holmes,
Henry M. Robertson,	James L. Lamb,
David C. Marquis,	Horatio G. Spafford.

The remaining Directors are:

The Class going out in 1872:

John G. Bergen, D.D.,	Charles Crosby,
Thomas H. Skinner, D.D.,	John Coates,
Edwin B. Raffensperger,	Thomas Foster,
Ebenezer Erskine, D.D.,	T. S. Hening,
Josiah Milligan,	Warren Norton.

The Class going out in 1873:

John M. Buchanan, D.D.,	Charles A Spring,
James D. Mason,	S. M. Moore,
Robert Patterson, D.D.,	John C. Grier.
Samuel M. Anderson, D.D.,	Charles E. Vanderberg,
Robert Beer,	Jesse L. Williams.

The Class going out in 1874:

Robert W. Patterson, D.D.,	Jacob S. Farrand,
William S. Curtis, D.D.,
George C. Noyes,	H. E. Seelye,
Llewellyn Pratt,	Isaac Scarritt,
Lewis H. Reid,	Samuel Harvey.

Since the last meeting of the Assembly, Roswell B. Mason, Samuel Howe, H. A. Hurlbut, Henry G. Miller, Robert Reid, and George C. Smith, have resigned their offices as Trustees; and their places have been filled by the appointment of V. A. Turpin, S. P. Hedges, John Forsyth, G. F. Bissell, James B. Waller, James Otis, and Henry W. King, who, together with Cyrus H. McCormick and John Crighton, constitute the present Board of Trustees.

The Professorships and Incumbents are as follows:

—— ——, McCormick Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology.

Rev. Leroy J. Halsey, D.D., Professor of Pastoral and Historical Theology and Church Government.

Rev. Charles Elliott, D.D., Professor of Biblical Literature and Exegesis.

Rev. William M. Blackburn, D.D., Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.

The Professorship of Didactic and Polemic Theology is still vacant, the Rev. Dr. Prentiss having declined to accept the appointment of the last General Assembly, notwithstanding the earnest efforts of the Board and the Executive Committee to procure his acceptance. The Board hereby request the Assembly, about to convene, to fill this very important vacancy. The duties of the chair have been divided among the Professors now in the Seminary, during the past year; and it has been necessary, to enable them to discharge their extra service, to employ a Tutor in Hebrew.

It is respectfully suggested that as soon as practicable the duties of the Professorship of Biblical Literature be divided, so as to provide for a separate chair for instruction in the Literature of the Old Testament. It is hoped that liberal friends of the Institution may be found to endow such a chair at no distant day.

The Scholarships are:

1. Bergen Scholarship, founded by Rev. John G. Bergen, D.D., of Springfield, Ill.
2. Powers Scholarship, founded by Orlando Powers, Esq., Decatur, Ill.
3. Bruen Scholarship, founded by Mr. Alexander M. Bruen, of White Plains, N. Y.
4. Mason Scholarship, founded by Hon. Roswell B. Mason, of Chicago, Ill.
5. Spafford Scholarship, founded by Horatio G. Spafford, Esq., of Chicago.
6. Proctor Scholarship, founded by William Proctor, Esq., of Lewistown, Ill.
7 and 8. Lilly Scholarship, founded by Rev. John Lilly. The Thornton A. Mills Scholarship being already available; the Second Scholarship depending upon lands at present unproductive.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board of Directors,

S. M. MOORE, Chairman, Executive Committee.

Chicago, May 8th, 1871.

Scholarship note of J. G. Bergen, each yielding $150 per year,	2,000 00
" " O. Powers, each yielding $150 per year,	2,000 00
Cash,	83 00
	$102,133 00

Besides the foregoing, there are 30 Shares of Erie R.R. Stock, nominal value $3000, belonging to the Endowment Fund, and a Scrip dividend of $210, belonging to Endowment Income, when realized.

There are also in the hands of the Agent, which have never come into the possession of the Treasurer, and are not entered on his books, a large number of notes, belonging to Endowment Fund, Alumni Scholarship Fund, and Contingent Account, amounting in the aggregate to about $30,000, due and falling due within the next five years. Of these notes, about $3500 have been obtained by the Agent since April 1st.

During the months of April, May, and June, the Agent, Rev. William B. Truax, reports Cash Collections, amounting to $1220.70, of which $74.50 in Original Collections, and $972 on Notes, have been credited to Contingent account,	$1,046 50

" Endowment Income,	12 00
" Alumni Scholarship Income,	8 20
" " " Fund,	35 00
" Sunday-School Scholarship,	74 00
Special to furnish Reading-Room,	45 00
	$1,220 70

He has disposed of this amount, thus:

Traveling expenses, postage and revenue Stamps, Stationery, etc.,	$86 39
Salary for three months,	625 00
Paid Treasurer,	562 00
Balance due him, April 1st, 1870,	201 96
	1,475 35
Balance due him, July 1st, 1870,	254 65
	$1,220 70

Since the 1st of July, the Agent has paid to the Treasurer $160, which is not included in the foregoing Statement, but is included in the Statement of Cash receipts by the Treasurer, and is to the Credit of the Agent.

The Board of Trustees have not thought it for the best interests of the Seminary, to give, to any of the Creditors, Notes for amounts due them. They have, however, to relieve the urgent necessities of Dr. Lord, loaned to him out of funds on hand, available for investment, the sum of $1000, taking his note therefor, to be repaid when the Seminary shall be in funds to meet the indebtedness due him.

The following estimate will show very nearly the present indebtedness of the Seminary, putting the Salary of the Professors to the 1st August:

Rev. Dr. Lord,	$4,000 00
" " Halsey,	1,450 00
" " Elliott,	830 00
" " Blackburn,	500 00
Miss Williamson, Matron,	100 00
Rev. Dr. Backus, Mr. McCord, Ely Burnham and Smith, expenses of Assembly Committee,	512 76
Rev. Dr. Musgrave's bill not rendered,
Powers Scholarship,	114 10

Proctor "	187 50
Mason "	201 46
Alumni Scholarship Fund,	83 00
Corning Library,	202 60
Reading-Room Special Fund,	45 00
William B. Truax,	414 65
	$8,783 92
Less Cash on hand,	796 93
	$7,986 99

The interest on invested funds has been promptly paid, with a single exception. In this case, it is probable a foreclosure may be necessary, the first in the history of the Seminary. Respectfully submitted, Chicago, July 14th, 1870. SAMUEL HOWE, Treasurer.

JAMES OTIS, Treasurer.

VIII. GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL, NEWARK, N. J.

Annual Report of the Directors.

The Board of Directors of the German Theological School respectfully present their Annual Report.

1. For the Accommodation of Students, the small building used as a dormitory was, at the end of last year, quite inadequate to our needs. After several months of consultation, the Board decided upon a temporary enlargement. They, therefore, purchased a lot directly opposite the building occupied last year, and removed the building for a rear portion of a new and larger front dormitory. The whole building is constructed as a dwelling-house, so that its sale may be assured if the Board may think best to secure another site or a permanent location. The cost of the lot was $900, and the cost of the house, according to specifications, is $1950. The total of $2850 is to be paid for—$1207.19 having been already paid—from the memorial Endowment Fund. The saving of rent, and the increase of value in the property, make this a judicious investment. The building will now accommodate comfortably fourteen students, and the attic may be prepared for four students more. The study and recitation-room is still provided by the First German Presbyterian Church of Newark, and board for the students is still provided at a reasonable price in the family of the 'House-Father.'

For a Permanent location of the school, offers of land, or of land and buildings, for sale on favorable terms, or as a gift, have been made to the Board from Irvington, Myersville, Roseville, and Bloomfield. The consideration of a permanent site the Board have been obliged to postpone until one or two points in the future policy of the Institution shall have become settled, and the endowment shall have made further progress.

2. The Faculty of Instruction has remained as it was last year, Rev. George C. Seibert, Ph.D., and Rev. Johann U. Guenther, in the German department, giving the principal instruction, and Rev. Dr. Fewsmith and Rev. Dr. Charles A. Smith each giving instruction in one general recitation a week.

3. The Curriculum of Study has not as yet been divided into a regular division of collegiate years. Neither the stage of advancement in which our students are, nor their numbers, nor our force of instructors permit as yet such a formal division.

4. The Rules of Government for the students, prepared by the house-father, and approved by the Board last year, have guided the daily and weekly order of the students' time.

5. The Number of Students now in attendance is eleven. We have, therefore, made an increase of only two students. As none of the students could be transferred from our over-crowded house of last year, until January, the Board did not venture to offer a word of inducement to pious young Germans to come. Other young men have applied for admission, whose application has been declined. Although our number is not large, we have the satisfaction of knowing that we have a larger beginning in students than had our venerable Seminary at Princeton. At the organization at Princeton, in August, 1812, the Seminary then had three students; we had four students at our organization; at the end of the first year at Princeton, in May, 1813, the Seminary had eight students; we had eleven at the end of the first year.

The following students entered the first year: George Loock, Frederick B. Hanle, Lewis Erb, Adolph A. E. A. Wanderer, Henry Weber, Frederick Bauman, William A. Nordt, Julius Woolff, August Stange.

August Herman Hager and Frederick Ernst Voeglin entered the second year.

Nine of these students are entirely supported by our Institution, both in their clothing and board. Two of them have clothing provided for them, but are otherwise supported by us. One of them has little or no support from us.

The beginning of the year of study has been fixed on the first Monday of September. Three vacations have been appointed, one during the Christmas holidays, the second in the spring of the year, and the third during the month of August.

From the reports of the instructors, we may obtain some idea of the students and their studies the past year:

Dr. Seibert reports, that he has taught two hours each day, for five days in each week; that four days have been occupied with the History of the Sacred Literature of the Old Testament, and Hebrew Exegesis; and that one day has been occupied with Hebrew grammar, German literature, and translations from English into German.

In this department of Sacred Literature, the principal topics have been the History of the language and dialects of the Old Testament, manuscripts and divisions of the sacred text, Origin and Development of the Old Testament literature, Inspiration of the Scriptures, and Canon of the Old Testament. Since Christmas, the students have had in their hands 'Barrow's Companion of the Bible,' passages of which they have translated into German during the progress of his lectures.

In Hebrew Exegesis, the students have been occupied with the Book of Psalms.

As teacher and as "house-father," Rev. Mr. Guenther reports:

"We have finished in Biblical History the Old Testament, and commenced the New Testament after Kurz. Connected with this study has been the exegesis of the Sermon on the Mount, and the Lord's Prayer. On Wednesdays, the students have declamation, but with this change from last year, that they have not been required to bring the sermons which they heard the Sunday before, but to form sermons from the lectures which they have heard. We have added this year translations from English into German. The students bring this translation written in German."

At family devotions, the Bible has been read by the students, as last year, first in German, then in English.

"Five of the students are already useful in public worship. They conduct a meeting in the Roseville Sunday-school for the Germans. They have conducted worship for three fourths of the year for the Second German Presbyterian Church, in the absence of a pastor. They have done the same service for Dr. Seibert when he was sick, and in my church with acceptance. They all take part in the prayer-meetings of the different churches, and are teachers in the Sabbath-schools. In their leisure time they visit families, and distribute newspapers and tracts, but for this work they have not found so much time as they did last year."

Dr. Fewsmith reports: "I have met the students for recitation once each week. We have been studying the life of St. Paul, using as our text-book, A Year with St. Paul. The young men have been punctual in their attendance, and have shown, in the main, commendable diligence and progress. We have also had occasional exercises in reading."

Dr. Charles A. Smith reports: "With the aid of a more advanced text-book than the one used last year, we have reviewed natural philosophy, and the minds of the students have been stimulated and strengthened by the study. I hoped to begin another study, chemistry or physiology." "Fifty dollars' worth of apparatus would have been of great advantage." "My intercourse with these young men has convinced me that they need more training in English studies. They are nearly all poor readers, and have little facility in expressing their thoughts in English. Some have made considerable improvement in composition; others need thorough drilling in connection with a course of English reading. Just enough has been done in my department to show how much needs to be done."

6. In Providing Funds for the support of the Institution, the Board have thought it wise to pursue the plan originally adopted. That plan was to work from our own warm interest as a centre outward in the widening circles of the whole Presbyterian Church.

The Board, shortly after the adjournment of the General Assembly, resolved to attempt a Memorial Endowment Fund of $50,000 from our own Presbytery and the Presbyteries adjacent. They considered that, from the cheerful responses rendered last year to this object, our own Presbytery would be responsible for about $20,000 or $21,000 of the fund. And they applied to the Presbyteries of Morris and Orange, of Elizabeth, and of Jersey City, to co-operate with us in raising the remaining $30,000. The Presbyteries of Morris and Orange, and of Elizabeth, appointed each a committee to co-operate with our own. The Presbytery of Jersey City responded that they received the subject with favor on account of the large German population within their boundaries, and assured us of aid in our current expenses if their large presbyterial mission-work should prevent a memorial contribution to this object. Two strong churches in the Presbyteries of Morris and Orange have assigned to us definite and generous sums, and we have the assurance from other strong churches that their part will not be wanting, sooner or later, to this endowment. We think there is reason to expect that the work begun in the Presbytery of Morris and Orange will yield us, before it is relinquished, their full share of the fund. The Presbytery of Elizabeth has manifested less interest; but while we are sorry to believe they are likely to fail in co-operation this year, we hope for that co-operation in the future.

The total amount of the Memorial Endowment Fund now in the treasury is $8579 42. The amount additional, actually subscribed, so far reported, is $2710.58.

From assurances given to the Memorial Committee of the Board, we have strong confidence that the contributions of our Presbytery will produce nearly or quite the sum of $20,000. And the Board are encouraged to believe that we have gained an impulse in these collections, which, with proper guidance, will complete the whole sum at which they have aimed.

Of the amount now in the treasury, the sum of $4300 is now invested, and is bearing interest for us at seven per cent.

The Current Expenses for the past year have been $3584.71—the amount originally estimated for the yearly current expenses having been $4000. The amount actually received for this purpose has been $2917.55, leaving a balance due the treasury, $667.16.

With the balance, however, of $690.18, unexpended from last year, with $609.30 from subscriptions unpaid last year, with $775.22 from churches which completed last year's collection after the annual report, with $167.85 from sources outside our churches, and $675 from the Board of Education, they have been enabled to pay the much larger part of our expenses promptly.

Gifts of clothing, furniture, bedding, stationery, shoes, etc., and Christmas books, have been received from several churches.

The Commissioners of the Presbytery, appointed to the General Assembly, at the time of the last annual report, procured from the Assembly action recognizing and commending our school as one of the theological institutions of the Presbyterian Church. In this action, the Assembly deemed it advisable to secure uniformity in the operation of the two German Theological Schools of Newark and Dubuque. The Assembly, therefore, required of us a change of our term "Trustees" to "Directors;" that each board of the two schools divide its members into three equal classes; that the election of members of each board, "as well as any election to fill vacancies by death, resignation, or otherwise, shall be held valid only on the approval of the General Assembly; and that the regularly appointed Professors of these institutions shall be elected by the Board of Directors, subject to the approval of the General Assembly, in the same manner, and to the same degree, as may be determined upon in respect to the other theological institutions of the Church." These requirements of the Assembly were met by the procurement of a charter, in which the following provisions were inserted: "The first Board of Directors of said corporation shall be divided into three classes, to be numbered one, two, and three; the term of the first shall expire in one, the second in two, and the third in three years from the first day of May last. Joseph Fewsmith, Charles E. Knox, and Thomas N. MacCarter shall compose the first class; Charles A. Smith, William T. Van Wagenen, and Philip Doremus shall compose the second class; and Jonathan F. Stearns, George C. Seibert, and F. Wolcott Jackson shall compose the third class; each class of Directors shall hereafter be chosen for, and hold their office during, three years, and until a new election to supply the place of such class." The election of three Directors, or to fill vacancies at "the stated spring meeting," . . . "shall be subject to review at the next General Assembly," . . . "and in case the said General Assembly shall disapprove of such election, the office of the Director or Directors disapproved of shall thereupon become vacant."

The provision, with respect to the relation of the regularly-appointed Professors, the Board propose to incorporate in the Constitution of the school. No such Professors have as yet been appointed.

The following article of the charter is important, and, in view of the collection of a permanent fund, should be reported: "Whenever, from a cessation of German immigration, or from any other cause, it may be deemed inexpedient longer to maintain said institution as a distinctive German theological school, it shall be lawful for the Directors, with the approval of the Presbytery at Newark, and of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, to use the property and funds of said corporation for any other branch of theological education, or transfer its property and funds, or any part thereof, to any other Theological Seminary: and, in case of such transfer of all the property of said corporation to another Seminary or seminaries, the corporate power hereby granted shall cease, and said corporation be thereby dissolved."

The name of the school in the act of incorporation is "The German Theological School of Newark, New-Jersey." This name the Board desire to be understood simply as defining the general location of the school, and not as forbidding its location in the vicinity of Newark, should it at any time seem best so to fix its permanent site.

The Board consider the progress of the past year a moderate but substantial advance. We take even a more confident satisfaction than at the close of last year in the adaptation of our institution to meet the want for which it is designed. God's spirit, we believe, is guiding the young institution which his providence suggested and developed.

As we look to the coming year, one anxious thought presses upon us. Our two German Instructors are both overworked. With a double work upon them, and without the breathing-place of a week's vacation from year to year, we fear the strain will prove too great for their health, and that even their indomitable German energy and fortitude will break beneath the burden. One of them for nearly the whole past month has been confined to his sick bed, leaving pulpit and school to the students. We must take care of these valuable German teachers and pastors. One of them certainly ought to be relieved from his pastoral care, that he may give himself to the development of our school. For this purpose we need the most speedy completion of our Memorial Endowment. Our dormitory will accommodate our students, we have reason to believe, only for the immediate future, and may prove insufficient at the opening of the fall term.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JONATHAN F. STEARNS, President.

IX. GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF THE NORTH-WEST.

Annual Report of the Directors.

The Board of Directors of the German Theological School of the North-West report to the General Assembly, to meet in Chicago, May, 1871:

That, in accordance with the plan prescribed by the General Assembly of last year (See Minutes, p. 70), the Presbyteries of Dane and Dubuque met in the city of Dubuque, Iowa, on the 27th of July, 1870, and elected eighteen Directors of the above-named School, to wit:

Ministers.	Laymen.
George Bayliss,	P. C. Samson,
Henry N. Potter,	C. Knackstead,
Alvah Day,	D. A. McKinley,
Jacob Conzett,	R. S. Alexander,
Ernst Kudobe,	J. Mathis,
William A. Hendrickson,	P. Pitz,
James M. Reid,	J. E. Moseley,
Richard V. Dodge,	D. Congar,
John Berk.	H. J. Morrison.

It was resolved that the above Board meet in the city of Dubuque, on the 17th of August, 1870, to proceed to organization. The Presbyteries then adjourned.

On the appointed day, fourteen Directors met and organized by electing Rev. Richard V. Dodge, President, and Rev. Henry N. Potter, Clerk. D. A. McKinley, Esq., was also elected Treasurer. Rev. Messrs. George Bayliss, James M. Reid, Jacob Conzett, and P. C. Samson, Esq., were appointed a committee to draught a constitution. The Board then proceeded by lot to arrange themselves in classes, whose several terms of service would be for one, two, and three years, with the following result:

Class of 1873.

Rev. James M. Reid,	P. C. Samson,
" Jacob Conzett,*	P. Pitz,
" Alvah Day.	J. E. Moseley.

Class of 1872.

Rev. Henry N. Potter,	H. J. Morrison,
" George Bayliss,	D. A. McKinley,
" John Berk.	J. Mathis.

Class of 1871.

Rev. Richard V. Dodge,	R. S. Alexander,
" Ernst Kudobe,	C. Knackstead,
" William A. Hendrickson.	D. Congar.

The Committee appointed for the purpose reported the draught of a constitution, which, after amendment and discussion, was finally adopted, a copy of which is herewith submitted.

The organization of the Faculty was then effected by the election of Rev. Adrianus Van Vliet, as Professor of Theology in all its branches, and of Church History; and of Rev. Godfrey L. Moery, as Professor of Oriental and Biblical Literature, and Instructor in the Collegiate Department.

Committees on examination and on Intrants were appointed, the latter to decide as to the fitness of the students desirous of entering the Institution.

It may be well to notice here, that the Rev. Adrianus Van Vliet has labored for many years in the establishment and maintenance of this school. His labors have all been gratuitous, and he has besides expended his own means in carrying out the object so dear to his heart, and in accepting the position now offered him by the Board, he declined all salary, avowing it to be his purpose to render his services without compensation. The Board expressed their appreciation of his disinterestedness and tendered to him their thanks.

The salary of Rev. Godfrey L. Moery was fixed at $600 per annum, at his own request, he positively declining any more.

Messrs. D. A. McKinley, P. C. Samson, and C. Knackstead were appointed Trustees, and they were authorized to draw up articles of incorporation, to be recorded according to the laws of the State of Iowa. It was directed, that the scholastic year be from the first Monday of September to the last Wednesday of June; and that the annual examination commence on the Tuesday before the annual meeting of the Board, said meeting to be held on the last Wednesday of April, at 8 P.M.

A resolution was adopted to request aid from the Board of Education to the amount of $400, for the current year, and the Financial Committee, consisting of the Trustees, with Rev. Messrs. Conzett, Potter, and Dodge, were authorized to look out for suitable grounds for the use of the school, and to purchase them should there be sufficient funds in the Treasury to admit of it. The Board then adjourned to the time ordered as above.

Our present report embraces the proceedings of the second meeting of the Board; from which will be seen what has been done, for and by this school, during its first year under the care of the General Assembly; and we beg leave to state:

That the school was opened September 5th, 1870, with the following named students, seventeen in number:

Jacob Brinkema,	Bernhard Moellenbeck,
Dirk Borgers,	Henry Knell,
Nicolaus Sulzer,	F. W. Bruechert,
Aug. Wittenberger,	Joseph Wittenberger,

* Elected professor—Rev. John Bantly elected to fill the vacancy.

Mathias Wittenberger,
Adolph Krebs,
John Funk,
Ernst Schuette,
Michael Buettel,
Helmar Smidt,
Hartman Strauss,
Henry Schmitt,
Lucas Abels.

On the 6th of September, Emil Schaible arrived, and on the 8th of September Jacob Stark.

These nineteen students have been in attendance upon the school in former years. After the opening of the school, the following new students appeared, viz.:

Henry Meyer, from Lane Seminary;
John Vanderlas, a student of former years;
John Bartell, Jacob Schedel.

We take the following from the report of Rev. Godfrey L. Moery to the Directors upon the course of study, and progress made. The following classes were taught: Mr. Van Vliet instructed all the students in one class two hours each day in Theology in its various branches. But as his health began to fail, he was unable to instruct in Church History.

Mr. Moery taught the following classes: Bible Antiquities, twice a week; German Grammar, three times; History of the World, three times; History of Philosophy, once; Confession of Faith and Church Government, once; all these were in the German language. Also English grammar, twice a week; Geography, three times; Latin, 1st class, once; 2d class, twice; Greek, 1st class, twice; 2d class, three times; these in English.

Mr. Van Vliet's health rapidly failed, so that he taught less and less, until he was obliged to give up teaching altogether.

The books used in the school are as follows: as text-book in Theology, Brakel, a book in the Holland language; German Grammar of J. P. Dessar, and Reader of the same series; Redenbacher's History of the World; Pinneo's English Grammar; Willson's Readers, especially the 4th and 5th volumes; Warren's Geography; Ray's written Arithmetic; McClintock's Latin Grammar, Second Book in Latin, and Beza's Latin Testament; also Greek Grammar by the same, and the Greek New Testament.

It will be seen by the above, that a large field of instruction is gone over, too large indeed for an institution of this nature, and yet leaving out some studies usual in a Theological course. Still, the circumstances of the German students require this, and the order of the last General Assembly allows it. It is to be hoped, however, that the school may be put upon such a footing, in a short time, both of men and means, as to enable the Board to make a better distribution of the studies, and advance the school to a still higher grade. The plan proposed by Mr. Moery is a good one, and was approved by the Board, who will endeavor to carry out its provisions as far as may be practicable. It is as follows:

The school should be divided into three departments—Primary or Preparatory, Secondary, Theological. In the Primary or Preparatory Departments, instruction should be given in the elementary studies of German and English, as it is done in English in our common schools, and perhaps the first steps in Latin and History. In the Secondary Department, Latin, Greek Philosophy to some extent, and History continued. In the Theological Department, Theology in all its branches, Church History, and perhaps, if found necessary, Hebrew. As the constitution designed by the General Assembly appoints a short course, and the length has been determined upon of five years, it cannot, of course, be expected that the students should go in every part so far as in other institutions of learning. We would therefore suggest, for instance, in Latin, after the Grammar, the New Testament as a Reader, and perhaps the Second Book of McClintock, containing extracts of Cæsar, and Cicero; so in Greek, the Second Book, containing Xenophon's Anabasis, etc.

To the instruction in English and German alone, there is no hindrance. But a rule of our Board of Education enjoins upon a student to study three months in Latin before he can receive aid; this has compelled us hitherto to instruct them in Latin, before they were properly prepared for it.

In connection with this report of Mr. Moery, the Committee on the Annual Examination testified to the gratification they experienced in witnessing the fidelity of both teachers and scholars, as brought out in the examination of a number of the classes. It is very evident that a spirit of devotion to the work animates both; and yet the impression could not fail to be made upon every mind that vastly more could be accomplished, if the facilities were only increased.

As this is the first Report of the Board embracing the particulars of two meetings, with the organization, all undue length must be pardoned, as several facts should be presented before the Church.

For many years, Rev. A. Van Vliet has given his time and substance to this work, and many of his Holland and German brethren have reason to bless his memory. With little means, but with a heart for the work, and seeing the necessity of supplying the large masses of his compatriots in this country with the Gospel in their own tongue, he has gone forward in faith and hope. Four hundred students have received the elements of education, more or less, and, since a more strictly theological character has been given to the school, it has sent out 22 preachers of the Gospel, 17 of whom are now ordained. Over 40 churches have been established in the North-west, ministered unto by these students, and embracing more than 2000 communicants. These men are doing a noble work, and deserve large commendation.

And all this has been effected at a large personal sacrifice. Mr. Van Vliet, as already stated, invested all in the little property now belonging to the institution, and has never received any thing by way of salary. His support was drawn from a German congregation whom he served as minister in the city of Dubuque. It remains only now to say that this self-sacrificing servant of God has at last gone to his rest. His more than double labors wore him out at last. For some months his health has been greatly failing him, and when the Board last met, it was evident to all that his time was short. Worn out in brain and body, he seemed only waiting for the final stroke. A few days ago, May 9th, he "fell asleep," and "devout men carried him to his burial" on the 11th. "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write: Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." Brother Van Vliet rests from his labors; and will not these his works follow him through endless generations? Happy work is this, the training of men for the ministry of Jesus; blessed work is that which leads perishing souls to Christ.

In view of the declining state of Mr. Van Vliet's health, the Board at their last meeting relieved him of all duties, but refusing to accept the resignation which he tendered, they continued him as Emeritus Professor. Rev. Jacob Conzett was elected Professor of Theology, and the name of the chair is hereafter to be known as the "Van Vliet Professorship of Theology in the German School of Theology in the North-West."

The Faculty of the school now consists of Rev. Jacob Conzett, Professor of Theology.

" Godfred L. Moery, " " Oriental and Biblical Literature.
Mr. Jacob Stark, Instructor.

Finances. The property of the school consists of a plot of ground, 25×100 feet, on which are erected two frame buildings of the cheapest character, one containing eight rooms, and the other five; most of these rooms are small, and too close for health or convenience. One of these is used as the office of the Presbyterianer, a German paper, edited by the two Professors, and is also occupied by the library of the school, and the books of a small book-concern lately started. The value of this land and the buildings is estimated at $1000. The title is not fully in the hands of the Board, but it is presumed will be so in time.

In this narrow compass, Twenty-four students have their board and lodging, and prepare their studies, the basement of the adjacent church being used for their recitations. It is not to be wondered at, that the health of the students suffers from such confinement. Mr. Moery's report states that, during the year, "the health of the students failed to some extent, generally contrary to former years, so that we could not prosecute our studies as we wished." Close quarters, a sparing diet, and over-work may well produce this effect; and the surest remedy to be proposed is the enlargement of house and grounds, means for a more generous fare, and more judicious distribution of work, all of which can only be had, by an increase of men and money. By God's blessing shall we not have them?

The Institution is out of debt, and has about Five Hundred Dollars in the treasury, contributions in behalf of the Memorial Fund. And this is all. Even the source of aid once had in the Board of Education is now cut off. To supply our wants, we must look to the liberality of God's people in our Church. We need a building with suitable grounds, and a small Endowment Fund. By close calculation, Sixty-five Thousand Dollars will furnish both, and support the school for some years to come. Cannot this sum be had? We have had a financial agent in the field, but as yet he has accomplished little or nothing. The many local appeals, in raising the Memorial Fund, have been in the way of our appeal being successfully heard and answered. May we not hope that now, the church having accomplished, as we believe, the grand scheme proposed, some of those calls, that have been drowned in the nearer and perhaps more urgent appeals, will be heard? If the self-sacrifice of our German brethren were only known generally, as we see it out here, and their fidelity to Jesus and his Church appreciated at its proper value, surely many would be glad to share their abundance with those who have consecrated their lives to Christ and his blessed work.

The Board would further report that they have attached to the Van Vliet Professorship of Theology a salary of $1500 per annum, to the Professorship of Oriental and Biblical Literature one of $1200, and to the office of Instructor one of $400. These salaries are, however, to go into effect only when the funds of the Institution justify it; in the mean time Rev. Mr. Conzett declines to receive any salary. Mr. Moery accepts only $600. And the Instructor, Mr. Stark, $300! It is, however, for the interest of the Institution that these men, so nobly self-sacrificing, shall very soon be permitted to devote their whole time to this work of training their young German brethren for the ministry of the Lord, and will not our Church help in this matter? The General Assembly has taken this school under their care. Will not your body, at this time, devise some means to put it on a proper pecuniary basis? May God direct you!

Many other ideas might be noted down, but we have already exceeded all proper bounds. We have no balance-sheet to present, nor any large donations of books or money gratefully to acknowledge. But we bless God for the marks of goodness he has shown us, and that we are entering upon another year, without debt, with a full faculty, a goodly number of faithful young German students, and that we are under the care of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, whose indorsement upon our actions we respectfully ask.

The term of the Directors of the class of 1871 having expired, the Board at its late meeting chose their successors, also supplying vacancies that had occurred, so that the whole Board now stands as follows:

Rev. Richard V. Dodge,	Rev. James M. Reid,	Rev. A. S. Marshall, D.D.,
" Ernst Kudobe,	" John Bantly,	" William Behle,
" J. U. Tschudy,	" Alvah Day,	" John Berk,
Mr. R. S. Alexander,	Mr. P. C. Samson,	Mr. J. Mathis,
" C. Knackstead,	" P. Pitz,	" H. J. Morrison,
" C. Helming.	" J. E. Moseley.	" D. A. McKinley.

Articles of Incorporation, drawn up by the Trustees, and recorded in Iowa, are forwarded with this report.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. Reid, Secretary. R. V. DODGE, President.

X. LINCOLN UNIVERSITY THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

The committee, appointed to make extracts from the minutes, and collate facts relative to the Theological Department in Lincoln University, to be presented to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, offer the following:

In January, 1865, the Rev. Isaac N. Rendall was elected President of Ashman Institute, and entered upon the duties of his office in June of the same year. Upon the change of the title of the Institution, in April, 1866, he remained the President of Lincoln University, and continues to fulfil the duties of the office at the present time.

By the laws of the University, he is required "to give the students a course of instruction in the Evidences, Principles, and Duties of the Christian Religion." The effect of the laws of the University is, therefore, to make the President of the Institution Professor of Apologetics and Christian Ethics in the Theological Department.

June 19th, 1867.—On motion of Rev. William R. Bingham, it was resolved, "That the twenty thousand ($20,000) subscribed by various persons, in different amounts, shall be devoted, and hereby is devoted, to the endowment of the Presidency of this Institution. In compliment to the long and faithful services, and ever-generous patronage of Rev. John M. Dickey, D.D., thus far the only President of the Board of Trustees, both of Ashman Institute and of Lincoln University; and in recognition of the memory of his sainted daughter, whose patrimony has been largely devoted to the welfare of this Institution, therefore, Resolved, That the charter endowed by the twenty thousand dollars, mentioned in the previous resolution, shall be styled and known in the records of this Board as 'The Mary Warder Dickey Presidency of Lincoln University.'"

June 19th, 1871.—At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of Lincoln University, of the above date, "A letter from Mr. John C. Baldwin, of New-York, and of Orange, New-Jersey, was read, in which he proffered to the Trustees Railroad Bonds to the amount of twenty thousand ($20,000) dollars, to endow a professorship upon certain stipulated conditions." "On motion of William E. Dodge, it was unanimously resolved to accept the donation of Mr. Baldwin, in the terms in which the proposition was made. It was also resolved, that the Professorship to be founded by the donation of Mr. Baldwin, shall be styled and known in the records of this Board as 'The John C. Baldwin Professorship of Theology in Lincoln University.'"

Letter of Mr. Baldwin:—"New-York, June 15th, 1867. Rev. John M. Dickey: Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your favor, conveying a note from my friend, Rev. Mr. Bingham, for which bear him my thanks.

"It would give me pleasure to be with you and the friends of the University, agreeably to your request, but my health hardly justifies the effort, in view of other demands upon my time.

"Herewith please find certificates of the promised securities, viz.: One hundred shares each of the Preferred and Common Stock of the Chicago and North-Western Railroad, par value twenty thousand dollars, conditioned in substance as follows:

"1st. To found a Professorship of Theology in Lincoln University, for the benefit of the African race in our country.

"2d. The Professor shall hold and teach, that the Old and New Testaments are the word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice, and the doctrine of the Trinity, and parity of the Ministry as held by the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America.

"3d. Before entering upon the duties of the Professorship, he shall subscribe a declaration of belief as above, and he shall repeat such subscription as often as once in every five years. Upon default on the part of the Professor to subscribe, or of the Trustees to require such subscription as aforesaid, the donation shall be forfeited and revert to the donor or his heirs.

"May it please Him who said, 'I am with you unto the end of the world,' ever to abide with and bless the Trustees, Faculty, and Students of Lincoln University. Sincerely and truly yours, JOHN C. BALDWIN."

The Rev. Edwin R. Bower was elected to the incumbency of the Baldwin Professorship.

Professor Bower entered upon the duties of his Professorship in September, 1867, subscribed the required pledge, and was duly inaugurated on the 21st of January, 1868.

June 19th, 1867.—On motion of Rev. S. C. Logan, the following resolution was unanimously adopted: "Whereas, The Hon. William E. Dodge, of New-York City, has signified to this Board of Trustees, that he has placed at their disposal twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), in first-class mortgage Bonds, now yielding interest, for the purpose of endowing permanently a Professorship in Lincoln University, without condition as to name or department; therefore,

"Resolved, That this Board hereby accepts, in good faith, this generous donation, with sincere gratitude, and hereby establish a Professorship which shall be styled and known, in the records of this Board, as 'The William E. Dodge Professorship of Lincoln University,' and that, among the duties of this chair, shall be included that of teaching Sacred Rhetoric."

"The Rev. Ezra E. Adams, D.D., was chosen to the incumbency of the Dodge Professorship."

Dr. Adams entered upon the duties of his Professorship in September, 1867, and was inaugurated on the 21st of January, 1868. In addition to the special action of the Board of Trustees, in electing Professors to give instruction in the parts of a Theological course, by the action of the Faculty of Lincoln University, and with the consent and invitation of the Board of Trustees, other Professors and Ministers of the Presbyterian Church have taken the undistributed work in this Department: Rev. Lorenzo Westcott has given Instruction in Church History. Rev. Gilbert T. Woodhull has undertaken a course of Biblical Greek. Rev. William R. Bingham has delivered a course of lectures on Pastoral Care.

The Board of Trustees are called to lament the death of the Rev. Albert Barnes, whereby the University has been deprived of his wise counsels in the Board, his courteous and sympathizing co-operation with the Faculty, and his invaluable course of Lectures on the Evidences of Christianity, delivered before the Students of the University.

The above is a copy of the record, and a statement of facts connected with the Theological Department of Lincoln University. They are hereby committed, with other documents, to the care of the Delegates of the Presbytery of Chester, to be presented by them to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for their consideration and action, in accordance with the Charter of the University, the 18th day of February, 1871.

Abstract of the First Annual Report.

In presenting the First Annual Report of the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, succeeding the "Board of Domestic Missions," in its sixty-ninth year, and the "Committee of Home Missions" in its tenth, the Board cannot but express their profound thankfulness to Almighty God for so many conditions of successful labor which he has permitted the Missionaries to enjoy.

I. The Difficulties and Perplexities of the Board.—(1.) The labor of reconstructing our Home Missionary work, simplifying and making a unit of what had been two distinct corporations, and two centres of operation, has been much greater than one would suppose.

The Board of Domestic Missions and the Committee of Home Missions kept up their separate work until the 15th of July. But, when the work of both organizations was united under one management, that of each had been projected into the year to come. Both had issued commissions and made appointments, and the work of both needed to be followed on their own lines, independent of each other, and independent of our present organization. Besides, Presbyteries had been reconstructed and their boundaries changed. New officers, stated clerks, and Committees of Home Missions had been appointed, and missionaries and their churches often found themselves within new limits, perhaps among strangers, and that, which had hitherto been well known or carefully treasured up in the minds of one Presbytery, was unknown to that in which they now are, and equally so to the Board; so that the requisite information to act promptly and wisely, in many cases, was wholly wanting. As the Church was in the midst of the process of reconstruction, it frequently occurred that the Board had no means of certainly ascertaining to what Presbytery a given missionary or his church belonged.

Believing that we could not satisfy the great company of contributors to our funds, unless we passed an intelligent judgment on all applications, the Board adopted a series of Rules for congregations applying for missionary aid, embodying information on all important matters—rules, the substance of which had previously been adopted by the "Domestic Board" and the "Committee of Home Missions"—which, we are sorry to say, some thought inquisitorial, or at least too exacting; but which drew out only the information which seemed necessary to the Board, that they might form an accurate and impartial estimate on every application that came before them.

Moreover, the Board have demanded, of all their missionaries, statistical reports full of particulars about their fields of labor, for the whole or that part of the year they have been in commission, closing April 1st, 1871. These statistics are embodied in a permanent form, and will be kept among the records of the Board. It is the intention to have these reports made very full with regard to every important feature of the work in the missionary churches, so that hereafter we can trace their history and note their growth or decay, and be able to tell, at any time in the future, how much missionary money has been expended on any given church, from the reunion of the Assemblies at least, and perhaps from its very organization. By the same means we shall be able to inform every Presbytery or Synod, how much the Board has expended within its bounds during any given year or series of years, and in like manner trace the career and make out the history of every missionary.

(2.) The Board have been greatly perplexed for want of funds. The expenses of the Board are at a uniform rate of from $25,000 to $30,000 per month. But it is well known that the collections from the churches are small during the summer; and they were unusually small last summer, on account of the unparalleled heat of the season. In October, the Board was so burdened with debt that it was compelled to give notice, to the churches and the missionaries, that it could pay no more demands on our treasury till it was replenished.

What increased the difficulty was, that the Committee of Home Missions, made up by the same parties that constitute the Board, were carrying a debt on the Freedmen's Department contracted the year before. Had it not been for this debt, the Board probably would have borrowed $12,000 or $15,000 more to pay the missionaries, till the contributions of the churches began to flow in more rapidly, and thus have saved us from the mortification of suspension within three months of our reunion.

II. Enlargement of the Work.—But our work has considerably enlarged during the year. The Home Missionary Reports of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church last year contained the names of 1148 missionaries. This year our Report contains the names of 1233 missionaries, being an increase of nearly one hundred.

This increase is almost wholly in the Western States, though more of it is east of the Mississippi than we could have desired. For, in the four or five States lying directly east of that river, and called the "Central West," where the churches of both branches of the now reunited body were numerous, it seemed but fair to expect that, following organic union, numerous contiguous churches would unite, and thus constitute self-supporting fields of labor, thereby relieving a considerable number of missionaries from any further dependence on our Board. This result we still anticipate, through the steady effort of Presbyteries, and the increasing unity of spirit among the churches themselves.

It is obvious, from the number of missionaries employed, that they constitute nearly one third of the whole ministerial force of our Church.

III. The Condition of our Finances has been less satisfactory. The balance in the treasury of the Board at the close of the last fiscal year was $65,037.59, of which $30,000 was transferred to New-York on the 15th of July, and in that of the Committee $9194.19, an aggregate of $74,231.78. We close the year covered by this Report with a balance of $29.28. Last year the receipts from all sources were $300,599.69; this year they have been $281,945.82. But our expenses this year have been $352,844.23, which is $70,898.41 in excess of our receipts.

It is but just to the churches to say, that the difference in receipts between this year and the last is due to the differences in legacies alone. Churches and individuals have contributed this year $250,184.92; last year, $233,887.67. But, while the Board and the Committee received last year $66,712.02 in legacies, we have received this year only $31,760.90, a difference of $34,951.12.

It should be borne in mind, that there is a slight unfairness in the best statement we are able to make, about the number of churches that have contributed to Home Missions during the year; for the Board have determined to make the last day of March the end of their fiscal year. But, in time past, the Board of Domestic Missions closed a month earlier, and the Committee of Home Missions a month later; consequently the period of time covered by this Report embraces thirteen months for the churches of the late O. S. branch, and only eleven for the late N. S. branch; and the churches in the former, that took up their collections in April of each year, will be credited with the collections of two years. Hence it is due to say that, for the same reason, the churches in the late N. S. branch, that take their collections in April, will be credited with nothing this year except incidental balances from last year's collections.

The great inadequacy of the receipts to meet the demands of mission churches has been a source of constant anxiety on the part of the Board; and when they remember that, with the exception of April, all the months until November next yield but small returns from the churches, and that our current expenses are so uniform and so great, we can readily see that we shall be overwhelmed with debt, and many of the missionaries subject to grievous delays in the receipt of their appropriations from the Board, unless the churches rally promptly and come to our aid.

It is a natural inquiry, Why have the receipts of the Board been so much below the demand and the general expectations?

(1.) In many cases, the demand was far in advance of previous years. When it was known that the Board of Domestic Missions had closed the last year with $65,000 in the treasury, many churches asked for more, some twice as much and some three times as much as they had last year, and the Presbyteries readily indorsed their applications.

(2.) Then the last Assembly passed the following resolution, viz.:

"That the Board of Home Missions be authorized and empowered to supplement the salaries of all ministers, wholly employed in preaching to our congregations at salaries of less than $800, by such an amount as shall raise their salaries respectively to not less than that sum, on proper recommendation by the proper Presbyteries."

The resolution added nothing to our authority, and nothing to our power; and yet many seemed to think that, if their salaries had not been $800 per annum before, they had only to ask in order to receive that amount.

(3.) Any thing which turns the benefactions of the people into new channels is always found to affect the amounts unfavorably.

The reorganization of the Board, the change of location, the appointment of new officers, and any new methods proposed, are sure to check for a time the free transmission of customary funds.

Besides, the public needed to be assured of the ability and wisdom of those to whom the trust had been committed. Confidence is of slow growth, and the churches will not give freely, till they have had time to learn to confide in and love those who have their precious interests in charge.

(4.) It is also fair to suppose that for the present year the Memorial Fund has reduced the contributions to our treasury. A large part of the Memorial Fund has been expended in aiding Seminaries and Colleges, adding to the capacity of the Publication buildings, enlarging or endowing schools and institutions of learning in foreign lands, under the care of the Board of Foreign Missions, and in building and freeing from debt church edifices in this country. The Boards of Foreign Missions, Church Erection, Education, and Publication, have received or will receive largely direct benefit from that fund. But as that fund was intended mainly for permanent institutions, and our funds are gathered to be immediately disbursed among the missionaries, we have received directly only about $6500 contributed to our treasury and specified as memorial offerings, whilst from another part of this Report it appears that nearly $340,000 for the Memorial Fund were raised by our missionary churches.

IV. The Lessons Suggested.—The most obvious lesson suggested by this state of things is, that the churches must increase their contributions, or we must reduce our expenditures. But incidental to this it is manifest—

(1.) That congregations that have become really able to be self-sustaining must be searched out, and their applications hereafter discouraged or refused.

To aid just as long as is necessary is the duty of the Church, and her highest duty; but it is very difficult for some churches to discover the point where foreign aid is necessary; and in such cases, it is best for the Presbytery and Board to help them make the needed discovery. Such churches must be searched out, and at the earliest possible day foreign aid should be withheld.

Nothing is more common, than for new churches to appeal to us for nearly the entire support of the missionary for one year, because they are building a church; the second year they do the same, because they are in debt for the church; and the third year, because they wish to add a steeple, or procure an organ or a bell; and thus year by year they press upon us almost the entire support of the missionary. But we have reached a point where it is important that the missionary churches should learn, that the entire support of their pastor must no longer be, as it apparently is to many, the very last object of their desires. We have borne this burden until it has become impossible to bear it longer.

All this has proceeded upon a false assumption, that the Board of Home Missions was created for the support of the missionaries. It was created for no such purpose. If the missionary or his family be in want, he can have recourse to the Board of Ministerial Relief. The Board of Home Missions was organized for the aid of feeble churches. The contract for the support of the missionary is directly with the church and the congregation. If the missionary is willing that his people should expend all their effort in building a house of worship, so let it be; but let him not blame the Board. He has a right to fix the terms of his support with the congregation; he has a right to know what amount of aid we can give—and he can then judge whether it is sufficient for his support. If not, and we can give no more because the churches give us so little, there is but one alternative—he must decline the field. And yet, if he be already on the field, and the work promises well, we can do nothing but encourage him to be brave and wait for better days. For to leave the field, often only adds to the impoverishment of the missionary and the weakness of the church. The frequency of changes in the location of our missionaries is one of the most discouraging features of our work.

V. The Present Outlook.—Let no one suppose that we are counseling any reduction of Home Missionary work. Far from it. Never were grander opportunities for the extension of the Church than now. In Minnesota, the supply of missionaries has fallen 15 behind the demand for the past year. The same is true of Kansas, which calls for an equal number. In Nebraska, 18,000 homesteads were taken last year, and 2,700,000 acres of her choicest lands were sold to actual settlers; and the present year is undoubtedly to surpass any previous year in the increase of her population.

No previous year has witnessed such a wonderful enlargement of the railway system. And we have found that wherever the locomotive has gone, immigration succeeds, and the missionary of the Cross must follow. The fertile prairies and fat valleys of all our frontier States and Territories are being laid open for settlement. We have expected to see some check given to railway development and to the inflowing tide of immigrants. But we see no abatement in either case, but rather increasing growth and extension. The Northern Pacific, stretching westward from the head of Lake Superior, already spans the father of waters, and in a few months will reach the boundaries of Dakota, the Red River of the North. Not only is the line to be pushed rapidly westward, but from its present terminus on the Pacific it is to be as boldly pushed eastward.

During the past year, a second road has penetrated the heart of Colorado, stretching past its capital city to the base of the Rocky Mountains. A northern population is now flowing into Texas, in anticipation of the completion of a railway from Kansas to the Gulf of Mexico. Late acts of Congress have probably made sure the early construction of the Southern Pacific Railway. Thus Texas, that once was a nation by itself, that is larger than France, by more than four times the extent of Massachusetts, whose inherent resources are fully equal to those of France, and that is capable of supporting a population equal to that of the whole United States, is just on the eve of great material development; and already we hear her voice crying to us to come and help educate and evangelize her people—her people that are and that are to be.

But these projected railways must of necessity enhance the value of the whole unsettled portion of our country as a missionary field; for all these larger enterprises give an impetus to smaller undertakings, branching roads, that stretch out their arms in every direction.

Of the 8,000,000 increase of our population during the last decade, 5,000,000 are supposed to be west of the Mississippi. One hundred post-offices a month were established, mostly at the West, during the eight months of the past year.

How clearly it is our duty, then, to do our share in the work of evangelization, till the distant West shall be as thickly planted with churches as Ohio, Indiana, and Michigan, in the central West; until both the farther West and the central West shall be as the most favored States of the East.

VI. Missionary Churches in Cities.—The Board would call the attention of the General Assembly to the subject of City Missions; or, Mission Churches in our large cities. We have now, including German and colored churches, about sixty Missionary churches in our large cities.

We have no doubt of the expediency of aiding such churches, provided they are well located. After they once become self-sustaining, we may expect them to be generous contributors to our treasury; but for the time being, they are more expensive to the Board than missionary churches in the country, and if enthusiastic men, on their own responsibility, are allowed to start churches wherever they please, and the Presbytery indorse the application for aid without a careful examination of the field, there is danger that the appropriations made would be but money thrown away. We therefore hope that the Assembly will so instruct the Presbyteries, that they will not indorse any such applications for aid, unless they are sure the church is needed and can be expected to become self-sustaining in a reasonable time.

The reference of the last Assembly to the question of transferring the Jews, Chinese, and North-American Indians, from the care of the Board of Foreign Missions to that of Home Missions has been carefully considered. We have not thought any change advisable at present. The work among the Jews is too small to demand any special attention; that among the Chinese and Indians involves the work of secular education, and the translating of the Holy Scriptures, and it is kindred to the general work of the Board of Foreign Missions. But, inasmuch as the missions in New-Mexico furnish scarcely any opportunity for preaching the Gospel, and are engaged almost wholly in teaching the children of Mexican Papists, the Board ask that the Missions in New-Mexico be transferred to the Board of Foreign Missions.

VII. The Freedmen.—By an arrangement with the Committee on Freedmen, the Board has rendered assistance at a uniform rate of $300 per annum to all missionaries laboring among the Freedmen.

The report of their labors will more properly come from that Committee which has complete supervision of the whole work.

The debt which lay on the hands of the Committee of Home Missions at the last Assembly, has not been paid by the Committee of Freedmen, and still remains on our hands a continual burden and source of perplexity. The debt is now $12,318.

VIII. Synodical Missionaries and District Secretaries.—Under these designations the two organizations to which we succeed were accustomed to employ a few men, mostly in the frontier States, where the population was flowing in very rapidly, where the members of Presbyteries were widely separated from each other, and there was more work to be done than the resident pastors could perform.

It has been found that whenever a Presbytery awakes to a sense of the destitutions within its bounds, and sees the amount of missionary work to be done, it is likely to call for the appointment of a Presbyterial Missionary.

But a single Presbytery is so small that, by the time the missionary has learned by experience how to prosecute this kind of labor successfully, the available work demanded of him comes to an end. Besides, to support so many Presbyterial missionaries with our limited resources, as would thus be required of us, would manifestly be impossible; hence the appointment of such laborers, whose field shall be the destitutions of a whole Synod or a whole State, seems a suitable compromise, and furnishes abundant labor for a much longer period.

It has been our aim to make the number of such appointments as small as may be compatible with the efficient prosecution of the work; to select men approved by the Synods in whose bounds they are to labor—men of tact, experience, and sound judgment—who can keep the Board informed of new settlements, new openings for missionary labor, and be a medium of communication with students about to leave our Seminaries, and others who may be willing to locate in the West. They have no control over the Presbyteries, the missionaries, or the churches. They do not supersede any Presbyterial prerogatives; but are called to do a work which sometimes outgrows the ability of a Presbytery or Synod to perform; and when that excess of labor is done, there is no further demand for their service.

IX. The Employment of Theological Students in Missionary Work.—A large number of students were employed in preaching the Gospel during the summer vacation. Their labors were satisfactory and successful.

There are numerous missionary enterprises, or destitute yet growing neighborhoods, in the vicinity of the large cities in which or near which all our Theological Seminaries are located, where it is thought that such students might be employed throughout the year, under the judicious supervision of the Professors or other competent persons, without detriment to their studies, with manifest advantage to the cause of Christ, with partial relief to the Board of Education, and the pecuniary advantage of some whose resources prove quite too limited for their comfortable support.

The subject has received the attention and commendation of some of our Theological Professors. And this kind of work has become so large that the Board are disposed, if possible, to systematize and make it more effectual.

X. Basis of Missionary Operations.—Inasmuch as, by the Plan of Reunion, no enactment of the General Assembly of either branch of the Church shall be binding on the reunited Church, until sanctioned by its own act; and as many of the acts of each separate Assembly affecting Home Missions have become null and void, the Board have thought proper to suggest to this Assembly the importance of a new embodiment of the principles and laws of Home Missions, to be the outline or basis of operations for the time to come.

XI. Of the Missionaries and their Labors.—We give herewith the location of missionaries by States and Territories:

Massachusetts,	1	Texas,	4	Kansas,	65
New-York,	104	Tennessee,	21	Colorado,	13
New-Jersey,	39	Kentucky,	18	Wyoming Territory,	1
Pennsylvania,	101	Ohio,	109	Indian Territory,	1
Delaware,	8	Indiana,	68	New-Mexico,	2
Indiana,	14	Illinois,	169	Utah,	1
Virginia,	2	Michigan,	64	Nevada,	3
West Virginia,	11	Wisconsin,	63	California,	26
North-Carolina,	7	Minnesota,	55	Oregon,	7
South-Carolina,	8	Iowa,	133	Washington Territory,	2
Florida,	4	Nebraska,	20
Louisiana,	3	Missouri,	85

These missionaries have performed an aggregate of 965 years of service, and have preached the Gospel statedly in not less than 2500 places, and at frequent but irregular intervals in not less than 1000 other places.

A little more than five sevenths of the whole number have sent in their statistical reports, and even this number report the formation of 156 churches during the year; 5258 persons have been hopefully converted; 6080 have united with the church on profession of their faith, and 4937 by letter; total additions, 11,017. The total membership of all these churches is 56,668—which shows that nearly one fifth of the total membership has been added during the year.

In connection with the labors of these missionaries, 1378 Sabbath-schools are reported—340 of which were organized during the year. These schools have an aggregate of 90,276 members; and if all the missionaries had reported, we should undoubtedly have found that, besides the direct work of preaching the Gospel, they have had more than 100,000 of the children and youth of the country under their influence. What nobler field of Sabbath-school labors can be found than this?

5391 baptisms are reported; 156 church edifices have been built; 168 have been repaired or enlarged; church debts have been canceled to the amount of $228,627; and $339,410 have been contributed to the Memorial Fund.

XII. Deaths of Missionaries.—Rev. J. A. Veale, James Anderson, D.D., L. Hughes, M. C. Wilson, J. Van de Luyster, and John Moore, D.D., have died during the year.

XIII. Missionary Boxes.—The churches have shown a very commendable zeal in preparing boxes of clothing for the families of missionaries. An unusually large number of boxes have been sent out, and some of them of great value. The whole number has not been reported to us, nor can we give their pecuniary worth; but it must have been several thousands of dollars. The donors have been blest in the preparation of these gifts; and many a missionary's family has been relieved of pressing want thereby.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

TRUSTEES OF THE BOARD.—Gustavus S. Benson, President, Henry D. Gregory, Secretary, Samuel D. Powel, Treasurer, Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., LL.D., Rev. J. H. Mason Knox, D.D., Rev. Alexander Reed, D.D., Rev. Villeroy D. Reed, D.D., John D. McCord, Alfred Martien.

THE SIXTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Domestic Missions respectfully present to the General Assembly, this their Sixty-ninth Annual Report. The active missionary operations of the Board were only continued for four months and a half from the commencement of the new financial year, viz., from the 1st of March, 1870, to the 15th of July of the same year; after which date all the contributions from the churches, for the cause of Domestic Missions, were transmitted to the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions, located in the city of New-York, and all appointments of missionaries, and appropriations for their support, made by that Committee.

Missionaries.—The whole number of missionaries commissioned from March 1st, 1870, to July 15th of the same year, was 342—of these 127 were newly appointed, and 215 reappointed. They were distributed among the following States and territories, viz.:

California,	Kansas,	Nebraska,	Tennessee,
Colorado Ter.,	Kentucky,	New-Jersey,	Texas,
Delaware,	Maryland,	New-York,	Virginia,
Florida,	Massachusetts,	Ohio,	Washington Ter.,
Iowa,	Michigan,	Oregon,	West-Virginia,
Illinois,	Minnesota,	Pennsylvania,	Wisconsin.
Indiana,	Missouri,

Appropriations.—The appropriations made to our missionaries from March 1st, 1870, to July 15th, 1870, were $92,425.34.

Receipts and Payments.—The receipts from all sources, from March 1st, 1870, to April 13th, 1871, were $37,224.36, which, with the balance on hand March 1st, 1870, viz., $65,037.59, made the available resources of the Board $102,261.95.

The payments during the same period, viz., from March 1st, 1870, to April 13th, 1871, were $101,882.23, thus leaving a balance in the treasury on April 13th, 1871, of $379.72.

Transfer of the Missionary Operations of the Board.—On the 15th of July, 1870, after having promptly and fully paid all our missionaries who had made their reports, the missionary operations of this Board were transferred to the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions at New-York. Since that date, all contributions from churches to the cause of Domestic Missions have been transmitted to the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions at New-York, and all appointments of missionaries, and appropriations for their support, have been made by the New-York Committee. When this transfer was made, there remained in the treasury of this Board about $33,000, of which sum $30,000 were transmitted to the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions at New-York. Since that time, the further sum, derived from legacies and rents, of $10,500 has been transmitted to the New-York Committee, making a total of $40,500 transmitted by this Board to the New-York Committee.

I. ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

THE missions of the Board have been enlarged, during the year, by transfer, from the American Board, of the Ojibwa, Seneca, Gaboon, Syria, and Persia missions, with their staff of laborers. Two missionaries have also been received in China. The working force of the Board has been increased by thirteen ordained ministers, two physicians, seven unmarried ladies, and the wives of some of the missionaries—in all, thirty-two new laborers. Nine who had been at home returned to their different fields.

Deaths.—Four missionaries were removed by death—the Rev. Mr. Ellis, of Liberia; Mrs. Menaul and Mrs. Nassau, of Corisco; and Dr. Owen, of India.

Missions and Missionaries.—The missions of the reunited Church take in a vast sweep of territory, and of a countless host who need the Gospel. They are among eight tribes of Indians, among the Chinese in California, in the United States of Colombia, in Brazil, Japan, China, Siam, among the Laos, in India, Persia, Syria, Western Africa, and among the Jews in New-York. These embrace in all 25 missions, 111 ordained evangelists, 5 missionary physicians, 2 superintendents of schools, 119 females (of whom 27 are unmarried), making a total of 237 foreign laborers. Besides these, there is a large number of native ministers, with 378 native helpers. The number of churches cannot now be reported; to these have been added more than 400 converts, making the present membership about 3500. Over 10,000 youths, of both sexes, are receiving a Christian education in the schools. Some of these institutions are of a high order. Theological classes have been formed in several missions, and an enlarged native ministry will soon be raised up. With the exception of certain commotions in China, the missions had rest during the year, and were strengthened.

Finances.—The financial condition of the Board has not been in as healthy a condition as was expected. The debt with which it closes the year is $43,252. The receipts, it is hoped, for the coming year, when the whole Church will get into full working order and into concert of action, will be sufficient to pay off this indebtedness, and enable the Board to enlarge its operations in various fields.

Every thing is auspicious for a forward movement, and never were the different missions in such a favorable attitude for aggressive action. If the Church will but take hold of this Cause in the spirit of the Master, and in sympathy with providential indications and openings, the progress of the work will be speedily marked and blessed.

For a fuller account of the operations, see Report of Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, on pp. 534–7.

II. Report of the Committee of Conference with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

The Committee of Conference with the American Board, appointed by the General Assembly convened at Pittsburgh, Pa., November, 1859, and continued by the Assembly of the reunited Church at Philadelphia, May, 1870, with instructions "to pursue the negotiations already begun, and, with the assistance of the Prudential Committee of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, to make arrangements for the transfer, to the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, of such portions of the Missions of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions as on the principles expressed" in the report then made to the Assembly "can and ought to be transferred," beg leave to report:

That, in accordance with their instructions, having agreed with the Prudential Committee, as appears from a communication of Mr. Secretary Treat, under date of June 23d, as to the missions of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, which might properly be addressed, prepared a circular letter containing a full statement of the action of the General Assembly and the Board of Missions, together with the views of the Committee; which they sent, through the Missionary House at Boston, to the Missions agreed upon, to wit, the Syria Mission, the Mission to Persia, the Gaboon Mission, and the Missions among the North-American Indians. It was the intention, that these circulars should be forwarded in company with such communications as the Prudential Committee should see fit to make to the same Missions, that the views of both Boards might be fully represented.

In the case of the Mission to the Dakotas, the Committee's letter failed to reach Boston, till after that of the Prudential Committee had gone forward, and the annual meeting of the Mission occurring about the same time, the Mission acted in view of such documents as they had, and concluded to retain for the present their existing relations. The Missions to the Ojibwas and Senecas took the opposite course, and were among the first to be actually transferred.

The Rev. Albert Bushnell, of the Gaboon Mission, being then in this country, and the Rev. William Walker, the only remaining male missionary of that mission, being expected soon to arrive, with no probability of "being able to resume his labors in that field," the Prudential Committee, on the application of Mr. Bushnell, "to facilitate the arrangements that may be deemed necessary by the Presbyterian Board," immediately released Mr. and Mrs. Bushnell from their connection with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and resolved "That, as soon as Mr. Bushnell shall be received under the care of the Presbyterian Board, the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions will transfer thereto the property at present in possession of the Gaboon Mission, and will cheerfully transfer thereto the field for its occupancy, and in the hope and with the prayer, that its efforts may be greatly blessed in coming years." This Mission was received, by the Presbyterian Board, August 7th, 1870.

The action of the Syria Mission, as well as its spirit, will be best understood by their official reply, a copy of which is herewith submitted, and is as follows:

"The Syria Mission, at a special meeting held at Abeih, August 16th, 1870, had laid before them two documents; one from the Prudential Committee of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and another from the Committee of Conference of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church with the American Board, touching the transfer of the Mission from the American Board to the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions; and, having given the subject their serious and prayerful consideration, they have adopted the following action:

"1st. That the Mission regard this subject, thus presented, as one which has not originated with themselves, but as having been brought before them by the providence of God, and as not to be decided at all by them on personal grounds, or ecclesiastical preferences, but to be decided solely in view of its bearings upon the cause of Christ in this land and among the churches at home.

"2d. That the Mission appreciate the delicacy and kindness, with which the Prudential Committee of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions conveyed the consent of the Board to the withdrawal of its members from their service, with the view of forming a new connection, if they deem it expedient, and for the hearty assurance of their readiness to continue the support of the Mission, should it decide to remain as heretofore.

"3d. That they equally appreciate the cordial invitation extended to them by the Committee of the Presbyterian Church, and the pledge conveyed to the Mission that they shall enjoy, in the new proposed connection, all the freedom of action, 'in respect to their policy and ecclesiastical relations,' which they had hitherto possessed.

"4th. That the Mission find great difficulty in considering calmly and impartially a question involving their separation from the American Board, the severing of ties which have existed until within two years of half a century, which have been interwoven with the earliest recollections of childhood, and which have grown strong by personal connection and active co-operation during years of service, and which they had anticipated would only be dissolved by death. No language can express how much of pain, to their hearts, the thought of this separation involves. Their relations to the Secretaries, to the Prudential Committee, and, through them, to the churches, have been tender and happy. In these relations they have found the largest liberty; and personally the Mission have no cause to desire a change.

"The feelings of the Mission on this subject will be more fully expressed by individual communications from its several members to the Prudential Committee.

"5th. In view, however, of the weighty considerations, which have been set before the Mission, for this change of their connection—considerations whose reasonableness and justice are apparent to their minds, and in view of the expressed opinion of what is their duty, on the part of the united Presbyterian Church, they cannot but feel that the call is from God, and the step to be taken is one demanded by the highest interests of Christ's Church.

"6th. That the Mission express their conviction, that no change is demanded in the ecclesiastical connection of any of its members.

"In accordance, therefore, with these views of this whole subject:

"Resolved, 1. That the Mission present to the Prudential Committee a request for a release from their connection with the American Board, with a view to placing themselves under the direction of the Presbyterian Board.

"Resolved, 2. That the Mission accept the invitation, conveyed in the letter of the Rev. J. F. Stearns, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Conference of the Presbyterian Board of Missions, dated June 19th, 1870, to place themselves under the care of the Presbyterian Board.

"Although the official ties, which have bound us to those with whom we have been so long and so happily associated, may thus be severed, we feel that the bonds of sympathy and of prayer remain unchanged, and will continue so to remain until, in the higher work of praise, our hearts and voices shall be again and forever united.

"A true copy. Attest, W. Bird, Stated Clerk."

In pursuance of this decision, all the male members of the Syria Mission sent their request to be released from the American Board, of which request the following is a copy:

"Abeih, Mount Lebanon, August 17, 1870.

"We, the undersigned, members of the Syria Mission of the A. B. C. F. M., in accordance with action taken and embodied in the accompanying Report, do hereby request the Prudential Committee to release us from our connection with the American Board, with a view of our forming a connection with the Presbyterian Board, said release to take effect when, by the joint action of the two Boards, arrangements shall have been consummated for the transfer of the Mission.

"(Signed) W. M. Thompson, W. Bird,
C. V. A. Vandyke, Henry Harris Jessup,
S. H. Calhoun, Samuel Jessup,
W. W. Eddy, James S. Dennis."

The Mission was received by the Presbyterian Board, October 3d, 1870.

Owing to the distant location, the reply of the Mission to Persia was not received till after the meeting of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, at Brooklyn, in October. Mr. Shedd, and six of the ladies of the Mission, were then reported as being in this country, and no little solicitude was felt as to the decision which should be made, and the measures required to meet the pressing wants of that important and promising field. It was not until some time in the early part of November, that any communication was received. Owing to a misunderstanding, on the part of the Prudential Committee, as to the action of the Mission, the case was still further delayed. A copy of that action, which deserves attentive perusal, as expressive of the views of the missionary brethren, is herewith submitted, and is as follows:

"At a meeting of the Mission to Persia, held at Seir, August 25th, 1870, the following action was unanimously taken:

"Whereas, We have received communications from the Prudential Committee of the A. B. C. F. M., and from a Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, proposing the transfer of our Mission from the care of the American Board to that of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions; and,

"Whereas, The withdrawal of Presbyterian patrons of the A. B. C. F. M., to the support of their own organization, renders it desirable that some of the Missions of this Board should be placed under the direction of the Presbyterian Board; and,

"Whereas, The predominance of the Presbyterian element in this Mission seems to indicate a providential call, that it be one of those to exchange its relations; therefore,

"Resolved, That we cheerfully acquiesce in the proposed transfer of our Mission to the Presbyterian Board; while, at the same time, we approve of individual members retaining their connection with the American Board if they choose to do so.

"Resolved, That, with our present views and associations, and in harmony, we believe, with the terms of the communications received by us, we would suggest that our present connections with Presbyteries, or Associations, at home be allowed to continue, without the organization for the present of Presbyteries in the field; and that there be no disturbance of existing church organizations.

"Resolved, That it is our earnest desire, that, in the transfer of our Mission, the integrity of the Nestorian portion of our field be preserved; that is, that it continue to embrace the whole Syriac-speaking population east of the Tigris.

"Resolved, That the four new missionary families asked for in our recent communications to the Prudential Committee, to which the Presbyterian Board is respectfully referred, is the lowest number we dare to name as necessary for the successful development of our missionary work, and that we earnestly hope that, if possible, this number will be furnished us the coming year.

"A true copy of the minute of the action of the Mission.

"Attest, BENJ. LABUREE, JR.,
"Secretary of the Mission."

Suggestions having been made by the Prudential Committee, and acceded to by the Committee of Conference and the Presbyterian Board, as to the future relations of the two Boards on the field hitherto occupied by that Mission, it was at length determined, after free discussion and in accordance with the views of the missionaries, that the whole field be surrendered to this Board, and the Mission was accordingly transferred, and received by them, December 27th, 1870.

Your Committee have thus, as they believe, to the best of their ability, discharged the trust committed to them by the General Assembly. They have occasion to regret that, in the adjustment of the relations which have so long and so happily subsisted between the A. B. C. F. M., and one of the great divisions of the Presbyterian Church, it has been found necessary to leave behind so large a portion of our beloved and valued Presbyterian missionary co-laborers; consisting, according to a statement made by Mr. Secretary Treat, at the last meeting of the American Board, of about two thirds of the entire number of such laborers in the field. In this we consent to a great sacrifice, as the value of faithful men and women in this service is far beyond that of pecuniary means. We cannot doubt their continued attachment to the Presbyterian Church, nor their cordial approval of its recent happy reunion. But neither they nor we would be willing to dismember, and so weaken by their withdrawal, those missions in which, being in a minority, they could not claim to exercise control. On the other hand, it has been our pleasure to welcome, as fellow-laborers in the Presbyterian connection, a very few of our congregational brethren connected with the Missions transferred—among them some very choice and honored names—who, we trust, will soon find themselves as much at home among us—as free, as happy, and as well sustained, as ever they were in their old relations.

The duty of the Committee has been a delicate and, in some cases, an anxious and difficult one; but they are happy in being able to say that all the questions which have arisen have been amicably, and they hope satisfactorily, adjusted. And, while they cannot cease to love, honor, and rejoice in the prosperity of the venerable Board with which they and the branch of the Presbyterian Church, from whom they received the appointment, have so long and so happily co-operated, they would express the earnest hope and belief, that both that branch and all the parts and members of the reunited Presbyterian Church will now rally around their own Board, charged as it is with these new and most weighty responsibilities, and give it their united and most hearty and efficient support.

All which is respectfully submitted,

J. F. STEARNS, Chairman.

Abstract of the First Annual Report.

The Board of Education, which now sends its first Report to the reunited Presbyterian Church, was conceived near a quarter of a century before the parts separated, and belongs, in its beginning, its design, and its present form, to each of them. It was the offspring, fifty-two years ago, of the great revivals of 1816 to 1820, which began various home and foreign missionary Boards and Societies. Its object was vital and fundamental to the success of them all. For a time, the stream of Presbyterian history separated about obstructions in its course; now they have met again. The same precedents were incorporated in the Rules of the organs of both portions of the Church, as they began to grow more kindly, and draw together in heart. And now it is the most anxious desire and prayer and effort of this Board to be, in its sphere, a worthy representative of the Church in its aim and labors, and be the instrument of multiplying greatly the numbers, and making more and more thorough the intellectual and spiritual preparations, of those heralds who shall over this land, and in all the earth, prepare the way of the Lord and make his path straight, so that soon "all flesh shall see the salvation of God."

The Report, in the first place, at this outset of the work of Ministerial Education in a new career, and in a form more complete, it is believed, than any which has preceded, by the adoption of the best results of the experience of both branches of the Church, presents summarily, for the consideration of the ministry and membership of the Presbyterian Church, the outlines of that form, and the leading principles which animate it; and states what is needed still to give the cause the highest decree of efficiency.

The IId Article of the Constitution shows that the great ends of the Board are evangelistic; it is "the organ of the General Assembly for the general superintendence of the Church's work in furnishing a pious, educated, and efficient ministry, in sufficient numbers to meet the calls of its congregations, to supply the wants of the destitute classes and regions in our own country, and to go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature;" and, with the co-operation of the ecclesiastical courts, it must "provide for the collection and judicious distribution of the funds which may be requisite in the proper education of candidates for the ministry under its care." Being the organ of the Assembly, the work of the Board is performed through the Presbyteries. Candidates are received only on their recommendation, and are subject to their direction and care, as to study and occupation. The duties of the Board are explained in the Report; and next the office of the Presbytery. In reorganizing the Board, the Assembly has enjoined, as an element of primary importance to the performance of the work, that each Presbytery shall "appoint a judicious, sympathizing, and faithful Education Committee, which ought, if possible, to consist of three persons; and be continued from year to year, that it may know and be interested in its duties and the young men, and have a general responsible care, in behalf of the Presbytery, of the work within its bounds." Every student must be carefully examined, and be annually renewed (if possible at the fall meeting) by the Presbytery, or the appropriations will cease. A full annual report is required from the Presbytery to the Synod, and one to the Board. Each Synod should have a Standing Committee, and annually consider, on its report, the subject. Appropriations are sent by the Board, on the reception of Professors' Reports as to the progress and character of students, at the beginning of November, January, March, and May.

The sources of efficiency of the plan are, first of all, the incessant impulses of the Holy Spirit of God. Next, the general and hearty interest of the membership of the Church. The Board of Education is that which first feels the effects of sincere consecration and pious training of children, of the heartfelt and unreserved consecration of young converts to the advancement of Christ's kingdom, of the fidelity of pastors and Sunday-school and other teachers to the Saviour, and of the prevalence of a spirit of prayer in the closet, the family, and the house of God. There must be earnest co-operation of the various ecclesiastical courts.

This Board, in common with others, would express its cordial thanks to those Church papers which have so wisely and powerfully advocated the schemes of Church work, giving large portions of their columns to its advancement. It conceives that the Church needs an organ more suitable to the ends for which it is published, than the Monthly Record, which now reaches but a very small portion of the Church outside of the ministry. It is the belief of this Board, that a periodical of this nature should be published in a cheaper form, perhaps in quarto without a cover; under a name designed to express its object as a representative of the work of the Presbyterian Church; to be paid for by proportional assessments upon the annual receipts of the several Boards, which is the only means by which the specific end can be reached, and has been found practicable in the experience of other periodicals of our Church and of other denominations; and to be sent into every family of the congregations which contribute to the Boards of the Church.

Finally, if the ministry of the Presbyterian Church is to be largely re-enforced, and fitted for her high calling in the world, our working of the Scripture plan of collecting money must be made general and effective. The withholding of it from the service of Christ deters many young men from entering upon a profession, which they see constantly embarrassed for support, limits the appropriations of the Board to Candidates, who depend on it for aid, to sums below what health, comfort, freedom from care, and the necessities of student-life require, even as the supplement of other means and resources; often embarrasses young men with debts, which hinder their engaging in missionary, or the less remunerative fields of labor, and holds up dark prospects of the poverty and sufferings of disabled ministers and orphaned families. These hindrances do not affect this Board's work alone, but the whole ministry and tone of the Church. The Board is thankful to be able to say that, notwithstanding their existence, a larger share of those persons aided by it than of those not receiving aid, are engaged in the more toilsome and exposed fields of labor. For twenty-five years, this Board, with others also, has advocated the universal adoption in the Church of the rule, which God by inspiration has given us in the New Testament, 1 Cor. 16 : 2.

The number of Candidates received, under the care of the Board, is greater than has ever before been aided, in any equal period, by the bodies which now constitute the Presbyterian Church. It may be stated as follows:

Of the above, 242 were new recommendations, and 428 were annual renewals of former recommendations.

The number for the thirteen months covered by the last "year" of the Board, ending May 1st, 1871, was 670; for twelve months it was 658. The number for the year preceding, was 627. The total gain over last year is 42. The gain in new recommendations over those in the two branches last year, is 57. The number in connection with the Board, who have completed their theological studies, at the several Seminaries, is 52. Besides, there are probably several German, colored, and other students, who have not been reported to the Board. The students received were recommended by 115 Presbyteries as reconstructed, and 17 more as not yet so, which might add somewhat to this number. Of the 154 Presbyteries in the United States, 39, therefore, have no students under the care of the Board; one student is directly recommended from the Welsh Calvinistic Church, and several others through our Presbyteries. The Welsh Calvinistic Church is taking steps fully to co-operate with the Board.

It should be encouraging to the Church, also, to know that, through all the instrumentalities employed by it, the care of the Candidates has been more thorough and cordial than in any previous time. The work has been made more simple. The work has been done by the rightful agencies of the Church. Every Candidate received has been recommended by a Presbytery, or an Education Committee of its appointment. And the entire condition of this work of the Church may be truly said to be more healthful than it has ever been before. The effort, in the outset of the Board in its new form, to obtain discriminating reports, as to the diligence in study, and faithfulness to religious obligations, of every student to whom payments have been made, has been entirely successful. Not one theological, collegiate, or academical institution, the Board is most grateful to be able to say, has failed to report, when desired, its students.

Increase of Appropriations.—One of the most important questions relating to the Church's work of Education, at this time, is the practicability of a considerable increase of the appropriations to aid our students for the ministry. The solemn conclusion of the Board is, that the Church is not doing justice to her young men, and that she should increase the annual amounts allotted to aid them in preparation for her ministry. The reasons are:

First. The universal expression of professors and teachers that the sum on which most of our Candidates are compelled to subsist is too restricted; and that their anxieties and trials seriously interfere in a multitude of cases with their devotion to study, thus inflicting an injury upon the Church.

Second. Our knowledge that many really suffer in health, and have not the nourishing food, decent raiment, and books of study which they need. And not a few also share their pittance with widowed mothers, sisters, and younger members of their families, while they nobly struggle to obtain an education for the work to which Christ has called them.

Third. The principle on which assistance is granted—to supplement what young men are able to obtain by teaching, colportage, and other efforts, or from friends, and yet afford them enough to prosecute study without serious interruption—is not fulfilled with the present standard of appropriations. The expenses of living are twice as great since the war, and young men have only the alternative to suffer, or to spend more time than they should in labors tending chiefly to pecuniary returns.

Fourth. The opprobrium, cast for a time on Education by the defects of voluntary societies, has largely passed away. Its principles in relation to Presbyterian polity are now clearly defined, and there is a general desire expressed by our Presbyteries to perform their duties to this work of the Church with fidelity.

Fifth. The encouragement, which the results of the past work of the Board and Permanent Committee afford, is so large, that wherever the facts are made known, churches and private Christians must respond with more liberal support.

Sixth. The loudness of the cries from a multitude of famishing regions on this continent, and from great missionary fields on the other continents of the world, for numerous men, fully equipped for the battles with sin and error in all their giant forms, lays great obligations on the Church to increase the provisions necessary to furnish such re-enforcements.

The amounts suggested as reasonable and possible, would be, for theological students, an increase from one hundred and fifty to two hundred dollars; for collegiate students, an increase from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and sixty dollars; for academical students, an increase from one hundred to one hundred and twenty dollars per annum.

Receipts and Payments.—The receipts of the Treasury proper of the Board have been, for thirteen months, $73,933.03; making with the balance of last year, $79,812.29. To this is to be added the sum of $3507.20 paid to the Permanent Committee at New-York, which, except a balance of $379.33, was allowed by the Board to remain there, in liquidation of debts. There was received also $2020, to be applied specially to the closing up of the schools formerly in connection with the Board. Of this, but a small portion has yet been used; a balance remains of $1818.31.

The Board has paid the closing appropriations of the last spring, and the first three payments of the study year, for November, January, and March, which have included its obligations until April 30th; in all, $73,192.50. In addition to this, it has been gratified to anticipate what is due for May to the students in the theological course, except in the cases of some who had returned home before the draft sent for their payment had been received, amounting to $6256.67. The total payments, April 1st, 1870, till April 30th, 1871, have been $79,449.17. There remains in the treasury a balance of $363.12. The remainder of the May appropriations are now due. The Board needs at once, to pay them, about $15,000. When these are paid, there will remain nothing in the treasury to meet the heavy payments of the fall and winter.

It has been encouraging to observe that the number of churches that have contributed, as compared with the past in either branch of the Church, has considerably increased; and further, that the largest part of what the Board now needs would have been supplied, had the legacies not been one half less last year than in that preceding. In 1869–70, there were in the two branches $18,300; in 1870–71, we received but $9438.

Consolidation of the old Board and Permanent Committee.—The instructions of the General Assembly to the old Board and Committee, the spirit of those to other agencies of the Church, and the advice of sound legal counsel as to the safety of gifts and bequests given to either of the former organs of Education, dictated to the Board, that a special Act of Incorporation should be obtained from the Legislature of Pennsylvania for the new Board, as the representative and lineal successor of the old Board and of the Permanent Committee, and that an Act based upon this should be passed by the Legislature of the State of New-York, which should authorize the Permanent Committee to transfer its property and bequests, etc., to the new Board. These Acts have been passed by each Legislature, and are printed, for the information of the Assembly and Church, in the Appendix to the Report.

In conclusion, how far short is the supply of men to preach the Gospel! If there were no missionary Boards, no Board to assist in educating young men, none to furnish them with good books or other aids, the example of the enterprise of men in worldly occupations, the stern duty to dying millions of our race, and the severe judgments of the Great Day, would not let them go free. The wrath of God will fall upon the Presbyterian Church, unless her young men rouse themselves, and go forth to the salvation of the country and of mankind! What an exciting period is this in which we live; and how peculiar are its responsibilities! There has never since the beginning of time been one in which great, sudden, and violent changes in all the nations and affairs and interests of the whole world, have called so loudly for the energetic action of all the soldiers of the army of Christ, in the defence and propagation of what is holy and good. That Board of the Church which is charged with the increase of men for the office of the ministry of the Gospel, in its loudest voice, beseeches the young men of its families and schools to attend to these things. But not them alone. Every Christian can bear some part. Under such stimulus as far less important matters give to the hearts of worldly men, they pour out their money by millions and hundreds of millions. There is an obligation to support this and other Boards of the Church in what God is calling on them to do, from which no professed follower of Christ is free.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The Board has been duly reorganized, in accordance with the directions given by the last Assembly. The property of the former Board, and that of the Publication Committee, has been fully consolidated.

Immediately after the union of the two concerns, an experienced Building Committee was appointed, "to provide a larger house, adequate to its now extended operations, and to the prospective growth of its business," on the premises now occupied. This edifice has already been begun, and its walls are going up. So soon as it is completed, the other portion of the building, fronting upon Chestnut street, will be erected. It is expected that the entire "Presbyterian House" will be completed before the meeting of the General Assembly in 1872. It will be four stories high. The first floor will furnish accommodations for the commercial arrangements of the Board. The second story will contain the necessary office-rooms for the use of the Board itself, and a large and suitable room for meetings of various kinds, besides accommodations for all other branches of the Assembly's benevolent operations located in Philadelphia. Ample fire-proof vaults will also be provided for the valuable stereotype-plates owned by the Board. Toward defraying the cost of this building, one generous donor, Mr. John A. Brown, of Philadelphia, has contributed the munificent sum of $25,000. Several other gentlemen have given handsome amounts.

The Board has decided to keep, to a limited extent and under certain restrictions, the publications of other houses; especially such as the following:

1. Bibles, Testaments, and prose and poetical versions of the Psalms of David.
2. Sabbath-school library-books deemed by the Board, after examination, suitable for use by our schools.
3. Samples of all Sabbath-school requisites, with a full stock of such as are in demand.
4. Approved Commentaries on the Scriptures.
5. Other books of special interest to the constituency of the Board, devotional, practical, literary, or theological.

PUBLICATIONS.

The attention of the Board has been largely directed during the year to a careful review and reconstruction of its internal arrangements, and to preliminary plans for enlarging its work, and making it more useful to the Church in the years to come. Nevertheless, it has issued the following new publications: Eighteen bound volumes, three 18mo tracts, one 32mo tract, one series of Westminster Sabbath-school Lessons, twenty Spanish tracts, eight German tracts, and one 12mo English tract.

It has printed during the year, 434,550 copies of former publications, and 135,000 copies of new ones, making a total of 569,550 copies. In addition to these it has issued 190,250 copies of the Presbyterian Monthly, the Record, and The Presbyterian Monthly Record, and 1,800,000 copies of the Sabbath-School Visitor.

The Descriptive Catalogue forms a handsome, muslin-bound, duodecimo volume of four hundred and fifty pages. The Board is able to present to the Presbyterian body a noble list, embracing a mass of Presbyterian, Calvinistic, and evangelical literature, of the highest value. Its two thousand two hundred and eighty separate publications, of which 1257 are bound volumes, range from the Primer, with its A B C, to Calvin's Institutes, and from the little leaflet up to the ponderous octavo. In theology, in expositions of church order and discipline, in polemics and pastoral aids, it is rich; nor is it less rich in works enforcing practical morality and piety, and pointing to a closer walk with God, and a more earnest life for him and his glory. For the young, abundant provision is made.

THE PRESBYTERIAN SABBATH-SCHOOL VISITOR.

This paper for our young people is issued semi-monthly, but is taken only monthly by many of our Sabbath-schools. In round numbers, the circulation of the monthly Visitor is one hundred thousand, and that of the semi-monthly fifty thousand; thus giving a distribution of one hundred and fifty thousand of these illustrated papers each month.

THE PRESBYTERIAN MONTHLY RECORD.

In accordance with the instructions of the last Assembly, the Record and the Presbyterian Monthly, of the late branches of the Church, were united under the title of The Presbyterian Monthly Record. This union was effected in the number for August, 1870, and the consolidated magazine has, since that date, been published by the Board of Publication, for the Boards of the Church. Whilst published by this Board, the control of its own pages in the magazine belongs to each of the represented Boards.

The monthly circulation of The Presbyterian Monthly Record has varied from 13,250 to 15,000. The whole number issued of the Presbyterian Monthly, the Record, and The Presbyterian Monthly Record, for the year, has been 190,250 copies.

COLPORTAGE AND DONATIONS.

This branch of the Board's work is carried forward by the help of its Missionary Fund, which is replenished by an annual contribution from the churches, by donations from individuals, and by legacies.

During the past year, 129 colporteurs have been in commission for either the whole or portions of the year. These have labored in 18 States and Territories of the Union, besides the Dominion of Canada, and one in Brazil. Of these colporteurs, 105 have reported, that, with a large majority of the tens of thousands of families visited, they have held religious conversation and prayer. They have also conversed with and labored among many thousands of persons by the wayside, and have sown the seeds of truth in the most remote and unlikely places, in some of which no foot of a missionary has ever trodden. It is the desire of the Board, to have at least one well-qualified and active colporteur at work in each Presbytery; such colporteur to be selected and recommended to the Board by the Presbytery itself, or by its Publication Committee.

GRANTS VOTED BY THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE.

During the year, the Board has made 318 grants. Among these have been made, one or more each to the Sandwich Islands, to Liberia, Brazil, New-Grenada, Italy (for the Waldenses), Portugal, Syria, Mexico, West-Africa (Gaboon Mission), St. Domingo, Spain, Northern India, the Creek Indians, and the Choctaws. The remainder were sent to thirty-five different States and Territories of the Union. Of these grants, the largest number were given to pastors, missionaries, and other individuals, for gratuitous distribution in their respective congregations or vicinities; the next largest number to poor or mission Sabbath-schools; the remainder to churches unable to purchase, to Freedmen's schools, and to miscellaneous objects.

The number of volumes sold by colporteurs during the year was 38,179; the number of volumes given away by colporteurs and by the Missionary Committee, 50,595, besides 3,166,232 pages of tracts. Thus through the Board's missionary department, very nearly ninety thousand volumes, including many copies of our Presbyterian standards and a large amount of sound Calvinistic literature, intermingled with many others not strictly denominational, yet thoroughly religious and evangelical, as well as over three millions of pages of tracts, have been scattered over our land.

SUSTENTATION.

The entire receipts of the year into the Treasury of the Board, and of the Publication Committee before the union was completed, from all sources, including balances therein at the beginning of the year, have amounted to $182,-139.67. The aggregate of expenditures during the year, including the amount passed to the Building Fund, has been $189,070.96. The balance in the Treasury for business purposes at the end of the year, is $11,762.80.

SALES OF THE YEAR.

The cash received from the year's sales has been as follows:

Book-store sales, $79,831.27; sales by colporteurs, $39,002.88; Sabbath-School Visitor, $15,436.59; Record, $5268.66. Total, $139,539.40.

As this statement includes both cash and credit sales, it of course does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which comprehends only cash received.

THE MISSIONARY FUND.

The receipts for the Missionary Fund have been $37,919.39, and the expenditures therefrom $34,095.20. The receipts have therefore exceeded the expenditures by $3824.19. The number of contributing churches reported last year was 1130, including 115 which had sent in their contributions to the Synodical Board of Colportage at Pittsburgh. The number this year is 1457, including 136 which have given their contributions to the Synodical Board at Pittsburgh. There has thus been an increase of 327 contributing churches, this year, to this Cause. For several years past, there has been a steady increase in the number of churches taking an interest in this part of the Board's work.

Abstract of the First Annual Report.

In presenting the first Annual Report of the Board of the reunited Church, we desire to bear our testimony to the happy results of the Reunion, in the harmonious and energetic action of the Board, and of the Church; and also to thank God for the favor with which He has crowned this branch of evangelistic labor.

It has been a year of earnest working and of encouraging accomplishments.

At its first meeting, in June, 1870, the Board was organized by the election of Rev. Joseph Fewsmith, D.D., as President; Rev. John Thomson, D.D., Vice-President; Rev. Henry R. Wilson, D.D., Corresponding Secretary; and Rev. Morris C. Sutphen, D.D., Recording Secretary; and the several committees were appointed according to the plan and rules of the former Board of Church Erection.

This plan, with some modifications, was subsequently adopted for the guidance of the Board.

APPLICATIONS.

The Board have received during the year applications from 271 Churches for aid, amounting in the aggregate to $203,197.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The number of churches to whom aid has been granted is 220.

The appropriations to them amount to $145,292.22, showing an average of about $660 to each church.

The property belonging to these congregations, which the Board have thus aided in securing to the Presbyterian Church and the cause of Christ, is estimated at $1,074,800; and their houses of worship will furnish accommodation for 83,150 persons.

A map has been prepared, and is attached to the Annual Report, for the purpose of showing the relative positions and number of the churches aided by the Board during the year. These churches, it will be seen, are scattered over twenty-eight States and territories, and are under the care of 101 Presbyteries. A large proportion of them are comparatively small, in new and needy sections of our country, though promising growth and future strength. In a few instances, somewhat large grants have been made, to more costly churches, in positions where a larger outlay was evidently demanded.

While giving earnest attention to the new congregations in sparse fields, we must not overlook important strategic points, where a present liberal outlay will secure an influential position, and speedy and large returns, in efficient contributions and aid in the several departments of the Church.

RECEIPTS.

The receipts of the year amount to $156,299.28, viz.: Receipts from the churches, including specials, $97,025.07; individual contributions, $26,166.15; legacies, $9230.86; interest on Permanent Fund mortgages, $5874.64; sale of real estate in Missouri, $7,714.13; from Memorial Committee, $10,288.40.

The Charter of the former Trustees of Church Erection has been amended, by the Legislature of the State of New-York, so as to allow twenty-one instead of nine trustees, and changing the title to that of "The Board of Church Erection." While we rejoice in what has been done, and in the evidence of a growing interest in this branch of the work for Evangelization, we are convinced, that the Church has not yet attained to a sufficiently enlarged apprehension of its magnitude. There are now scattered over our broad territory, about six hundred organized congregations, without houses of worship; and it is not necessary to repeat the oft-made statement, whose truthfulness every year's experience confirms and urges upon us, that a house of worship is essential to the permanency and efficient life of an organized Church. Much earnest labor has been lost, because there has been no sanctuary to furnish a home—a rallying point and fountain of life to the scattered flock.

It is no less true, that many more congregations might be organized, and started on careers of growth and usefulness, if the Church would furnish the ministers to gather them, and places of worship for them. Experience has also confirmed the wisdom of those who established this Board as a distinct arm of the Church's operations.

The growth, from year to year, of its resources, and the energy inspired by its specific operations, as well as the visible results reached, both justify its establishment and call for its continuance.

We cannot forbear the expression of our opinion, that any action tending materially to affect its plan of working, or to destroy its individual life, by absorption of it into any general organization, would greatly damage the interests of Church Erection, and thus impede the progress of the Presbyterian Church. We believe that the highest economy will be found in the most sagacious working of the several organizations of our General Assembly, whose common end is the evangelization of our country and the world.

May the Lord of the Church inspire the people with a due appreciation of the opportunity, to which he has brought them, and with energy and liberality in laying foundations for the future, in efforts to secure the rapidly growing territories for a sound faith and an earnest righteousness!

May this Board, and all the Boards of the Church, be furnished with ample means—an abundance of which is in the hands of the Church—for carrying forward the work intrusted to them, on a scale commensurate with its magnitude of importance!

It would be a matter of interest, could the General Assembly devise some method of ascertaining the full amount, done by the whole Church annually, in Church Erection. If we could present, in one view, all that is accomplished by local or Presbyterial associations, and by individual enterprise, besides what is done in connection with this Board, it would give information concerning the work of the Church, that would be encouraging and stimulating.

At the same time, we deem it important to direct attention to an embarrassment, which may be increased, by a growing tendency, on the part of individuals, churches, or Presbyteries, to make special appropriations of the amounts raised by them for Church Erection purposes. That donors have full liberty to make such special appropriations, no one questions; but it is easy to see, that this may be carried to such an extent as seriously to interfere with the income of this Board, and thus to impair its efficiency. It is very desirable, that these specific gifts should not prevent regular contributions to our Treasury, which the Board may use for the field at large. It is also desirable that, as far as possible, all such donations should pass through the Board, so that they may be included in the obligation by which the property is secured to the Presbyterian Church.

The term of office of the following members of the Board expires at this time, viz.: Rev. Joseph Fewsmith, D.D., Rev. John Thomson, D.D., Rev. Elijah . Craven, D.D., Rev. Norman Seaver, D.D., and Elders Joseph R. Skidmore, Frederick G. Burnham, Jonathan C. Havens. Two other vacancies occur, one by the death of Mr. Russell Scarritt, of the third class; the other by the resignation of Mr. George W. Lane, of the second class.

By order of the Board,

J. FEWSMITH, President.

H. R. Wilson, Corresponding Secretary.

Abstract of the First Annual Report.

During the year, appropriations have been made and remittances sent to, Ministers of the Gospel, one hundred and eight; Widows of deceased Ministers, one hundred and forty-four; and the Orphans of fifteen families. Of these, sixty-one were entirely new cases; four were cases of those who were constrained by necessity to make application, after having for two or more years ceased to draw from the Fund; and three are widows with families, whose husbands had been receiving assistance.

The Disbursements for the year have been as follows:

By The Ministerial Relief Committee,	$2,479 75
The Committee on Disabled Ministers,	18,062 98
The Committee on Relief Fund,	46,829 01
Total,	$67,371 74

The amount of the Disbursements from both Funds last year was $52,689.24, from which it appears that this year's expenditures exceed those of the preceding year by $14,682.50.

The Receipts for the year have been as follows:

By Treasurer of Ministerial Relief,	$2,047 92
Treasurer of Disabled Ministers,	9,057 89
Treasurer of Relief Fund,	53,234 18
Total,	$64,339 99

The total Receipts, last year, for current use for both funds, were $50,652.97, making the Receipts of the year which has just closed to be in excess of those of the preceding year, $13,687.02.

There now remains in the Treasury, according to the Treasurer's statement, a balance of $6405.17.

The benefits of this Fund have been enjoyed in every section of the Church; and so, also, from every quarter the contributions have flowed in. The Presbytery of Western Africa, and the two churches ot Benita and Evangasimba, of the Presbytery of Corisco, have continued their annual remittance; and collections have been forwarded by churches of the Freedmen of the South. The church of Blackbird Hills, composed mainly of native Indians of the Omaha Mission, has remembered our Cause. The deep interest shown by the children of several of the Sabbath-schools is an encouraging feature of this year's operations.

The smallest collection during the year was seventy-five cents from a church beyond the Mississippi, which in 1869 reported eight members. In forwarding this contribution, the pastor writes: "It is a small amount, but we have been building a church; but we thought we would be represented in the different Boards." When the spirit manifested by this pastor and his people pervades our whole communion, there will be everywhere princely giving like that of a well-known church whose collection for this cause amounted to $5785.

To a much greater degree than in former years have these gifts been free-will offerings, cheerfully thrown upon the altar of God, as truly as any that have been contributed for humane or religious purposes.

Notwithstanding the state of the accounts shows, that we close the year with a balance in hand of $6405.17, it is to be borne in mind by the Church that, of appropriations already made, there are second installments which will come due from time to time, beginning with the first day of June, and ending with the first day of November, amounting to over $14,000. If these payments are not promptly met, there will be much inconvenience and distress on the part of those whose main dependence is on this semi-annual supply. In addition to this draught on our resources, there will be a large number of applications to come before the Committee, after the spring-meetings of the Presbyteries, and the action of the several Committees on Ministerial Relief which may have been appointed. The occurrence of death, or other providential events, may create the necessity for granting the means of temporal support to families, or individuals, who now appear to be amply supplied. It will, therefore, be necessary, that the good work of sending in contributions should steadily continue, without waiting for any public appeal for funds. It is hoped, that the Christian people of our Communion will not cease to bear this Cause on their hearts, and pour in their gifts with willing minds as God hath prospered them.

The amount of the Memorial Offerings, thus far received, for the Permanent Endowment of the Fund for Disabled Ministers and their families, is over $12,000. To this there will be some additions.

The increase of the Permanent Fund from legacies, since the last report to the Trustees (including the legacy of Miss Elizabeth C. Chauncy), is $9419.75.

From these two sources the Endowment Fund has been increased more than $21,000. The total of funds invested and uninvested (including the $34,750 held by the Trustees of the Presbyterian House), the income of which will hereafter be available for the purposes of the Relief Fund, is over eighty-five thousand dollars.

Besides the above, there is a special fund, held by the Trustees, of $10,000, the interest on which is a life-estate of a living minister and his wife; but after their death, the income accrues to the Relief Fund.

The income from the Permanent Fund during the year, has been $4198.38.

The Relief Fund, etc., is believed to be one of the best schemes yet devised to lay, upon the conscience of the Church, the responsibility of providing for those who have faithfully served her.

The present plan was not hastily formed, but is the result of repeated and exhaustive discussions of the subject. Its practical operation has justified the expectations of those, who were chiefly instrumental in securing its adoption. It is simple, intelligible, practicable, and has moved steadily forward with a success perhaps unprecedented in any of our schemes of church-work. It is adapted to meet every case of temporary sickness, or of permanent disability arising from hard service; of disease or advanced age on the part of ministers of the Gospel; and likewise every case of want among the widows and orphans of deceased ministers. It brings relief just when it is needed, and continues so to do as long as the circumstances require it. It works effectively and with great economy for the amount of good accomplished; and yet it has thus far done all that was asked. Not one applicant has ever been refused, where there was good evidence of a title to aid. In the great majority of applications, the whole amount recommended by a Presbytery, or its Standing Committee, has been granted. If at any time a less sum has been voted, it was for reasons deemed to be proper and satisfactory.

While these appropriations are adjudged to those who have a just title as to creditors whose recompense is due, the receivers have accepted the remittance with as much gladness and thankfulness of heart as if they were wholly undeserving; grateful to God and grateful to his Church for the load of sorrow lifted from the burdened spirit, and for the physical comfort afforded.

This plan has proved itself in the past to be entirely adequate to help all who need support, either wholly or in part; and with the vast resources of our great reunited Church, there is no reason why it should not, in all future time, be entirely adequate to every exigency. It throws the whole responsibility just where God has ordained that it should rest—on the Church—the whole Church, and it is believed that the great body of the elders, deacons, and people of our Presbyterian household, stand ready to accept the charge at the hands of the great Head of the Church, and with cheerful and obedient hearts to do their duty, and their whole duty, in the premises.

Since the reunion and the reconstruction consequent upon the action of the last Assembly, the Presbyteries have been appointing the Committees and making arrangements for more systematic operations; and there is a hopeful prospect that the organization for effective work throughout all our borders will be soon completed.

In carrying forward this Cause, there are mainly two things to be done through the agency of Presbyteries and Presbyterial Committees; the first is to raise the needed funds by stirring up all the churches, and furnishing each individual in our congregations with an opportunity to share in the good work; the second is to search for and find every case that requires attention, and to lay the application before the Committee on the Relief Fund for Disabled Ministers. There ought to be no waiting for applications from the needy themselves. Let no one pine, in want and in sorrow of soul, for that which the Church ought to give, can give, and is willing to give. The example of the patriarch is worthy of imitation, for he said, "The cause that I knew not, I searched out." When both branches of this work—the raising of funds and searching out the needy—are performed by the Presbyteries conscientiously, kindly, systematically, efficiently, thoroughly; and when the Committee on the Fund discharge their duty, the work is done, so far as the possibilities of the case admit.

It is most respectfully requested that this General Assembly would repeat the action of former Assemblies in the three following particulars: 1st. Requiring all the Presbyteries to appoint Standing Committees to take in charge the whole subject of Ministerial Relief within their respective limits. 2d. Directing diligent inquiry to be made, so that none who are in want, and entitled to aid, shall be neglected. 3d. Enjoining annual collections to be taken in the churches, and all suitable means to be employed to increase the funds for this cause, both for current use and Permanent Endowment.

Like an angel of mercy this Fund comes with its cheering ministrations, helping the needy at almost every stage of life, from the infant orphan to the widow and the minister of eighty-nine years. It has a blessing in it for those who receive, as their overflowing hearts testify; and it has, as surely, a blessing for those who give.

In behalf of the Committee of the Trustees,

GEORGE HALE, Secretary.

Abstract of the First Annual Report.

The Committee was organized on the 16th of June. Rev. Elliot E. Swift, D.D., was elected Chairman; Rev. James Allison, D.D., Treasurer; Joseph Albree, Esq., Recording Secretary; and Rev. A. Craig McClelland, Corresponding Secretary. Mr. George B. Logan declined to serve as a member of the Committee; Mr. O. McClintock resigned, September 19th; and others have not been chosen to fill their places.

This Committee has been in existence but eleven and one half months to May 1st, but reports for a full year; believing that, from the data at command, it does so with the usual degree of accuracy.

The Treasurer of the General Assembly's Committee on Freedmen reported, in his financial statement of May 1st, 1870, a cash balance on hand of $3878.12.

The Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions, in account with its Treasurer, reported, May 1st, 1879, a cash balance of $8597.81 due him from its Freedmen's Department; "to which," said the Secretary of this Department, in his Annual Report, "must be added the cost of the work for a portion of March and April, which will increase the debt."

On the 31st of August, 1870, the acting Secretary of the Freedmen's Department of the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions presented, to the Presbyterian Committee of Missions for Freedmen, an itemed statement, showing an indebtedness, at that date, of $17,789.15, on the work that had been conducted by that Department; and this accorded with an audited balance-sheet afterward presented by the Treasurer of the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions. This indebtedness was exclusive of that on real estate, purchased by said Department, of which this Committee has not received any official statement. It is understood, however, to have been something over $3400.

Of the $3400 indebtedness on real estate, $2300, the amount due on the Mission property at Winnsboro, S. C., has been paid. Of this, however, $1300, generously loaned by Mrs. A. C. Brown, of New-York City, will be due her July 24th, 1871. On the Normal School property at Winchester, Va., $575 were due on the 6th of June, 1870; and the balance, $600, will be due on the 6th of June, 1871, to which must be added the interest that has accrued.

Aside from Memorial gifts for special objects, the amount contributed by churches and individuals is $1939.12 less than the amount received from the same sources last year.

Though the amount given by many churches has been small, yet the increased number contributing is encouraging.

Quite a number of boxes of good second-hand and other clothing, and good second-hand Sabbath-school and other books, have been given to the Freedmen.

In view of the heavy indebtedness upon its work, the Committee, in making out its schedule of school-work for the year, reduced it, with but three exceptions, to that which is strictly parochial; dropping, with their teachers, such schools as had no individual church connection. In the work thus reduced, the regular Missionaries of the year have been as follows:

Ordained Ministers—of whom 19 are colored, 34; Licentiates—all colored, 2; Catechist—all colored, 23; Teachers—male—of whom 13 are colored, 16; Teachers—female—of whom 9 are colored, 42; in all, 58; Total, 117—of whom 66 are colored.

Rev. J. W. C. Pennington, D.D., Jacksonville, Fla.; Rev. George W. Stinson, Brunswick, Ga.; and Mrs. Mary D., wife of Rev. J. A. Chresfield, Lexington, N. C., have died.

Churches organized during the year, 8; whole number under care of the Committee, May 1st, 1871, 97; communicants added—on examination—1007; on certificate, 167; whole number of communicants, May 1st, 1871, 7688; baptized—adults, 830; infants, 462; marriages reported, 134; whole number of Sabbath-schools, 82; whole number of scholars in Sabbath-school, 6220.

A good degree of special religious interest has been manifested in several churches, resulting in encouraging additions.

Of church Buildings, 4 have been completed during the year, 11 are incomplete, and the whole number is 67, upon 6 of which there is an indebtedness of $5933. Belonging to these are 9 Manses, or Homes, upon one of which is an indebtedness of $1300. The united value of these Churches, Manses, and Homes, is $70,934. This estimate does not include the buildings of Biddle Memorial Institute, nor of Wallingford Academy.

SCHOOLS.

Whole number of schools, as reduced for the year, 45; whole number of pupils, 4530; whole number of teachers, 58.

To this should be added, as belonging to the work of the year, the Schools of the Freedmen's Department of the P. C. H. M., in which 53 teachers labored 99 months, from May 1st, to June 30th, 1871, but of which we have not data for a fuller statement; also self-sustaining schools taught in vacation by students of Lincoln University, commissioned by our Committee.

The eagerness with which children and youth embrace the opportunity of attending our schools, the earnest desire of their parents that they should reap the advantages thus offered, and their aptness to learn, seem unabated.

As a rule, the Committee employs as teachers, only members of the Presbyterian Church, and they seem in general to feel that their mission to the Freedmen is religious as well as educational, and to act accordingly. Our schools, with but few exceptions, if any, are opened with prayer, or reading the Scriptures, or both; and the catechism of our Church has been generally taught in day or Sabbath-school, or in both. In some schools the religious influence of the teacher has been very marked.

Biddle Memorial Institute, Charlotte, N. C.; Rev. S. Mattoon, D.D., President. This Institute, established for the special purpose of training colored preachers, catechists, and teachers, as instructors of their own race, holds a place of the first importance in the work of the Committee, and reports 100 students enrolled during the present term. It has a fine location upon a plat of eight acres, a good building, two good houses for professors, and one small dormitory, valued in all at over $13,000, and clear of debt. Through the efforts of its President, a partial endowment of one professorship has been secured during the past year, and its completion, with the endowment of at least one other, at an early day, is exceedingly desirable. Among other wants, are scholarships of $100 for a single year, or for each of a number of years consecutively; a general fund to aid students who can support themselves for but part of a single term; an additional dormitory; and supplies of bedding and substantial clothing—the latter being in constant demand.

Wallingford Academy, Charleston, S. C., Rev. J. H. Bates, Superintendent, has a good building, including a chapel; also a Teachers' Home, the whole, including lot, valued at $13,000. It enrolls over 300 pupils, but has neither endowment nor philosophical apparatus. It is clear of debt.

The Normal School, at Winchester, Va., Mr. O. M. Waring, Principal, has a valuable lot; a building that answers for the present; reports 95 pupils; and under its able Principal, would be a school of much promise, were it not for its indebtedness, which, if not soon relieved, will probably prove fatal even to its existence, as, owing to the pecuniary embarrassment of the property of this school, the Committee have felt obliged to authorize negotiations for its sale.

Scotia Seminary, for colored girls, at Concord, N. C., under superintendence of Rev. Luke Dorland, and opened but a few months since, reports 45 pupils in attendance. It has a small lot and Manse, or Home, with means enough to put up a small School Building for present use. But it greatly needs funds sufficient to purchase additional grounds and put up such a building as its design and prospects demand. It should also be well endowed. This Institution is the only one of its kind under the care of the Committee; and its success is esteemed of special importance, both for the training of teachers for schools, and for the proper cultivation of refinement and virtue among both sexes. It has no indebtedness, and should be so continued.

The Committee has been especially desirous of presenting to this Assembly, its work entirely relieved of the heavy indebtedness which so greatly embarrassed it when committed to its care, and thus in readiness for that enlargement for which the necessities of its field so loudly call. But after special and persistent effort, it is with feelings of sadness, that it is obliged to report, but half success in this regard, and its work accordingly still carrying a burden by which it is seriously trammeled—the churches not having come to its help as it was earnestly hoped they would. Seventeenth Annual Report.

In submitting to the General Assembly their Seventeenth Annual Report, the Trustees of the Presbyterian House would, first, express their profound sense of the loss which they and the denomination have sustained in the death, on the 24th day of December last, of their late associate, the Rev. Albert Barnes. In this death, the Trustees lament the removal from them, not only of one whose clear judgment and conscientious fidelity to all trusts made him a pre-eminently wise and safe counselor, but also of one whose talent and scholarship and piety adorned his times, and gave to the world a beautiful illustration of the power of God's grace in Christ to ennoble human character. The Trustees individually recognize, in this providence, an added force to the Master's injunction, "Be thou faithful unto death."

From the report of the Treasurer, duly audited and herewith submitted, the Assembly will see that the receipts and expenditures of the year have been as follows:

Total receipts, including balance, ...	$6329 49
Total expenditures, ...	5575 12
Leaving a balance of, ...	$754 37

The Trustees report that, in accordance with the commitment by the last General Assembly of the Management of the Ministerial Relief Fund to the Trustees of the General Assembly, they have discharged the Executive Committee of the Ministerial Relief Fund Agency, and have directed the Treasurer of said Committee, to pay to the Treasurer of "the Relief Fund for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers," the funds belonging to the Ministerial Relief Fund. They have also directed their own Treasurer to pay to the Treasurer of the Relief Fund, the interest which, from time to time, shall accrue from the Permanent Fund.

The Trustees further report that, in accordance with the direction of the last General Assembly, they have conveyed to "the Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication" the house and lot Nos. 1334 and 1336 Chestnut street.

The Trustees still further report, that they have been certified of the devise to them, by Charles R. Starkweather, late of Chicago, deceased, of one third of one eighth of his estate in trust, "for Sabbath-schools and Sabbath-school purposes." The executors of Mr. Starkweather's last will and testament have some three years, from this present time, in which to settle the estate; but, when the estate is settled, the interest of the Trustees, it is thought, will have a value near twenty thousand dollars ($20,000). The Trustees have accepted the trust, and have united with the executors in arrangements to appreciate the value of Mr. Starkweather's real estate in the city of Chicago.

The term of office of the following Trustees expires during the present sessions of the Assembly, viz.: Mr. John C. Farr, Charles S. Wurts, M.D., Rev. Daniel March, D.D., Rev. William T. Eva, and Rev. Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D. A Trustee is also to be elected for one year, the unexpired term of the Rev. Albert Barnes, deceased.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Trustees,

THOMAS JAMES SHEPHERD, Secretary.

Philadelphia, May 2d, 1871.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. COMMISSIONERS' AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

Special attention is called to the Mileage System, adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, as recorded on pages 59 and 60 of their Minutes. In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is required to pay in full to the Mileage Committee of the next General Assembly, a sum equal to six cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the requirements of the Assembly.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery, and of every Synod; also, to every Minister, and to the Session of every contributing vacant church (whose address is known), of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage Fund of the Assembly; also, to every ordained Missionary in the service of the Board of Foreign Missions.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates, within their bounds, and how distributed; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next Annual Meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. Such a Report is necessary in order to the correctness of the Tabular Report of the Synods, printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 682, of the present Appendix; of which a printed blank will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. These Narratives should specify facts in regard to the particular churches, their state, trials, encouragements, and prospects; how many of them, and which, have enjoyed revivals of religion through the year; in which of them the Catechisms are taught, Sabbath-schools and Bible-classes organized, with the number of scholars and teachers; also the decease, if any, of the ministers of the Presbytery during the year; in the latter case, the age, date, and place, are also to be given. Also, the various arrangements of the Presbytery for Church extension; stating the number of their ministers, and the particular manner in which they are employed; the number of their churches, and how they are supplied; the gross amount of funds collected in their bounds for Home Missions and Church Erection; the amount received by their churches from the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions; the number of houses of worship, with their probable value, whether they are free from debt, and what has been done within the year to relieve them from debt; the number of new churches organized, and new houses of worship erected; what itinerant arrangements have been adopted for preaching the Gospel; what and how much agency has been employed: together with all such other facts and suggestions as will show, from year to year, what has been accomplished, and what may need to be undertaken, to bring all the churches to a proper degree of effort to promote the kingdom of Christ. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the detail of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following rules be strictly observed:

(1.) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞ 682, if a blank has not been received.

(2.) Record Ministers in the order of their ministerial age, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their Address in the adjoining column.

(3.) ☞ Place the name of every Church opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never, opposite the name of any other minister; if vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. ☜

(4.) Place after the name of every minister, an Abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g.: P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; P. C., for a Pastor of a Congregational Church; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-School Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a College or Theological Seminary; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary, and D. Sec., for a District Secretary, of a benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; W. C., for a Minister without charge; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; and Supt., for Superintendent.

(5.) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviations, P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; or V., for one that is Vacant.

(6.) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7.) In the additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8.) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the directions at the foot of the blank form on the next page, ☞ 682; and omit the fractions of the dollar.

(9.) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column; but, of the Candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the respective Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(11.) Annex a Statement, of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, and organizations and reception of new Churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date, and place) of Ministers, since the last Annual Report.

(12.) Avoid erasures or interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(13.) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet.

☞ If any thing should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent, as soon as possible—not later than June 10th—by mail, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, No. 149 West Thirty-fourth street, New-York City.

FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

ON

TO THE

RE-UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

In presenting the First Annual Report of the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, succeeding the "Board of Domestic Missions," in its sixty-ninth year and the "Committee of Home Missions" in its tenth, the Board cannot but express their profound thankfulness to Almighty God for so many conditions of successful labor which he has permitted the Missionaries to enjoy.

While other nations have been rent by internal faction or distracted by war, we have been at peace. No great political or merely secular questions have engaged the thoughts of the people; a reasonable measure of success in commercial affairs has been granted to them, and they have been able to give full attention to the Church and the Kingdom of Christ.

In summing up the statistics furnished by this Report we trust there will be found ample occasion for the whole Church to give thanks to God for what he has accomplished by our endeavors for the good of Zion during the year.

In giving an account of the labors of the year we cannot forbear to speak of

I. The Difficulties and Perplexities of the Board.

(1.) The labor of reconstructing our Home Missionary work, simplifying and making a unit of what had been two distinct corporations, and two centres of operation, has been much greater than one would suppose.
